

Halloween

The Scariest Thing About It Is

It Will Steal Your Eternity

Is it worth it?

Table of Contents

1. Intro/Scriptures
2. Ancient History
3. History In America
4. Halloween Around The World
5. The Catholic Connection
6. Other Accepted Witchcraft For Children
7. Wiccan/Satanic Perspective
8. Closing with Yahuah's Word

Other Accepted Witchcraft for Children

There is no middle ground as we have seen. The ground is actually a slippery slope away from Yahuah and a fast track into shatan's clutches of Babel. Let's be clear. There is no difference between "white magic" and "black magic". Yahuah forbids it.

Let's also be really honest here and look at some of the most sacred cows of acceptable witchcraft for children that Christians and pagans embrace. The fact that pagans endorse this should let us know this is not acceptable for children of the Set Apart ones of Yahuah's Family.

Harry Potter

Tragically many children and teens today are obsessed with Harry Potter and are actively seeking Harry's power. What exactly is Harry's power? Where does it come from? We will take a closer look at the effects of Harry Potter on this generation.

Dan 8:25a speaking of the anti-messiah says: "And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand..."

Well that is exactly what the world is being set up to embrace: Witchcraft. We will also be going over an article published by Christianity Today Magazine entitled "Why We like Harry Potter". But Christianity Today is not the only mainstream Christian media source to endorse Harry Potter; among the others are, James Dobson-(who also endorses Halloween), Chuck Colson, Wheaton College etc. The seduction is virtually complete. Most (if not all) of Christianity's top leaders have now gone over to the dark side. Many today openly endorse and embrace witchcraft, magic and other devilish arts and devices. Many others, by their marked silence, are now acquiescing and joining in on this ghoulish, latter day's conspiracy. Taken from the book "We Love Harry Potter and We'll tell You Why," here are a few kids' ideas: "I'd like to go to wizard school, learn magic and put spells on people. I'd make up an ugly spell and then it's payback time!" - Catherine (age 9)"I feel like I'm inside Harry's world. If I went to wizard school, I'd study everything: spells, counter spells and defense against the Dark Arts." - Carolyn

(age 10) "I liked it when the bad guys killed the unicorn and Voldemort drank its blood." - Julie, (age 13)

From Cutting Edge <http://cuttingedge.org/news/hpmain.html>

If you are not aware that Harry Potter is REAL Witchcraft and if you have been misled by certain Christian ministries suggesting that the Potter series is fine reading for children, please take a moment to read our section on Harry Potter.

<http://cuttingedge.org/news/hpmain.html>

You will discover in depth articles written by the Director, who has studied Black Magick Witchcraft for almost 20 years.

Harry Potter: The witch's view

BBC News | June 23rd, 2003

Real-life witch Marysia Kolodziej, from Tooting, south London, was one of the first to pick up the new Harry Potter book at midnight. Here, the 27-year-old introduces herself, before she reviews The Order of the Phoenix.

"I have been involved in the pagan community for seven years. I am a thelemite, a solitary witch - you are not Wiccan unless you have been initiated, which I hope eventually to be - and a ritual magician in practice. I am also interested in chaos magick, tarot, Kaballah and the Egyptian and Celtic deities. My father introduced me to the Harry Potter books not long after book four came out. I am a fan for several reasons. Initially it's the universe, the books with the largest pull have this highly detailed, well thought out universe that almost seems real and, importantly, that you would want to be a part of. You are not just drawn into the story but into that world.

Then through talking about them with fans you fall further and further in love with the characters, you analyze them and worry about them until they feel real to you.

Then you have, in a way, become a part of that shared universe and it is a wonderful place to be." As you've read for yourself, the witches themselves are praising Harry Potter's witchcraft. Read what the witches have to say at <http://www.witchcraft.org/books/KateWest.htm> (below is a short paragraph from their website).

Harry Potter, Sabrina The Teenage Witch, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Charmed. It seems we can't get enough of all things magical or 'witchy' at the moment. The result of all this interest is that Wicca has become the fastest growing religion in the UK. Wicca is a nature-based spiritual path that celebrates the feminine, follows the changing seasons of the year and is rich with magic and enchantment. But is it all spells and hocus pocus?

Kate West's grounded introduction to the Craft separates the Hollywood myth from the every day reality, with all the practical advice you need to follow the Wiccan way. There are many coffee-table pretenders around, but Kate West is the real thing. Her Witchcraft is about passion, not fashion! She explores the myths that surround Witchcraft, its festivals, beliefs, practices and folklore. She explains the responsibilities of becoming a Witch and provides plenty of magical and herbal spells you can work with - from charms to help you attract your ideal partner to healing potions for natural beauty to affirmations that will help you find empowerment. Witchcraft can help you to become personally fulfilled as it teaches you take control of yourself and your life. Whether you want to join a group or a work alone, this is a great guide to Wicca."

Christianity Today Magazine likes Harry Potter

The partial article below was taken from Christianity Today's library at the following link:

<http://www.ctlibrary.com/ct/2000/january10/29.37.html>

Why We Like Harry Potter

The series is a 'Book of Virtues' with a preadolescent funny bone. A Christianity Today editorial: It's Christmas present shopping time. Time for your 10-year-old to make his list—and for you to check it twice. But are the Harry Potter books at the top of his list—the first books topping his list for as long as you can remember—naughty or nice? These multimillion-selling stars of bestseller lists cause some anxiety for Christians since the main characters are wizards and witches.

In fact, you may have read newspaper accounts and heard radio reports of how Christians are fighting school boards over having the books in libraries. As a concerned parent, what should you do? We think you should read the Harry Potter books to your kids. (Are they kidding? Reading out loud the demon names to your kids? That is summoning demons on the whole family!)

First, we should all be suspicious of the media's hype of Christian parents objecting to the books. Reporters love the dialectic of first presenting the Christian stick-in-the-mud who objects to or is outraged by something, followed by the "reasonable" person who demonstrates how to be both moral and fun-loving. What remains unreported is that many Christians—such as Charles Colson and Wheaton College literature professor Alan Jacobs—enjoy and defend the Potter series. (WOW, don't want to be called a stick in the mud! Remember that if you have to stand before Yahuah in judgment. You opened the door to witchcraft on your family because you didn't want to be called names. Question: Does a "reasonable" person jeopardize their eternity by endorsing witchcraft for kids? Just ask Yahuah.)

A documentary by Jeremiah Films called Harry Potter: Witchcraft Repackaged www.jeremiahfilms.com contends that more and more young Potter fans are becoming involved in witchcraft, and that Scholastic Inc., the world's largest publisher of children's books, is producing more and more materials featuring graphic horror, the occult, the supernatural, and spiritism.

Maybe someone needs to hand a USA Today newspaper to the people at Christianity Today...

Witches have good reason to be excited about Harry Potter. The book series is giving the "craft" a huge boost. No wonder that when interviewed by USA Today, a warlock endorsed Harry Potter and bubbled with excitement at the series' wide acceptance by the mainstream.

He's a charmer, that Harry Potter. The adolescent hero of J. K. Rowling's series rides a broom, owns an invisibility cloak and magic wand, and has cast a spell over young readers the world over. He has modern-day witches enchanted too. "For once, the witches aren't ugly old hags," said Michael Darnell, 39, a computer programmer from Winnipeg, Canada, who has been a practicing witch for over twenty-five years. "For once they're the protagonists rather than the villains."

—USA Today, May 30, 2000

Something is very wrong with professed Christians today who endorse witchcraft. To speak positively of Harry Potter's books is to promote and endorse sinful witchcraft (and ALL witchcraft is sinful).

If you don't believe the Scriptures, then what do you believe?

Upon what is Wicca's beliefs based? Here's the answer. Wicca has NO solid roots, and one would be a complete fool to risk eternity by adhering to such uncertainties.

