Craig Winn's Prophet of Doom:

(will be using to show what the Qur'an says)

<http://www.prophetofdoom.net/>

From the English translation of The History of al-Tabari, Creation to the Flood, we find: Tabari I: 188 "Jews came to the Prophet and asked him about the creation of the heavens and the earth. [Allah didn't bother to explain our beginnings in his Qur'an so Muhammad felt obliged to help him out.]

He said, 'Allah created the earth on Sunday and Monday. He created the mountains and the uses they possess on Tuesday. On Wednesday He created trees, water, cities and the cultivated and barren land. On Thursday, He created heaven. On Friday, He created stars, the sun, moon, and angels, until three hours remained. In the first of these three hours, He created the terms, who would live and who would die. In the second, He cast harm upon everything that is useful for mankind. And in the third, Adam, and had him dwell in Paradise.'"

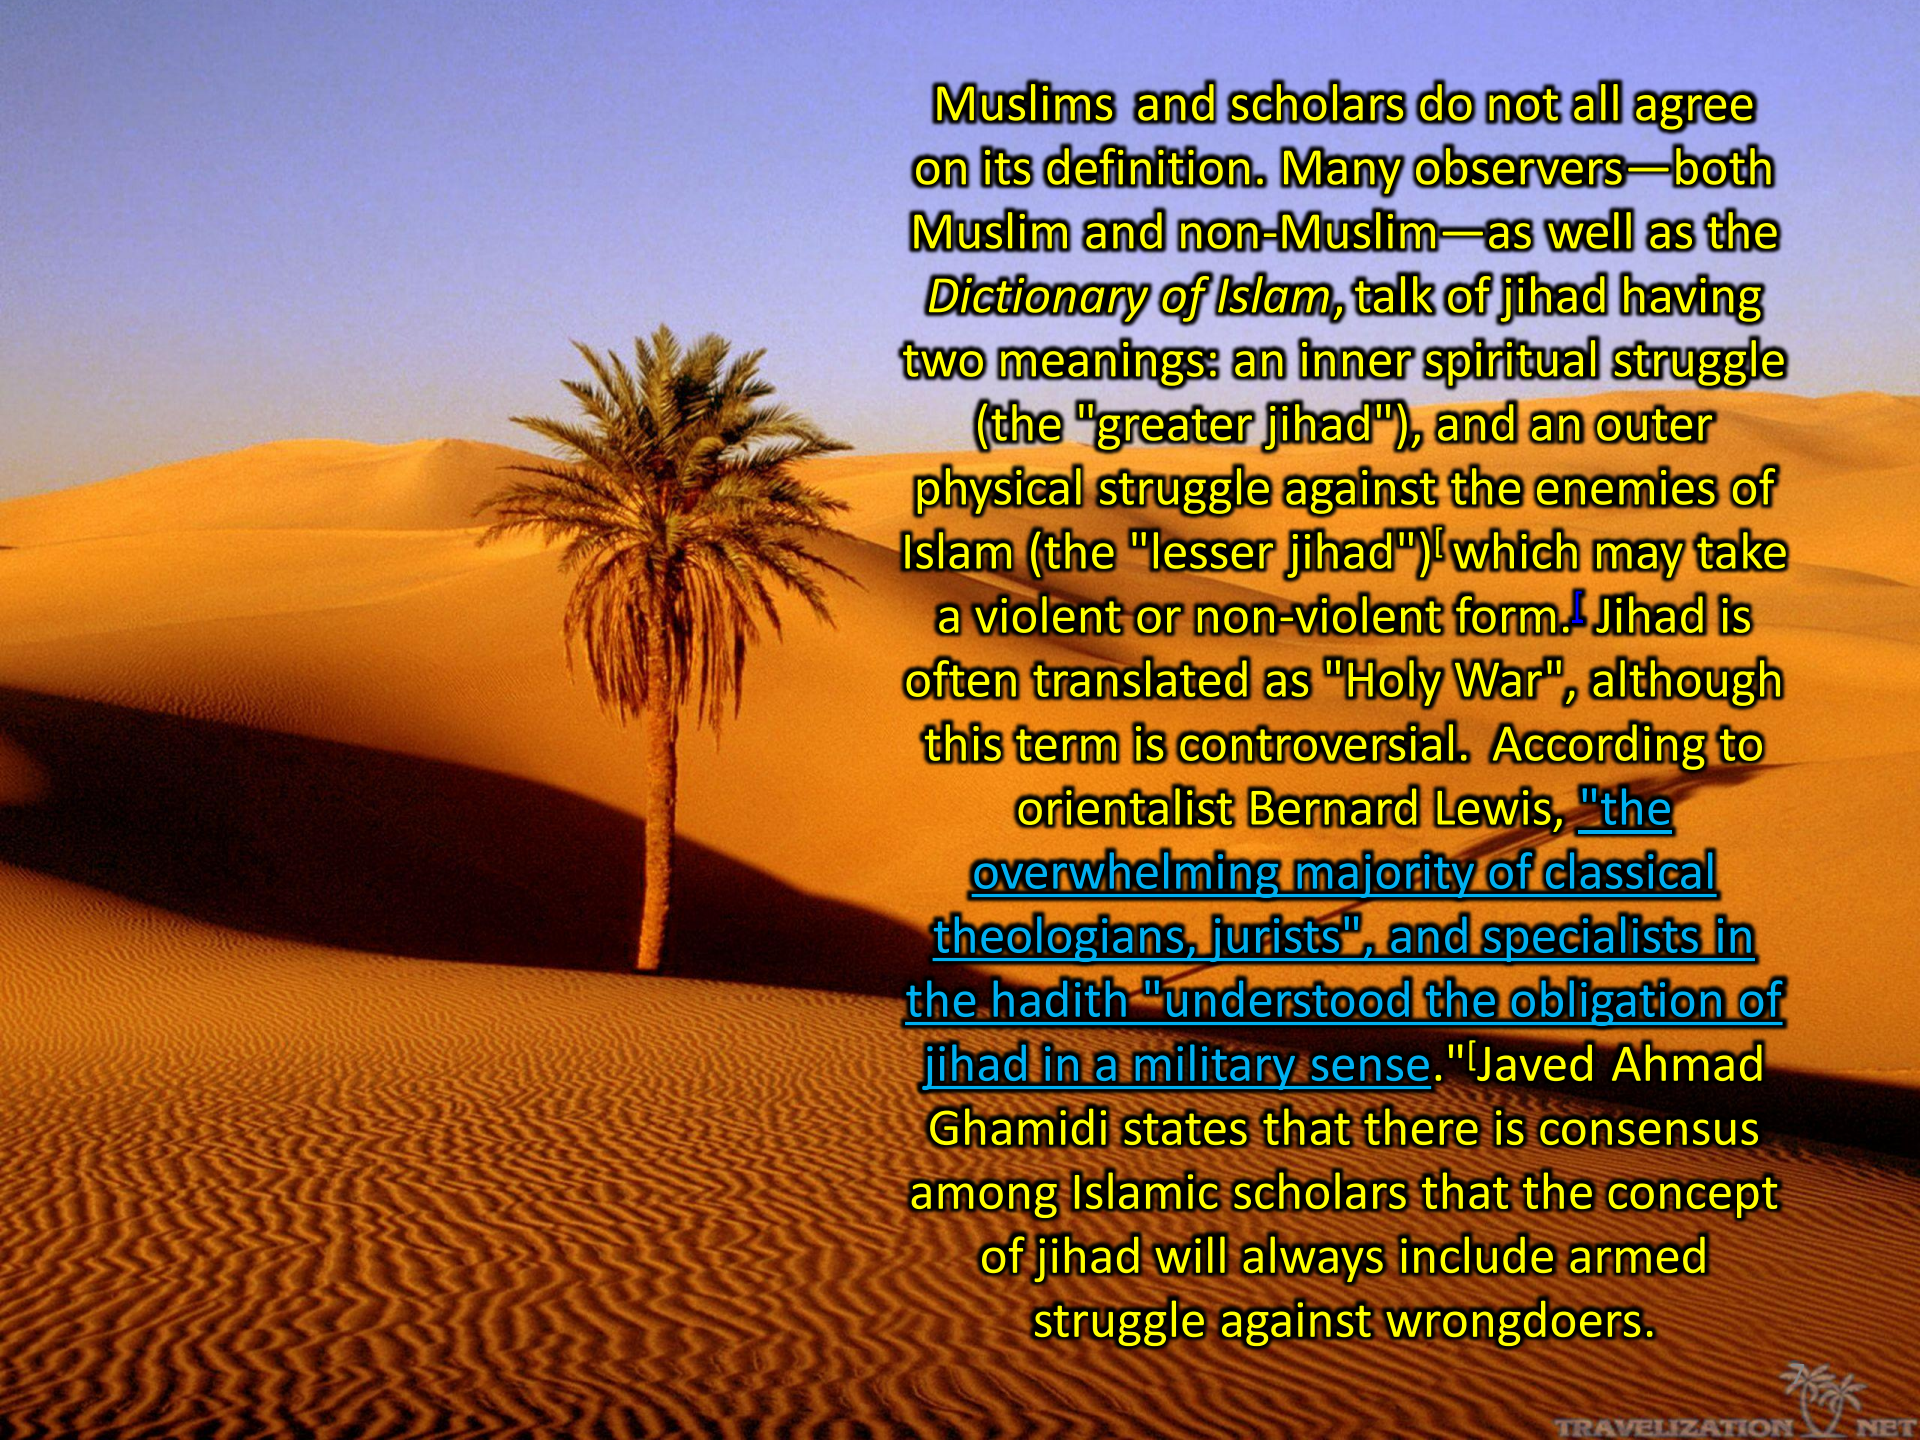

Bukhari:V4B55N549 "Allah's Apostle, the true and truly inspired said, 'As it relates to your creation, every one of you is collected in the womb of his mother for the first forty days, and then he becomes a clot for another forty days, and then a piece of flesh for another forty days [a four month gestation isn't even half right]. Then Allah sends an angel to write four words: He writes his deeds, time of his death, means of his livelihood, and whether he will be wretched or blessed.'"

005.033 "The punishment for those who wage war against Allah and His Messenger and strive after corruption, making mischief in the land [those who refuse to surrender to Islam] is murder, execution, crucifixion, the cutting off of hands and feet on opposite sides, or they should be imprisoned. That is their degradation and disgrace in this world. And a great torment of an awful doom awaits them in the hereafter."

JIHAD

Jihad (English pronunciation: /dʒɪˈhɑːd/; Arabic: جهاد jihād [dʒɪˈhɑːd]) is an Islamic term referring to the religious duty of Muslims to maintain and spread the religion. In Arabic, the word jihād is a noun meaning the act of "striving, applying oneself, struggling, persevering". A person engaged in jihad is called a mujahid (Arabic: مجاهد), the plural of which is mujahideen (مجاهدين). The word jihad appears frequently in the Quran, often in the idiomatic expression "striving in the way of God (al-jihad fi sabil Allah)", to refer to the act of striving to serve the purposes of God on this earth

A photograph of a desert landscape. In the foreground, there are sand dunes with a wavy, rippled texture. A single palm tree stands prominently in the middle ground. The background shows more sand dunes under a clear, light blue sky. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

Muslims and scholars do not all agree on its definition. Many observers—both Muslim and non-Muslim—as well as the Dictionary of Islam, talk of jihad having two meanings: an inner spiritual struggle (the "greater jihad"), and an outer physical struggle against the enemies of Islam (the "lesser jihad")¹ which may take a violent or non-violent form.