Official Harry Potter Hogwart's School of Witchcraft Logo

Children can actually enroll into the Hogwart's School of Witchcraft

Here's another Hogwart's where children are taught divination, charms, and potions. This site is maintained by a 15-year old Canadian girl (just one of millions of young Satanist's being groomed to prepare the stage for the coming antichrist).

Wicca says it doesn't matter what you believe, just as long as you don't condemn anyone else as being wrong. Now can you honestly tell me that's not the devil at work?

Common sense should tell a person that every religion cannot be correct. So that leaves us in a predicament--we MUST study the different manuscripts, and decide what we believe to be THE TRUTH.

To me, it couldn't be any simpler. You see, every "religion" is false and can be traced back to a sinful human being (e.g., Charles Russell founded the Jehovah's Witnesses, Joseph Smith founded the Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventism is based upon the writings of Ellen G. White, Ron Hubbard founded the Church of Scientology, Muhammad founded Islam, and so forth. The Catholic Church and Christianity are based upon Constantine, the Council of Trent, the Popes, and the fabricated traditions of the Vatican over the centuries.

I'm including this next article because it is written from an ex witch point of view, but he still does not know Yah.

What Does God Have To Say?

I am writing this urgent message because I was once a witch. I lived by the stars as an astrologer and numerologist casting horoscopes and spells. I lived in the mysterious and shadowy realm of the occult. By means of spells and magic, I was able to invoke the powers of the "controlling unknown" and fly upon the night winds transcending the astral plane. Halloween was my favorite time of the year and I was intrigued and absorbed in the realm of Wiccan witchcraft. All of this was happening in the decade of the 1960's when witchcraft was just starting to come out of the broom closet.

It was during that decade of the 1960's, in the year 1966, that a woman named J.K. Rowling was born. This is the woman who has captivated the world in this year of 2000 with four books known as the "Harry Potter Series." These books are orientational and instructional manuals of witchcraft woven into the format of entertainment. These four books by J.K. Rowling teach witchcraft! I know this because I was once very much a part of that world.

Witchcraft was very different in the 1960's. There were a lot fewer witches, and the craft was far more secretive. At the end of that spiritually troubled decade, I was miraculously saved by the power of Jesus Christ and His saving blood. I was also delivered from every evil spirit that lived in me and was set free. However, as I began to attend fundamental Christian churches, I realized that even there witchcraft had left its mark. (Hopefully he will grow and see that JC is part of that mark as well.)

Pagan holidays and sabbats were celebrated as "Christian holidays." As time went on, I watched the so-called "Christian" churches compromising and unifying. I also watched with amazement as teachings from Eastern religions and "New Age" doctrine began to captivate congregations. It was a satanic set-up, and I saw it coming. Illuministic conspirators were bringing forth a one-world religion with a cleverly concealed element of occultism interwoven in its teachings.

In order to succeed in bringing witchcraft to the world and thus complete satanic control, an entire generation would have to be induced and taught to think like witches, talk like witches, dress like witches, and act like witches. The occult songs of the 1960's launched the Luciferian project of capturing the minds of an entire generation.

In the song "Sound Of Silence" by Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel, we were told of seeds that were left while an entire generation was sleeping, and that the "vision that was planted in my brain still remains." (This is also the seeds of the pagan holidays we practiced as kids and religious dogmas that people can't let go of, like JC.)

Now it is the year 2000. All of the foundations for occultism and witchcraft are in place. The Illuminists have to move quickly, because time is running out.

It was the Communist revolutionary Lenin who said, "Give me one generation of youth, and I will transform the entire world." Now an entire generation of youth has been given to a woman named J.K. Rowling and her four books on witchcraft, known as the Harry Potter Series.

As a former witch, I can speak with authority when I say that I have examined the works of Rowling and that the Harry Potter books are training manuals for the occult.

Untold millions of young people are being taught to think, speak, dress and act like witches by filling their heads with the contents of these books. Children are obsessed with the Harry Potter books that they have left television and video games to read these witchcraft manuals.

The first book of the series, entitled "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone", finds the orphan, Harry Potter, embarking into a new realm when he is taken to "Hogwart's School of Witchcraft and Wizardry." At this occult school, Harry Potter learns how to obtain and use witchcraft equipment. Harry also learns a new vocabulary, including words such as "Azkaban", "Circe", "Draco", "Erised", "Hermes", and "Slytherin"; all of which are names of real devils or demons. These are not characters of fiction!

How serious is this? By reading these materials, many millions of young people are learning how to work with demon spirits. They are getting to know them by name. Vast numbers of children professing to be Christians are also filling their hearts and minds, while willingly ignorant parents look the other way.

The titles of the books should be warning enough to make us realize how satanic and anti-christ these books are. The afore mentioned title of the first book, "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone", was a real give away. The second book was called "Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets", while the third book was entitled "Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban." (The reason why this is so dangerous is that these demon portals are being invited into these children's lives. They cannot come in without permission. I'm not saying every child will be possessed, but every child who is indoctrinated in this is being EXCLUDED from Yahuah's family due to this. Many times for shatan this is enough.)

Sadly enough, this blatant witchcraft has been endorsed by well-known and respected "Christian" leaders, such as Dr. James Dobson and Chuck Colson, who have proven themselves to be modern day Judas Iscariots. Nothing could be more obvious than that Harry Potter books are pure witchcraft and of the devil. The "Christian" leaders, however, defend them by saying that good magic always wins and overcomes evil magic.

This is the oldest con game ever hatched out of hell. As a real witch, I learned about the two sides of "the force." Apparently, so do many "Christian" leaders. When real witches have sabats and esbats and meet as a coven, they greet each other by saying "Blessed be", and when they part, they say "The Force be with you." Both sides of this "Force" are Satan. It is not a good side of the force that overcomes the bad side of the force, but rather it's the blood of Jesus Christ that destroys both supposed sides of the satanic "Force." (This confirms that Lucas and Spielberg are not to be trusted either as they taught the whole world that phrase "May the force be with you." Did you even know this was a satanic phrase? I sure didn't!)

High level witches believe that there are seven satanic princes and that the seventh, which is assigned to Christians, has no name. In coven meetings, he is called "the nameless one." In the Harry Potter books, there is a character called "Voldemort." The pronunciation guide says of this being "He who must not be named." (His character was portrayed with snake like qualities. Obvious stuff hidden in plain sight, we are being mocked and led by these occultists and we never say a word.)

On July 8 at midnight, bookstores everywhere were stormed by millions of children to obtain the latest and fourth book of the series known as "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire." These books were taken into homes everywhere with a real evil spirit following each copy to curse those homes. July 8th was also the 18th day (three sixes in numerology) from the witches' sabat of midsummer. July 8th was also the 13th day from the signing of the United Religions Charter in San Francisco. Now we have learned that the public school system is planning to use the magic of Harry Potter in the classrooms making the public schools centers of witchcraft training.

As parents, we will answer to God if we allow our children to read witchcraft books. The Word of God will prevail mightily in your life only if such things of Satan are destroyed.

Pastor David J. Meyer

Published by: Last Trumpet Ministries International, Beaver Dam, WI

Links to Articles Exposing the Evils of Harry Potter-

The Real Harry Potter: Witchcraft Repackaged.

<http://www.chick.com/catalog/videos/0127.asp>

Watch Video Clip

Harry Potter 'occult' warning (News Report from the BBC).

http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/education/newsid_1638000/1638887.stm

School bans Harry Potter. (News Report from the BBC).

http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/education/newsid_693000/693779.stm

Buffy Draws Children to Witchcraft. (News Report from the BBC).

http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/entertainment/newsid_864000/864984.stm

Harry Potter, Sorcery and Fantasy.

http://cana.userworld.com/cana_harrypotter.html

Harry Potter: A Journey to Power.

http://cana.userworld.com/cana_morehpotter1.html

Harry Potter? What Does God Have To Say?