¹ Jihad is often translated as "Holy War", although this term is controversial. According to orientalist Bernard Lewis, "the overwhelming majority of classical theologians, jurists", and specialists in the hadith "understood the obligation of jihad in a military sense."¹ Javed Ahmad Ghamidi states that there is consensus among Islamic scholars that the concept of jihad will always include armed struggle against wrongdoers.

We have not come to kill civilians or Muslims. On the contrary, we have come to help Syrian Muslims and to ensure that our religion and our brothers triumph. We have come to implement Sharia law — it is our constitution — adopting a model of the Caliphate as according to the Prophet Mohammed. These decapitated heads belong to traitors and agents of the United States and Al Salul [a derogatory term for Saudi royalists], who receive help from the United States and countries in Europe and the Persian Gulf to ensure that the Islamic State does not extend in Iraq, Sham [greater Syria] and soon in Rome. We are fighting in Syria, but our eyes are fixed on Palestine."

"I swear by the name of Allah, this is not violence. We are defending our religion. The news media is against us. I swear by Allah, we are the most gentle and forgiving. We decided to fight so that there would be no more injustice. I am not sure if you know this, but the Islamic State has liberated thousands of prisoners, among them women, children and the elderly. Moreover, many women were raped in the prisons by Shiites and as a result they gave birth in the prisons."

While the Islamic State group is losing territory in its self-styled caliphate, it is tightening its grip on the estimated 3,000 women and girls held as sex slaves. In a fusion of ancient barbaric practices and modern technology, IS sells the women like chattel on smartphone apps and shares databases that contain their photographs and the names of their “owners” to prevent their escape through IS checkpoints. The fighters are assassinating smugglers who rescue the captives, just as funds to buy the women out of slavery are drying up.

The thousands of Yazidi women and children were taken prisoner in August 2014, when IS fighters overran their villages in northern Iraq with the aim to eliminate the Kurdish-speaking minority because of its ancient faith. Since then, Arab and Kurdish smugglers managed to free an average of 134 people a month. But by May, an IS crackdown reduced those numbers to just 39 in the last six weeks, according to figures provided by the Kurdistan regional government.

FBI Director James Comey: Defeating ISIS
Will Make Them More Dangerous
By Pamela Geller on September 27, 2016

Military Success Against ISIS Will Create 'Terrorist Diaspora,' By Paul D. Shinkman | Senior National Security Writer, US News World Report. Sept. 27, 2016:

Top counterterrorism officials say the Islamic State group's threat doesn't end with its defeat on the battlefield.

Obviously logic has "left the building" but then again that is the mindset of the "elites" to try and brainwash us ALL to believe this narrative so that they can achieve their purpose! Thinning the herd and taking total control. This is just one of many ways to do that. We become afraid and allow the government to make more rules for US and give them our FREE-WILL.

<http://www.dcclothesline.com/2016/10/08/6-major-media-conspiracies-happening-right-in-front-of-your-eyes/>

1. The Conspiracy to Make You Love the State

Indoctrination into the nurturing womb of the state is essential for our society to function as it does. As children, we are taught the state's version of national and international history, we pledge allegiance to the state flag, and we learn a superficial version of how state government works while being told the only alternative is destructive chaos.

This theme of state indoctrination carries on into the mainstream media as state worship is embedded into news, infotainment and entertainment. The most important people are those in public office. The most important opinions come from state employees turned pundits. The most important decisions are those made by the government. Heroes are soldiers. There is no issue or concern which does not warrant action from the state.

Isn't this exactly what Islam does? The heroes are those that take their lives along with others, and are promised great reward in "Paradise".

2. The Conspiracy to Conceal the True Powers in the World

There is an invisible unelected power which controls government and industry around the world, yet no matter how many warnings we receive from even the most credentialed individuals, the media will never genuinely report on the shadow government, the deep state, secret societies, or the Zionist neocons, opting instead to direct our attention onto government, maintaining the impression that major decisions are made democratically.

With all the movies out there that talk about the secret government, most think it's just a movie plot. Many know differently and more each day are coming to realize this - but then you have those that still believe the "liberal" propaganda. Only the government can take care of you, so give up your free-will and the government takes care of you.

3. The Conspiracy to Cover Up the Corporate Rape of the Planet

The rape of the planet physically, economically and spiritually by corporate power and greed is escalating on a global scale, yet the mainstream refuses to give this issue its proper due. Corporations are presented as society's saviors, bringing us the jobs and conveniences that make life bearable, yet, while we may profit in material terms in the short term, corporate exploitation of the world and its cultures is quickly pushing us into unknown territory where the world's wealth will be given over to the 1%, and the world's eco-systems are laid waste.

Think Global warming which is now just Climate Change to cover any instance. It's all about the money!! If they were really interested in saving the planet, they would have allowed all the inventions that made cars and electricity more efficient - not buying them up to hide them from people!

4. The Conspiracy to Encourage Self-Destruction

In order to create and maintain the culture of top-down rule, it is mandatory that the populace suffers interminable disunity, widespread apathy, infighting and senseless division. This is fomented by the mainline media's assistance in the destruction of the individual; for our own self-destruction is the most economical solution for the elite in their quest to destroy us.

Chaos with groups like BLM, ISIS, the threat to our well-being along with political correctness make it impossible to know or fight an enemy, so we either become apathetic or join in the senseless fighting in the name of political correctness.

6. The Conspiracy to Prevent Revolution

We are quickly entering a time when the only way for the elite to prevent revolution is to enact the strict social controls only possible in a world war type scenario, which is presently unfolding before our sleepwalking eyes. The mainstream media participates in the conspiracy to prevent revolution by constantly reinforcing false state narratives about security, privacy and the need for more control, and by continually manufacturing consent for the oligarchy.