<http://www.lasttrumpetministries.org/tracts/tract7.html>

The Harry Potter Books and Christians.

Reachout Trust - Harry Potter and Christians

Harry Potter -Sorcery and Fantasy

<http://www.reachoustrust.org/articles/occult/hpotter3.htm>

Harry Potter Books - My Concerns.

<http://www.christiananswers.net/q-eden/harrypotter.html>

Harry Potter. Many articles on Harry Potter.

<http://www.cuttingedge.org/news/hpmain.html>

" Links to Articles Exposing the Evils of Harry Potter-

The Real Harry Potter: Witchcraft Repackaged.

<http://www.chick.com/catalog/videos/0127.asp>

Watch Video Clip

Harry Potter 'occult' warning (News Report from the BBC).

http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/education/newsid_1638000/1638887.stm

School bans Harry Potter. (News Report from the BBC).

http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/education/newsid_693000/693779.stm

Buffy Draws Children to Witchcraft. (News Report from the BBC).

http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/english/entertainment/newsid_864000/864984.stm

Harry Potter, Sorcery and Fantasy.

http://cana.userworld.com/cana_harrypotter.html

Harry Potter: A Journey to Power.

http://cana.userworld.com/cana_morehpotter1.html

Harry Potter? What Does God Have To Say?

<http://www.lasttrumpetministries.org/tracts/tract7.html>

The Harry Potter Books and Christians.

Reachout Trust - Harry Potter and Christians

Harry Potter -Sorcery and Fantasy

<http://www.reachouttrust.org/articles/occult/hpotter3.htm>

Harry Potter Books - My Concerns.

<http://www.christiananswers.net/q-eden/harrypotter.html>

Harry Potter. Many articles on Harry Potter.

<http://www.cuttingedge.org/news/hpmain.html>

"You have wearied Yahuah with your words. Yet you say, How have we wearied Him? When you say, Every one that does evil is good, in the sight of Yahuah..." –Malachi 2:17

"You that love Yahuah, hate evil..." -Psalm 97:10

As each book is released in this New York Times bestseller series, we find the content and theme growing darker and more involved in the deep things of Satan. Millions of copies of these Harry Potter books are selling like hotcakes—and Christian children and parents are leading the pack in lusting after them, and why not? These kids have been fed the soul-darkening fantasies of occultist C.S. Lewis, (which we will explore in a bit) and they have been dumbed down sufficiently by ecumenical pastors and charismatic Word of Faith evangelists. Their hearts and minds are already stained by the filth and degradation viewed daily on TV and by the polluted music and rotten doctrines spouted in their upside-down, pseudo-Christian churches.

So debased have the minds of our children become, they are prone to believe that the 60's Woodstock was a Christian rock festival and that Roman Emperor Nero's wild sexual orgies were, historically, just one more example of a variety of entertaining and flesh-thrilling experiences available to us today.

Now, consider today's results. In our 21st century society, Christians flock to the book stores to obtain works of the curious arts. Thus, the Word of Yahuah is declared null and void in their lives, their children's souls are turned over to shatan, and their tainted churches, hopelessly adrift in a sea of filthiness and uncleanness, cannot possibly prevail.

But where are Yah's watchmen—the men whom, we are told by the Christian media, "the Lord" has called to guide us forward into this luminous New Age of 21st century spiritualism? They are lying right in bed with the sorceress and are eagerly obeying the serpent. These men, with their pitch-black hearts, are literally embracing Satan's works and promoting them for all they are worth. The "Christian" leadership is insuring that America is cursed by Yahuah!

Charles Colson, he who was beloved by the Southern Baptists, by the Catholics, by the Episcopalians, by the entire Christian world. On his daily Breakpoint radio program, Colson advised parents to disregard the naysayers. The Harry Potter books are fine examples of good Christian-oriented literature, said the smooth, silver-tongued Colson. They are, he smugly added, highly recommended. Remember in his prior life Colson, before his "conversion" to "Catholic-lite" (my term for Christianity) was part of the Watergate break-in. I would say like all wolves in sheep's clothing they are actually double agents, waiting to gain a foot hold of respectability and then can do the most damage.

I don't know if you are aware but "Christianity Today", the magazine was founded by Billy Graham, who chimed in, calling the Harry Potter series a "Book of Virtues with a preadolescent funny-bone." The magazine also praised the books as "wonderful examples of compassion, loyalty, courage, friendship, and even self-sacrifice." These gushing recommendations were made in spite of the blatant and clear witchcraft prevalent in the Harry Potter books. In one scene in the novels, we find a professor whose leg is mangled by a three-headed dog. In another, a mysterious figure drinks blood from a unicorn carcass. In the books we see young Harry lying, breaking rules, making fun of and mocking adults, and seeking revenge. To defeat his foes, Harry uses magic and witchcraft rituals and methods. On his forehead, notably, is the rune symbol of the satanic lightning bolt. Billy Graham also knows the truth about the Sabbath. It is said Billy Graham acknowledged the truth of the sabbath but sadly added "If I were to teach this truth, I would lose most of my listeners". He has deep connections to Rome.

Billy Graham -- Ally of Rome

This article was first printed in The Revivalist May, 1972.

Dr. Ian Paisley

Dr. Billy Graham the well-known evangelist is visiting Belfast. He has been invited by those who profess to be evangelical, and loyal to the Lord Jesus Christ.

One wonders how far these gentlemen know the activities in which Dr. Graham participates, or how far they are prepared to condone such activities.

Dr. Graham has departed completely from the Reformation viewpoint concerning the Church of Rome. He looks upon that church as a Christian church, and when Roman Catholics profess conversion at his campaigns he directs them back to the Roman Catholic Church. He has called the second Vatican Council the work of the Holy Spirit, and in Pittsburg spoke of his intention to attend a Roman Catholic Mass, and added, "Many of the people who reach a decision on Christ at our meetings have joined the Catholic Church, and we have received commendations from Catholic publications for the revived interest in their church following our campaign."

In his Berlin Congress of Evangelism he opened negotiations with the Roman Catholic Church, and as a consequence two Roman Catholic priests were present.

In 1967 Dr. Graham received an Honorary Dr.'s degree from the hands of a Roman Catholic priest at the Roman Catholic Belmont Abbey. On that occasion Dr. Graham claimed that he preached the same gospel as the Church of Rome. His actual words were, "Finally the way of salvation has not changed. I know how the ending of the book will be. The gospel that built this school and the gospel that brings me here tonight is still the way of salvation."

Here is a connection between Nixon, Colson and Billy Graham.. When Richard Nixon met with his political buddies to decide who to have run with him, the person he asked first was Billy Graham. I have read the account of this is more than one place, but I will quote Marshall Frady's description of when Billy Graham was asked who he thought should run with Nixon as Nixon's vice-presidential running mate. Billy Graham chose 33° Masonic brother (then only 32°) Mark Hatfield. Here is Frady's description.

BILLY GRAHAM, A PARABLE OF AMERICAN RIGHTEOUSNESS by Marshall Frady. Marshall Frady was a writer for Life and Newsweek.

"His assimilation into the Nixon presidency had already been well underway, in fact, at that convention in Miami when, after Nixon's nomination, Graham wound up sitting in Nixon's penthouse suite among the smoggy late-night deliberations over Nixon's vice-presidential selection: Graham himself, whatever initial uncertainty he might have felt to find himself in such a political locker-room session, soon pitched into the proceedings with his own effusive recommendation of Mark Hatfield: "He's a great Christian leader. He's almost a clergyman. He's been an educator, and he's taken a more liberal stand on most issues than you, and I think the ticket needs that kind of balance."

In 1992, Mark Hatfield, along with Prince Hall Freemason Jessie Jackson both were on television in July of last year defending Billy Graham's actions. Mark Hatfield, according to a deprogrammed slave has been a user of Monarch sexual slaves. NY's Union Seminary is controlled and funded by the Rockefeller. President of Union Seminary was Dr. Henry Van Dusen. Billy Graham made him a prominent person in his crusade and said he was a "classic example" of a mass evangelism conversion, if that is a good example of Graham's conversions we Christians should shudder. It is no coincidence that the Southern Baptists, of which Billy Graham is a member, is controlled by the Freemasons. Brook Hays, Pres. of the So. Bapt. Convention was a high ranking Freemason as well as part of the CFR, none of the So. Bapt. Convention's Presidents have opposed Freemasonry. Pres. Bill Clinton, a slave handler, is a member of the Emmanuel Baptist Church which is a Southern Baptist Church in Little Rock, Ark.

The late Bill Moyers who promoted the Mystery Religions was a Southern Baptist. Moyers went to the SW Baptist Theological Seminary, the same school run by one of Billy Graham's staff directors. John Buchanan is another Southern Baptist. John Buchanan went to a So. Bapt. Seminary, and then worked as a front man for People for the American Way started by Jewish Norman Lear, an anti-Christian. People might be shocked to learn of some of the New Age.

Back to Harry Potter:

Nevertheless, in response to Christians who write complaining, Christian celebrity leader Charles Colson, head of Prison Fellowship, insists that the magic in the Potter books is not really occultism, just "inventive." White vs. Black Witchcraft. Other Christian leaders try to whitewash their failure to condemn these satanic novels by attempting to portray Harry's magic as "White Witchcraft," which they say is "good magic," versus "Black Witchcraft", which is "evil magic."

But in his Satanic Bible, the late Anton LaVey, High Priest of the Church of Satan, scoffed at such a distinction, "There is no difference in Satanism," sneered LaVey, "between white and black witchcraft or magic."

While the jaded and spiritually bankrupt Christian establishment either promotes the idea of "good magic" and "white witchcraft" or is altogether silent, the true Christian remnant is fighting these evil books. Parents in 28 states have sought to have the Harry Potter books banned at public school libraries.

Lucifer is now exalted by some pastors as a "good angel," how the goddess "Sophia" is replacing JC in some large churches, going from the pan right in to the fire, and how scholars are denying and debunking the very words of Yahusha, how the lure of sexual intercourse "entertainment" is being used to entice people to come to church to see sexually oriented theater productions, how Charismatic big-wigs have been recruited by the Vatican's Knights of Malta secret society, how faith healer Benny Hinn has been caught on camera encouraging gospel singer Steve Brock to smoke a water pipe, how famous TBN preacher and bestselling author T.D. Jakes has betrayed the true faith by endorsing for President an avid abortionist/homosexual activist, Vice President Al Gore, how Pat Robertson's Masonic connections were made manifest...and on and on.

So-called underground "Christian" churches in the U.S.A. and Great Britain now perform unholy satanic black masses, with naked women draped over altars.

Follow the Money

The Film Series: $5,412,496,909

Books, Merchandise, other. Approx. $19.2 billion

Newsweek's cover touted Harry Potter, and Christianity Today magazine called Harry Potter books "wonderful." Note the "lightning bolt" on Harry Potter's forehead.

Spinoff Series

On the 12th of September 2013, it was confirmed that JK Rowling's book Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them, set in the Harry Potter universe, would be adapted into a film series.[\[1\]](#)

Release

The rights for the first four novels in the series were sold to Warner Bros. for £1,000,000 by J. K. Rowling. After the release of the fourth book in July 2000, the first film, Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone, was released on 16 November 2001. In its opening weekend, the film grossed $90 million in the United States alone which set a record opening worldwide. The succeeding three motion picture adaptations followed suit in financial success, while garnering positive reviews from fans and critics. The fifth film, Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix was released by Warner Bros. on 11 July 2007 in English-speaking countries, except for the UK and Ireland which released the movie on 12 July.^[70] The sixth, Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince, was released on 15 July 2009 to critical acclaim and finished its theatrical run ranked as the number two grossing film of 2009 on the worldwide charts. The final novel, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, was split into two cinematic parts: Part 1 was released on 19 November 2010 and Part 2, the conclusion to both the final film and the series, was released on 15 July 2011.^[71] Part 1 was originally scheduled to be released in 3D and 2D,^[72] but due to a delay in the 3D conversion process, Warner Bros. released the film only in 2D and IMAX cinemas. However, Part 2 was released in 2D and 3D cinemas as originally planned.^[73]

Box office

As of 2012, the Harry Potter film franchise is the highest grossing film franchise of all time, with the eight films released grossing over $7.7 billion worldwide. Without adjusting for inflation, this is higher than the first 22 James Bond films and the six films in the Star Wars franchise.^[125] Chris Columbus' Philosopher's Stone became the highest-grossing Harry Potter film worldwide upon completing its theatrical run in 2002, but it was eventually topped by David Yates' Deathly Hallows – Part 2, while Alfonso Cuarón's Prisoner of Azkaban grossed the least.^{[126][127][128][129]}

Motion Picture	Release date	Revenue				Inflation Adjusted (Worldwide)	Budget
		Worldwide	United Kingdom	North America (appx. ticket sales)	Outside North America
Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone	16 November 2001	$974,755,371	£66,096,060	$317,575,550 (55,913,000)	$657,179,821	$1,227,850,042.88	$125,000,000
Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets	14 November 2002	$878,979,634	£54,780,731	$261,988,482 (45,093,000)	$616,991,152	$1,090,287,929.83	$100,000,000
Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban	31 May 2004	$796,688,549	£45,615,949	$249,541,069 (40,184,000)	$547,147,480	$947,462,829.52	$130,000,000
Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire	18 November 2005	$896,911,078	£48,328,854	$290,013,036 (45,244,000)	$606,898,042	$1,041,225,686	$150,000,000
Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix	11 July 2007	$939,885,929	£49,136,969	$292,004,738 (42,443,000)	$647,881,191	$1,020,828,830.69	$150,000,000
Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince	15 July 2009	$934,416,487	£50,713,404	$301,959,197 (40,261,000)	$632,457,290	$974,201,682.00	$250,000,000
Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows – Part 1	19 November 2010	$956,399,711	£52,364,075	$295,983,305 (37,500,000)	$660,416,406	$969,707,879.97	Less than $250 million (official)
Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows – Part 2	15 July 2011	$1,328,111,219	£73,094,187	$381,011,219 (56,000,000)	$947,100,000	$1,328,111,219
Total		$7,706,147,978	£440,269,736	$2,390,076,596	$5,316,071,382	$8,271,821,124.29	$1,155,000,000

All-time ranks

Motion Picture	Rank
	All-time (worldwide)	All-time (United States)	All-time (United Kingdom)	All-time inflation adjusted (North America)	Yearly (United States)	Yearly (worldwide)	Opening Day (all-time)	Opening Weekend (all-time)
Philosopher's Stone	#17	#30	#6	#68	#1	#1	#34	#26
Chamber of Secrets	#30	#56	#12	#120	#4	#2	#40	#28
Prisoner of Azkaban	#40	#69	#24	#154	#6	#2	#24	#24
Goblet of Fire	#27	#49	#21	#117	#3	#1	#21	#20
Order of the Phoenix	#22	#46	#19	#137	#5	#2	#16	#38
Half-Blood Prince	#23	#39	#18	#152	#3	#2	#11	#36
Deathly Hallows – Part 1	#20	#42	#13	#184	#5	#3	#9	#10
Deathly Hallows – Part 2	#4	#15	#4	#102	#1	#1	#1	#1

And the soul that turns after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be you set apart: for I am Yahuah your Eternal. Leviticus 20:6-7

Condoning Harry Potter is for those who have rejected Yahuah and have accepted the adversary and his ways. The occult with all the spells, wizards, and psychic powers is part of the devil and his evil ways.