This is all about taking away FREE-WILL. Religious institutions do this along with the governments. It's all done in the guise of safety, with incidents manufactured to fit the elite narrative. Islam is a perfect example of this!! This is the product of evil, as Yahuah does NOT take away our FREE-WILL.

“Pentagon still unsure whether to link Islam & violent Jihad,” by Hillel Fendel, Israel National News, October 7, 2016

Islamic jihadists routinely link Islam with violent jihad. In all their communiques and all their appeals for support, and in all their attempts to recruit peaceful Muslims, they invoke the Qur’an and Muhammad. The fact that this is controversial and still being discussed fifteen years after 9/11 is an indication of how deep the denial, and how serious the crisis, is in Washington.

“Pretending there is no relationship between the violent jihadists and Islam isn’t going to win,” a source knowledgeable about the National Military Strategy told The Washington Times. “We’re completely ignoring the war of ideas. We’re still in denial. We’re pretending the enemy doesn’t exist.”

“They” pretend the enemy doesn't exist, because they created the enemy!! How else would “they” get the people to go along with these things?

From 'Code Red Alert' To The 'Red Screen': Are 44 Afghan Nationals On The Loose In America Planning An 'End Game' Attack To Be Blamed Upon Russia That Launches World War 3?

Back on September 28th, Susan Duclos put out a 'Code Red Alert' story on ANP, warning that something huge might be coming to America after Bill Gertz over at the Washington Free Beacon reported that seven missing Afghan nationals who had been receiving military training in the US had disappeared from the military bases they were training at. Susan warned us then we might be witnessing another sign of something huge coming to America in the next few weeks prior to the election as the 'nwo' works towards its 'end game' here in America.

A wide-angle photograph of a desert landscape featuring three prominent butte rock formations. The buttes are dark, layered rock structures with flat tops, set against a backdrop of a vast, flat desert floor. The sky is filled with soft, white and grey clouds, suggesting a hazy or overcast day. The lighting is natural, highlighting the textures of the rock and the sparse vegetation on the desert floor.

While 7 potential terrorists on the loose in America might not raise too many eyebrows and wasn't stressed heavily in the mainstream media, this new story from Kit Daniels over at Infowars raises that bar. Telling us AT LEAST 44 Afghan nationals that had taken advantage of a Pentagon program to illegally immigrate to the US since January of 2015 had gone missing, we have to wonder how many more potential terrorists may have been allowed into this country in the years prior to 2015 and how many more of them have simply 'disappeared' that we don't know about?

ISIS Kill List Names 15,000 American Christians Targeted for Death

According to a report recently made public, early this year, ISIS specifically identified 15,000 Christian Americans for death and instructed jihadists already in America to begin widespread murder.

The Kill List report comes in the wake of ISIS already publicly warning American and British Christians that “they were next.” British police last week publicly warned its 5.4 million Christians to be on alert and in some areas increased security.

But, Circa News reports that the FBI did not notify American Christians who are on the ISIS “Kill Lists.

After continued Muslim terror attacks, NYC launches “I am Muslim” media blitz

There are human rights laws specifically for the protection of Muslims? Is New York now governed by sharia law? The so-called Human Rights Commission sounds more like a sharia court. More analysis to follow.

A 20-year-old computer science student from Kosovo described by the Justice Department as “the first terrorist hacker convicted in the United States” was sentenced Friday to two decades in prison for providing the Islamic State with a “kill list” containing the personal information of roughly 1,300 U.S. military members and government employees.

“The threat to these 1,300 victims goes beyond the release of their private information,” U.S. Attorney Dana Boente wrote in a court filing earlier this month.

They have now been marked as enemies of ISIL. Any ISIL member or sympathizer in the United States looking for a target now has the information belonging to 1,300 individuals who ISIL has specifically marked for attack. The victims have a permanent target on their backs. While the defendant may not have pulled a trigger, he told members of ISIL where to shoot.”

SMOLOKO.COM - REPORTING THE TRUTH

Ultra high-tech MK-Ultra methodologies are now being deployed.

Sleepers have been actually cerebrally chipped, some functionally chipped by inhaled nano-particles, some unknowingly and secretly soul-murdered and then hypnotized and programmed by the Suitcase. Some are put under with anesthesia for 1-3 months, woken up for maintenance periodically, and fed by IV while they are completely reprogrammed.