Here is the deception. Kids are reading the books that are selling at an incredible pace. Parents think it is great the children are so interested in reading Potter books. After all, parents want their children to be good at reading and it is a chore to encourage them in that direction. Then along comes Harry Potter. All of a sudden, there is a great interest in reading these occultist books. Parents are happy that their children are developing such an interest in books, after all, they rationalize and are told by leading faith pastors it is just about magic/spells/wizards that are just harmless fun in a make-believe land.

Let's look at a few pictures of Harry Potter. In this first picture notice the Satanic lightning bolt on the forehead of Potter. See the Satanic lightning bolt.

Yes, Harry Potter is part of the devil's plan. The occult may be candy-coated but it is very real and present in Harry Potter as the people in the occult like to be associated with occult symbols. Next, see what Potter is riding, looks like he is riding a broom (symbol of witchcraft) to me.

This is very natural for such an occult wizard as Harry Potter. Also notice the letter 'P' in Potter's name. It too has the satanic lightning bolt on it.

Take a look at the white unicorn in the background. This is another symbol of the occult. Finally, above we see the little wizard Harry Potter with his magic wand. Look at all the little flashes of stars in the air of occult POWER. That is the name of the game in the occult. Doing spells makes a person feel they have real power and control in this life. It is all a lie because it is demonic power which enslaves and destroys. Of course the satanic lightning bolt is present in the 'P' of Potter. We saw the Satanic 'S' in the form of a lightning bolt is used with Harry Potter. What does that symbol represent? Well it represents a lightning bolt that means "Destroyer". In mythology, it was the weapon of Zeus. It is worn to have power over others. Plus, this symbol was worn by the feared SS of Nazi Germany (who were also into satanism).

Finally the satanic 'S' or the lightning bolt symbolizes Satan's fall from heaven. Here is the verse related to the Satanic lightning bolt and the fall of Satan: Luke 10:18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. It is only fitting that Harry Potter be shown with a satanic lightning bolt. Satan loves to attach symbols to his own work. Just look at the rock and roll scene. There are all kinds of satanic symbols such as upside down crosses, hexagrams, pentagrams, satanic lightning bolts, and 666's.

Harry Potter is marked in association with the satanic lightning bolt. You see, Satan fell from heaven as lightning and the devil wishes to destroy in hell as many people as possible. Harry Potter is one of the many pathways to lead people away from Yah.

Never before has the occult been made so attractive and packaged so nicely. Children are being led by a satanic pied piper into the occult.

The Scriptures clearly states that occultism is forbidden and it is an abomination to Him. See the following verse:

When thou art come into the land which Yahuah your Everlasting gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you [any one] that makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, [or]

- that uses divination,
- [or] an observer of times,
- or an enchanter,
- or a witch,
- or a charmer,
- or a consuler with familiar spirits,
- or a wizard,

- or a necromancer. ("divination by communication with the dead- esp in order to obtain from them knowledge of the future)

For all that do these things [are] an abomination unto Yahuah: and because of these abominations Yahuah your Eternal does drive them out from before you. Deuteronomy 18:9-12

So the above list covers the major story lines and adventures of Harry Potter. The books are filled with wizards and spell casting. Notice verse 12 above. Yah says that those people who do those things are committing an abomination against Him and that is why He destroyed them. That is a pretty strong warning isn't it?

Those involved with the occultism in Harry Potter are committing an abomination against Yah.

We are living in days where there is an occult explosion. We have fortune tellers with 1-900 numbers to occultist wizards and witches on Saturday morning cartoons. Everyone in society is exposed in some way to the occult. Only those who walk with Yahuah have the discernment to avoid and stay away from it and will warn others.

Let's let Yahuah speak against the occult:

Moreover the [workers with] familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Yosyah put away, that he might perform the words of the Torah which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of Yahuah. II Kings 23:24

In the above verse Yosyah 'put away' the fortune tellers and the wizards (spell casters etc.). This means those who practiced the occult were removed from the land. They were kicked out and removed as a person would clean his house of dirty garbage. By doing so King YosYah was obeying Yahuah.

Do you realize that if Harry Potter lived in the land of Israel in those days, King Yosyah would have removed him from the land? Next, let's look at another example of the occult in Israel.

Read the verses below and see what wicked King Manasseh did:

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Yahrusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzibah. And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of Yahuah, after the abominations of the heathen, whom Yahuah cast out before the children of Israel. For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal The lord), and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. And he built altars in the house of Yahuah, of which Yahuah said, In Yahrusalem will I put My name. And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of Yahuah. And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of Yahuah, to provoke [him] to anger.

II Kings 21:1-6

King Manasseh was an evil King in Israel. What things did he do that was considered evil? Read the above closely. He got heavily involved in the occult and put in groves or Asherah trees (modern day pagan trees) and building alters to foreign gods in Yahuah's Temple. He was also celebrating festivals of these foreign gods, doing all these things 'wrought much wickedness in the sight of Yahuah. Look at verse 6. Wicked King Manasseh did all the things that Harry Potter does and earned the anger and judgment of Yah as a result. That is an interesting thought, do you think Yahuah is unaware of our occult involvement?

Expect a dramatic increase in the occult and demonic as we get closer to the second coming of Yahusha. As Torahless men and women rejected Yahuah by embracing evil, the occult and their holidays, it will soon be so widespread that occultic things will be considered normal everywhere.

Just as sexual sin is considered normal these days... so will the occult. Yah knows who is behind this and hates it and warns people to stay clear from this evil. It is impossible for a person to play around with the occult and leave unharmed. One cannot pick up demonic fire and not get burned!

What should be done if you have occultist objects, toys, games, or Harry Potter books in your house? Simple... destroy them. Do not garage sell them or give them to someone else. No, destroy this satanic trash and never again allow such filth into your house. These are gateways for evil. This is a simple act of self-preservation for those who love Yahuah and know He tells us this for our own safety and best interest-as a loving Father!

Below is a Biblical example of people destroying the occult things in their homes.

Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. Acts 19:19

Above people destroyed their occult items and they were worth a large sum of money. I encourage you to purge your home today of all occult books, toys, games, and objects.

Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

I Samuel 28:3

Saul had 'put away' the occultists out of the land. This means he kicked them out of Israel. It was a capital offense to practice the occult in those days. Granted, today we do not live under those laws so witches, wizards, and other occultists are not put to death or driven from the land because in these latter days vengeance will always be Yahuah's. We just need to get away from it. Come out of Babel!

Remember the following verses we looked at in a previous chapter?

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in My name receives me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! Matthew 18:4-7

Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Luke 17:1-2

This is a very sad thought... how many Christian families let their children get involved with Pokemon or Harry Potter? How many church pastors allow Harry Potter into their assembly? This is very sad indeed.

Where Do You Stand? And For Whom Do You Stand With?

Blessed is the man that walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful. Psalms 1:1

Here is an article from the Jewish perspective. I do not condone the Talmud but we can glean information that is helpful from this article.

A Nazi Connection In Harry Potter

http://our-children-need-u.cephasministry.com/harry_potter_nazi_connection.html

David wrote: Our local Jewish Community Center is co-sponsoring a Harry Potter party with our local Borders bookstore. The flyer for this party states that children will receive a free thunderbolt tattoo [on their foreheads]. (You have got to be kidding me!)

The Jewish Talmud (our Old Testament) forbids the practice of witchcraft. Yet our local Jewish community is condoning the practice of witchcraft by inviting children to dress up as Harry Potter and pretend they are wizards. This is surely an abomination God's eyes. (Interestingly, throughout the Old Testament, God commanded the Israelites over and over again not to adopt the occult, pagan practices of their neighbors, but they refused to obey His prohibitions.)

Also, the same evening I picked up this Jewish Community Center flyer at Borders, I came across a Time-Life book about Hitler's Nazi Germany. It had a number of shocking photos of Hitler's Youth Corps. What jumped out at me, were the number of photos depicting the thunderbolt symbol - mainly on Youth Corps flags but also on some ritual Youth Corps shields.

The thunderbolt symbol was also used on the uniforms of the Nazi SS soldiers, who among other things rounded up the Jewish people and carried out their slaughter. More specifically, the SS letters on their uniforms were in the shape of double thunderbolts - the same double SS symbol used by neo-Nazis today (see the next paragraph).

The following description of the thunderbolt symbol was found at the Christian counter cult site:

<http://www.crossroad.to/text/symbols.html>

THUNDERBOLT:

In ancient mythologies from many cultures (Norse, Roman, Greek, Native American, etc.) the lightning bolt would be hurled by male sky gods to punish, water, or fertilize the earth or its creatures. Navaho myths linked it to the Thunderbird, the symbol of salvation and divine gifts. On many children's toys, it represents supernatural power. Double bolts, popular with contemporary skinheads, symbolize Nazi power.

Perhaps you can guess where this is leading... Hitler was heavily into the occult and paganism, and he shared these occult teachings with his followers including the youth. The thunderbolts on the Nazi youth and SS uniforms were occult symbols, just as the thunderbolt on Harry Potter's forehead is an occult symbol. And these Nazi occult practitioners were the ones who massacred millions of Jewish citizens in the Holocaust. Why would the Jewish community now publicize Harry Potter's thunderbolt symbol, which is not only occult but is also reminiscent of the Nazi SS slaughterers? It is absurd!

(Another item I read, stated that the occult thunderbolt tattoo on children's foreheads may be conditioning them to accept the mark of the beast someday soon as "something cool." It's a scary thought, but very possible I believe in these end times.)

On another note, the Time-Life book referred to above is entitled "The New Order" and is one of three volumes on Nazi Germany. I haven't seen the other two volumes yet, but this one does not even list the term "Holocaust" in its index. Could this perhaps an example of revisionist history, in which the Time-Life people are actually being anti-Semitic by not informing today's young readers of the Holocaust with all its horrors? BTW, I am a born again Protestant, not Jewish, but I believe we are to love the people of Israel since they are God's chosen people. Let us, as born again Christians and "grafted-in Gentiles", pray for the peace of Israel ...

Another interesting tidbit: J.K. Rowling has stated that she intended for her Harry Potter books to be read by children approximately ages 10 and up. Yet the books, as we know, are wildly popularly among children as young as age 5 (and perhaps even younger). I believe that around age 8 most children reach the "age of accountability" - the age when a child comes to know right from wrong and can understand the gospel message and become born again by accepting Christ as his or her Savior. It is truly an abomination, that adults are potentially drawing so many young children into witchcraft and Satanism before they even can tell right from wrong. God will hold millions of parents accountable for buying these books - and

God will hold

[David C. Mosher, Founder CTTC (Christ to the Cults Ministry) 2224 9th St. SW, Canton, OH 44706

Verbal: 330-454-4603, Email: dcmosher@jbic.com

<http://members.aol.com/fishwares/private/NAMLinks.htm>

Another interesting Article

Harry Potter Praised for Getting Young Children into Satanism!

Take a very close look at these very young girls, dressed in witch's costume, sitting in front of Satan's Pentagram, with their favorite Harry Potter book leaning up against their lap. Do you recognize any of them as your own?

Not only do they have the details of the costume right, but they know enough of Witchcraft to have scrawled the incantation, "Avada Kedavra" on the wall behind them. These very young witches have painted a Pentagram with a circle around it, and have placed small candles at each of the five corners plus 7 additional ones. The Pentagram is the most powerful, evil, Black Magick symbol in existence, and it is made even more powerful when encircled. You can easily see where these young witches got their understanding of Witchcraft, because they are all wearing the round Harry Potter glasses, as well as having a Harry Potter book in front of them.

Further, each of these children is giving the devil's sign known by various names, "Il Cornuto," "Cornuto," "Devil's Triad," "Horned Devil," and Devil Salute." [Dr. Cathy Burns, Masonic and Occult Symbols

Illustrated, p. 226-7]. The second picture was taken during a Black Magick witchcraft ceremony in the Temple of Set, and shows both the Devil's Salute and the encircled Pentagram. This is Satanism straight out of the Pit. Set is one of the principal demons of Hell, and is in charge of Death and Destruction.

These children certainly understand the significance of this hand salute during the casting of an incantation:

"GESTURES ARE ALSO USED IN MAGIC

Each of the fingers relates to a specific planet as well as an ancient deity. Since pointing is a magical act and is a part of many spells, the finger can be chosen by its symbolism.. Gestures are magical tools as potent as any other, one we can always take with us, to be used when needed." [Ibid. Emphasis was in the original]

Finally, Dr. Burns reveals another aspect of this signal the girls on the right and left in this picture are giving and named above. "The Devil's triad is a recognition sign among Satanists and witches. Remember that Satan (or Pan) is called 'The Horned God,' so the hand signal is formed so as to resemble horns." [Ibid.]

Therefore, we can only conclude that these young witches have learned a fair amount of Witchcraft from reading Harry Potter books, and now want to reenact the many scenes of casting spells, or reading crystal balls. This picture captures the essence of what is occurring in our society today, as the Harry Potter books are turning countless numbers of young people - some beginning as early as 8 years old having Harry Potter read to them at public school - into wannabe witches. This is the first step in turning them into real witches when they get older. Is your child reenacting these scenes, perhaps at a Harry Potter party? Do you know what your child is doing?

"LOCK HAVEN, PA - Ashley Daniels is as close as you can get to your typical 9-year-old American girl. A third-grader at Lock Haven Elementary School, she loves roller-blading, her pet hamsters Benny and Oreo, Britney Spears, and, of course, Harry Potter. Having breezed through the most recent Potter opus in just four days, Ashley is among the millions of children who have made Harry Potter and the Goblet Of Fire the fastest-selling book in publishing history.

"And, like many of her school friends, Ashley was captivated enough by the strange occult doings at the Hogwarts School Of Witchcraft And Wizardry to pursue the Left-Hand Path, determined to become as adept at the black arts as Harry and his pals. 'I used to believe in what they taught at Sunday School,' said Ashley, conjuring up an ancient spell to summon Cerebus, the three-headed hound of Hess. 'But the Harry Potter books showed me that magic is real, something I can learn and use right now, and that the Bible is nothing but boring lies.'"

This is THE essence of what we have been warning you about Harry Potter! Kids as young as 8 years of age are copying what Harry Potter does, who he is, and in what he believes. Since he is a Black Magick true-blood witch, with a long history of powerful Generational Witchcraft, kids all across the globe will want to copy him in every aspect. This, you have Harry Potter Parties, in which kids come dressed as witches and warlocks, bringing with them paraphernalia that will allow them to cast spells, read crystal balls, and pretend to turn people into animals[and back again].

Throughout occult literature, I find the theme that the Antichrist can only arise if, and when, enough of the population of the world had been preconditioned to accept him and his values. Harry Potter depicts such blatantly powerful witchcraft we can only pause to wonder if his popularity today IS one of the signs of the approaching End of the Age.

Let us return to the bragging in his Harry Potter article:

"In 1995, it was estimated that some 100,000 Americans, mostly adults, were involved in devil-worship groups. Today, more than 14 million children alone belong to the Church of Satan, thanks largely to the unassuming boy wizard from 4 Privet Drive." The numbers ARE horrific, but the total sales of Harry Potter books, plus the natural hand-me-down factor where many people read a book that has been purchased, easily equals, or exceeds, this figure of 14 million.