Some agents have been taught to speak multiple languages in proper dialect this way in only a few months, preparing them for deep cover work. Many members of the public will have a hard time accepting the fact that these incredibly advanced mind-control programs exist and have been deployed as weapon systems. Sad to say, but the Bourne Series movies are all based on real programs and typical practices of these various CIA MK-Ultra programs.

Here is the bottom line. Some sleepers can be triggered by a single phone call, some by satellite, some by a strange symbol inserted into their daily life. Ultra high tech psychotronics are the main method of brain entrainment and mission activation so far. Literally hundreds of Sleepers have been conditioned and successfully inserted at all levels of the USG, Intel, LE and the Military, all throughout the US, including security services, such as the Secret Service.

Most of these have self-destruct sub-programs that can be activated to cause the operative to self-destruct or commit suicide. The Israelis have mass conditioned thousands of mercenaries and Wahhabis who present as radicalized Islamics with these methods and are led to believe they will receive a pack of virgins in the afterlife if they blow themselves up. This is hard to comprehend, but tragically, it is what it is. Such is the nature of current CIA and Mossad Operations.

Tavistock Institute Of Human Relations

This group was formed at Oxford University, London, by the Royal Institute of Of International Affairs in 1922. Major John Rawlings Reese, a British Army technician, was instructed to set up the largest brainwashing facility in the world at the Tavistock Institute for Human Relations as a part of Sussex University.

This became the core of Britain's Psychological Warfare Bureau. It was Tavistock-designed methods that got the United States into the Second World War and which, under the guidance of Dr. Kurt Lewin, established the OSS, the forerunner of the CIA. Lewin became the director of the Strategic Bombing Survey, which was a plan for the Royal Air Force to concentrate on bombing German worker housing while leaving military targets, such as munition plants, alone. The munition plants on both sides belonged to the international bankers who had no wish to see their assets destroyed. The idea behind saturation bombing of civilian worker housing was to break the morale of the German worker.