I find it totally believable that this Satanic author is correct when he states that Satanism among American children has increased by his incredible increase of 139% in just 5 short years! Truly, the time is hastening when Biblical prophecy will be fulfilled, when the people of "the whole earth went after the beast in amazement and admiration." [Rev. 13:3, Amp. Bible Commentary].

Satanist: "Harry Potter a 'God-Send' To Our Cause"

"But as wild as children are about Harry, no one is happier about the phenomenon than old-school Satanists, who were struggling to recruit new members prior to the publication of the first Potter book in 1997. 'Harry in an absolute godsend to our cause,' said High Priest Egan of the First Church of Satan in Salem, MA. 'An organization like ours thrives on new blood - no pun intended - and we've had more applicants than we can handle lately.'"

Take action now. Throw away all Harry Potter books immediately. Just having them in your home gives Satan "legal authority" to come into your home to inflict you, your family, and your relationships within the home.

If your child has been enthusiastically reading Harry Potter, you need to re-dedicate your child and your entire family, urging them to do the same in their hearts. Renounce satanic literature and games. [Today, the Bible & You - April 2001 p. 5 - (PO Box 690628 - Tulsa, OK 74169)]

Harry Potter Is Big As Life At Second District School

By Mary Spicer - The Meadville Tribune

Sixth-graders at Second District Elementary School have hopped on the Harry Potter bandwagon, and a big bandwagon it is. Harry Potter, it seems, has been all over the news for months - and there's no indication that interest is waning.

For example, the latest book in the best-selling series, "Goblets of Fire," sold three million copies in the United States alone the first weekend after its release last summer.

When Scholastic Books sponsored an essay contest titled "How the Harry Potter books changed my life," they were flooded with 10,000 entries. Friday, by the way, the 10 winners of the contest will share breakfast with author J. K. Rowling.

In early October it was announced that Rowling had donated $730,000 to Great Britain's "National Council for One Parent Families."

The author's story is the stuff from which legends are made. In 1990, so the story goes, riders on a train between Manchester and London experienced a four-hour delay. By the time she reached her destination, passenger Rowling had come up with the idea for a character. Harry Potter was his name.

For five years, she worked on the first book as she plotted out the entire seven-novel series, one for each year of Harry's education at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry.

Then, the fast-forward version of the legend continues, she moved to Portugal, married a Portuguese television journalist, had a daughter, divorced, and returned to Scotland, where she lived under conditions of extreme poverty, writing "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone" on notepad paper while huddled with her daughter in Edinburgh cafes to keep warm. Or something like that.

When it was time for sixth-grade students in Marlene Metzler's and Janice Koseff's classes to choose a book for a guided reading project, the choice, according to Koseff, was simple. The second book in the series, "Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets" was the clear favorite.

Now, every Thursday is Harry Potter day, as students diligently work their way through the book. Paying careful attention to details, the class is using computers, life-size images, drama and - hopefully - poetry to bring the characters to life.

They're working on a spell book now, and future plans include tests and a study guide. The project is designed to fulfill the requirements of the Pennsylvania System of School Assessment reading standard for reading, analyzing and interpreting literature.

To walk up the stairs to the second floor is to walk into the land of Harry Potter, where life-size images created by the sixth-graders inhabit a world of their own at the top of the staircase.

A lot of incidental learning is taking place during this project. For example, if you're going to make a book cover, you need to know what to capitalize on and where to place all the pieces of information, Koseff explained.

Covering one chapter each week, every student works on a question at the end of each chapter.

In creating the life-size images, problem-solving is playing a key role. For example, how to make Harry stand up? The solution the students arrived at was to fill a sneaker with cement.

Harry, Dobby the house-elf, and Hedwig the owl are just some of the characters already in place, and plans call for the project to be complete by Christmas. [Source: <http://www.metromead.com/news/1016c.html>]

Another Non Yah Based ministry but good information to glean from regarding this subject that I have edited it for relative information.

From Cutting Edge Ministries

SPECIFIC NOTE OF UNDERSTANDING : Rowling consistently depicts both kinds of reality in which the Satanist believes he operates: the Real World and Fantasy World. However, occultists define fantasy in a way far different than you or I do. You must understand this difference if you are to fully comprehend what is occurring in this book, and in all Potter books. We have explained this difference in realities to you, below:

Definition of Reality and Fantasy in the World of a Satanist

1. Both worlds are real, existing side by side in parallel. Fantasy is the world to which a Satanist seeks constant access, a world filled with exciting adventures with magic awaiting them at every step. A Satanist will consider his fantasy world to be more exciting, more fulfilling, and more 'real', than his real world. This is why Harry says to Dobby after Dobby tells him not to return to school: "But I've got to go back ... It's all that's keeping me going. You don't know what it's like here. I don't belong here. I belong in your world -- at Hogwarts." [p. 16; Emphasis added]

Or listen to Hagrid, as he depicts these different realities: "Hagrid simply waved his hand, and said, 'About our world, I mean. Your world. My world. Yer parent's world.' " [p. 50; Emphasis in the original] Hagrid just could not get a handle on what to call the Fantasy Reality in which Hogwart's School of Witchcraft and Wizardry was located!

2. Definition of 'Supernatural' -- "Of or pertaining to existing outside the natural world; especially not attributable to natural forces." [Tormonts Illustrated Encyclopedic Dictionary] Therefore, all activities in the occult Fantasy World are 'supernatural'. Thus, Chuck Colson's firm assurance to Christian parents that Harry Potter books are all right because "no contact is made with the supernatural" world is shown to be patently and boldly false!

ROWLING'S DEPICTION OF NON-MAGICAL PEOPLE -- MUGGLES

As we noted above, Rowling consistently depicts people who do not practice Witchcraft in most obnoxious terms. They are depicted as being really, really dumb, boring, and living a life not worth living.

III. Colors Used

Rowling makes use of vivid colors in her story line. Some of these colors are consistent with the colors preferred by Satan and his followers in the Occult. Rowling's use of such vivid colors also enables her to paint the Fantasy Reality of Witchcraft as THE most exciting place to live. Wizard of Oz uses the same technique: when Dorothy is in her real world in Kansas, the color is black and white, but when she steps into her Fantasy Reality, the scene explodes in the most wonderful color.

A. Green -- is Satan's favorite color. Thus, we see that the one fraternity house totally given over to the Black Arts, Slytherin, has adopted green as its color.

3. When Harry begins to have flashbacks to the time when his parents were killed by the powerful curse of evil Lord Voldemort, he distinctly remembers that a flash of green light had exploded upon him, but instead of killing him, just burned the lightening bolt permanently in his forehead. [p. 29]

IV. Magic Spells, Potions, and Tricks

A. Harry and his friends learn how to make drugs, and the glory of taking them. Listen to Professor Snape explain: "I don't think you will really understand the beauty of the softly simmering cauldron with its shimmering fumes, the delicate power of liquids that creep through human veins, bewitching the mind, ensnaring the senses, I can teach you how to bottle fame, brew glory, even stopper death ... Potter! ... What would I get if I added powered root of asphodel to an infusion of wormwood?" [p. 137; Emphasis added]

Do you see that little reference to "wormwood"? The plant, wormwood, contains thujone, an hypnotic drug, banned by the FDA since 1915 [Christian News, "Latest Potter Book Meets Cautionary Response From Christians, July 17, 2000] ; further, wormwood is used to make Absinthe, a hallucinogenic liquor. Therefore, the drug to which Rowling makes reference is very real, and is so dangerous the FDA has banned it -- to this day, it is banned!