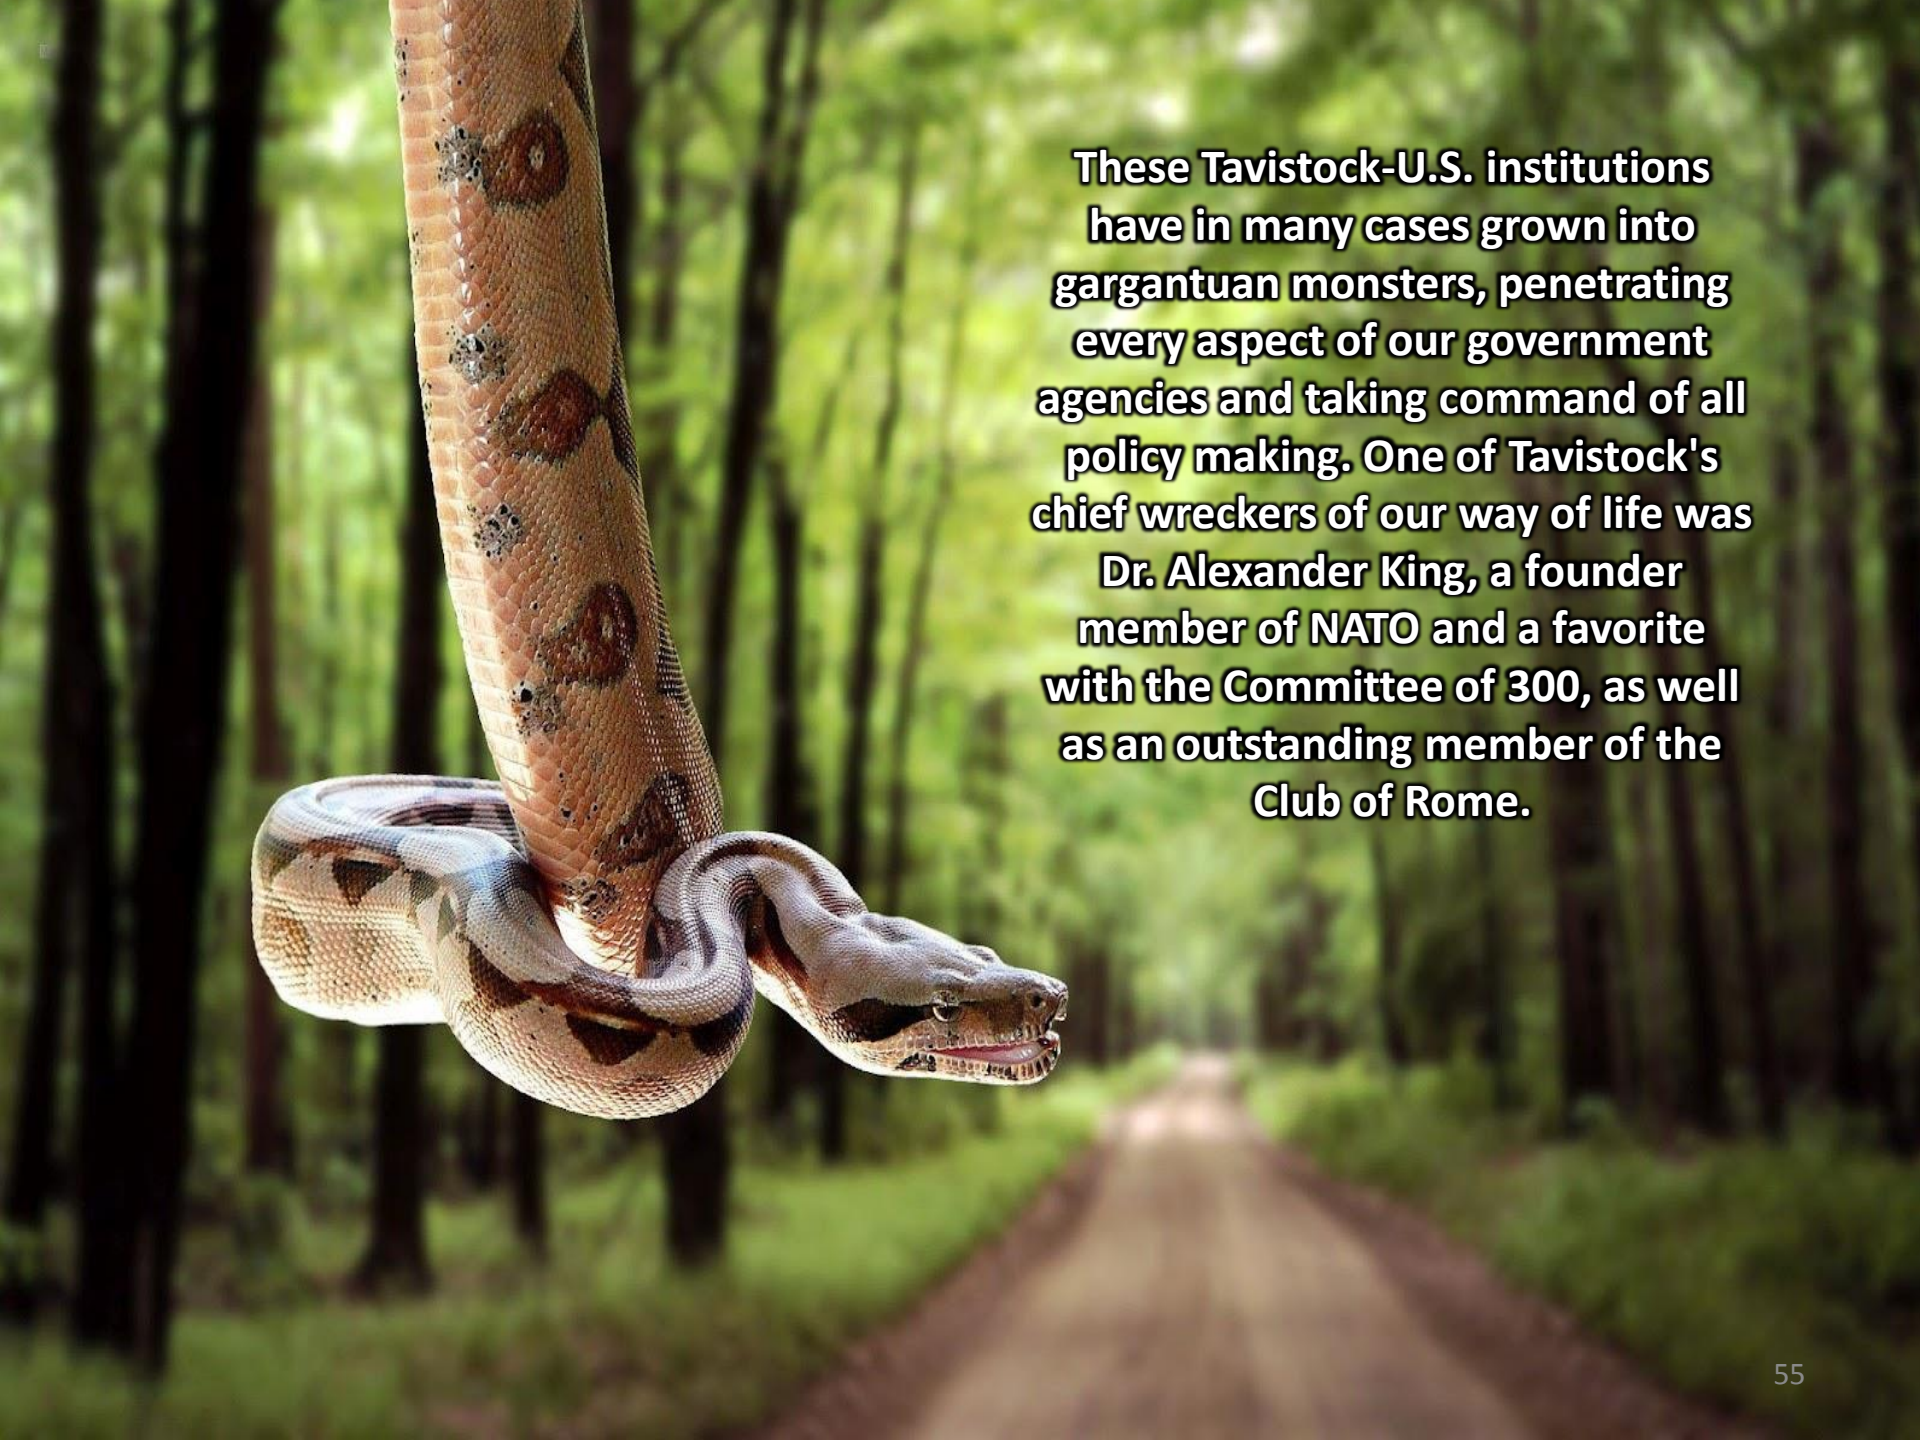

It was not designed to affect the war effort against the German military machine. Lewin and his team of actuaries reached a target figure, that if 65% of German worker housing was destroyed by nightly RAF bombing, the morale of the civilian population would collapse. The actual document was prepared by the Pru-dential Assurance Company. The RAF, under the command of "Bomber" Harris, carried out Lewin's plans, culminating in the terror firestorm bombing of Dresden, in which over 125,000, mainly old men, women and children, were killed.

The truth of "Bomber" Harris's horror raids on German civilians was a well kept secret until long after the end of WW II. Today its primary mission is to establish a global brainwashing and opinion forming network. This institute is the originator of the Aquarian Conspiracy, designed to weaken the nations of the world by encouraging drug use, free sex, homosexuality and lesbianism.

It has been very successful in the United States. It works through many research institutes and think tanks. The principal ones in the United States are the Stanford Research Institute, Rand Research and Development Corporation, the Institute For Policy Studies, the Aspen Institute, the Hudson Institute, and the Brookings Institute. Tavistock runs over 30 research institutions in the United States.

These Tavistock-U.S. institutions have in many cases grown into gargantuan monsters, penetrating every aspect of our government agencies and taking command of all policy making. One of Tavistock's chief wreckers of our way of life was Dr. Alexander King, a founder member of NATO and a favorite with the Committee of 300, as well as an outstanding member of the Club of Rome.

When it was decided that a super-body would control European affairs, the RIIA (Royal Institute of International Affairs) founded the Tavistock Institute, which in turn created NATO. For Five years NATO was financed by the German Marshall Fund. Dr. King was assigned by the Club of Rome to destroy America's education by taking control of the National Teachers Association and working in close conjunction with certain law makers and judges. Scientists engaged in the process of conditioning are called "social engineers" or "new-science social scientists" and they play an integral part in what we see, hear and read.

The "old school" social engineers were Kurt K. Lewin, Professor Hadley Cantril, Margaret Meade, Professor Derwin Cartwright and Professor Lippsitt who, together with John Rawlings Reese, made up the backbone of new-science scientists at Tavistock Institute.