Further, look at the accurate description such hallucinogenic drugs have on the human senses: "creep through human veins" ... "bewitching the mind" ... "ensnaring the senses". As a person takes such drugs, they really believe they are achieving fame in the bottle, they really believe they are going to achieve glory, and unfortunately, many of them go to their deaths. You can hardly get a better description of drug use, and drug glorification than this!

Later, Professor Snape informs Hermione, "For your information, Potter, asphodel and wormwood make a sleeping potion so powerful it is known as the Draught of Living Death." [p. 138]

But, there is more! At the end of the book, we see another instance of drug glorification. In order to achieve their goal of the Sorcerer's Stone -- eternal life as explained earlier -- Harry and Hermione have to correctly choose between several bottles full of drug potions, which they are to correctly drink in the right order. This is the riddle:

"Seven bottles: three are poison; two are wine; one will get us safely through the black fire, and one will get us back through the purple. [Harry] 'But how do we know which to drink?' [Hermione responded] 'Give me a minute'. Hermione read the paper several times, then she walked up and down the line of bottles, muttering to herself and pointing at them. At last, she clapped her hands". She had solved the riddle, and knew which drug potions to drink and in what order. [p. 285-6]

"The drug message in this book is clear. To reach your goals in life like Harry Potter, you need to know how to make drugs and take drugs in just the right way or else you are a 'dunderhead' and will never succeed." [http://www.fflibraries.org/Book_Reports/HarryPotter ; written by a physician and father who asked to remain anonymous].

C. Curse of the Bogies -- while this curse was not fully explained, Ron threatened Hermione with it. We consistently see students taking revenge upon each other, using their knowledge of the occult against their friends and enemies. [p. 157]

D. Curse thrown during Quidditch Match -- "Harry's broom had given a wild jerk and Harry swung off it. He was now dangling from it, holding on with only one hand. 'Did something happen to it when Flint blocked him?', Seamus whispered. 'Can't have', Hagrid said, his voice shaking. 'Can't nothing interfere with a broomstick except powerful Dark magic ...' Hermione gasped, 'Snape [Professor], look ... he's ... jinxing the broom'. Before Ron could say another word, Hermione had disappeared ... Hermione had fought her way across to the stand where Snape stood ... Reaching Snape, she crouched down, pulled out her wand, and whispered a few, well-chosen words, Bright blue flames shot from her wand on the hem of Snape's robes. It took perhaps thirty seconds for Snape to realize that he was on fire ... Scooping the fire off him into a little jar in her pocket, she scrambled back along the row -- Snape would never know what had happened. It was enough. Up in the air, Harry was suddenly able to clamber back on his broom." [p. 190-1]

In order to counteract the Black Magick curse Professor Snape had thrown at Harry during the match, Hermione sneaked to the back of the stands where he was standing and threw a curse at his robes, setting them on fire. Snape's curse was broken, and Harry climbed back on his broom. Children reading this will conclude that it is exciting to throw curses, to use "good magic" to counteract "evil magick", not realizing that the occult power on both sides is from Satan. (I would add this is the same trick that shatan uses when people think that miracles done in the name of JC are from Yahuah and therefore good. How can that be? Yahuah would not let a pagan deity bestow blessings for Him. These are still evil tricks signs and wonders sponsored by shatan to fool the masses.)

This example is a good illustration that the purported theme of "good vs. evil ... that good wins in the end " is truly nothing more than "good Satanism" fighting "bad Satanism". When Focus On The Family made this false claim [May, 2000, p. 14], most people thought of "good" as being "Biblical good"; nothing could be further from the truth, and Dr. Dobson should know better.

G. Body-Bind Spell -- [p. 273]. Poor Neville Longbottom discovered Harry, Ron, and Hermione breaking more school rules as they set out to stop Professor Snape from stealing the Sorcerer's Stone with the intention of giving it to Lord Voldemort. When Neville said he was going to physically stop them with brute force if necessary, Hermione raised her wand and pronounced a curse that caused Neville's jaws to slam shut and his entire body to stiffen like a board, and fall on the floor. Hermione had just cast the "full Body-Bind" curse on Neville.

H. Alohomora Charm -- [p. 279] Hermione tried this spell as a means to force a door open.

V. Rowling consistently depicts Satanism correctly

A. Voldemort's curse upon Harry's parents had also been directed toward Harry, and was meant to kill him along with his Mom and Dad. Even though the curse had killed Harry's parents, it had not killed him; therefore, "Voldemort's curse, instead of killing him, had rebounded upon its originator. Barely alive, Voldemort fled ..." [Page 12, 57] Rowling accurately depicts Witchcraft. A Witch or Wizard has to be very careful against whom they throw a curse, and under what circumstances. If the magic power of the intended victim is stronger than the originator of the curse believed it to be, or if the curse is not correctly cast, the curse will rebound back upon the person who threw it in the first place. Once again, Rowling demonstrates a clear understanding of actual Witchcraft, and depicts it correctly.

B. Mirrors are believed to be a portal to another dimension, including Time. Occultists believe they can go forward or backward in Time with a mirror being one of the Dimensional Portals. Harry encounters a mirror, "magnificent ... as high as the ceiling, with an ornate gold frame, standing on two clawed feet ... Harry stepped in front of it. He had to clasp his hand to his mouth to stop himself from screaming ... for he had seen, not only himself in the mirror but a whole crowd of people standing right behind him ... 'Mom?', he whispered. 'Dad?' They just looked at him, smiling ... Harry was looking at his family, for the first time in his life." [p. 208-9]

C. Sorcerer's Stone -- as I have stated before, the Sorcerer's Stone is the fifth and final stage in the occult drive to achieve eternal life. In this book, Rowling correctly explains: "The ancient study of alchemy is concerned with making the Sorcerer's Stone, a legendary substance with astonishing powers. The stone will transform any metal into pure gold. It also produces the Elixir of Life, which will make the drinker immortal. There have been many reports of the Sorcerer's Stone over the centuries, but the only Stone currently in existence belongs to Mr. Nicolas Flamel, the noted alchemist and opera lover. Mr. Flamel, who celebrated his six hundred and sixty-fifth birthday last year, enjoys a quiet life in Devon with his wife, Perenelle (six hundred and fifty-eight)." [p. 220; Emphasis added]

Do you realize Rowling has just made the creator of the Sorcerer's Stone 666 years old? Do you realize what this means? Since the number, '666', is a symbol of Antichrist and his Mark of the Beast [Revelation 13:18] and since Rowling ties this number to the Elixir of Life, Harry Potter is teaching children that the way to achieve eternal life [Elixir of Life] is to obey the Antichrist and take his Mark of the Beast!

D. Unicorns -- Occultists of every stripe believe the Unicorn is a symbol of the coming World Teacher, The Christ, who will eventually appear to lead mankind to collectively higher consciousness level and to a 1,000 year period of peace and safety. Rowling depicts the unicorn as a mythical creature living peacefully in the Forbidden Forest. Hagrid leads Harry, Ron, Hermione, and Malfoy into an expedition to see who is killing the unicorn. " 'Look there', said Hagrid, 'see that stuff shinin' on the ground? Silvery stuff? That's unicorn blood.....It was the unicorn all right, and it was dead. Harry had never seen anything so beautiful and sad. Its long, slender legs were stuck out at odd angles where it had fallen, and its mane was spread pearly-white on the dark leaves." " Then, out of the shadows, a hooded figure came crawling across the ground like some stalking beast. Harry, Malfoy, and Fang stood transfixed. The cloaked figure reached the unicorn, lowered its head over the wound in the animal's side, and began to drink its blood. 'AAAAAAAAAAAAARGH!' Malfoy let out a terrible scream and bolted -- so did Fang. The hooded figure raised its head and looked right at Harry -- unicorn blood was dribbling down its front." [p. 250-6; Emphasis added]

Wonderful! We have the forbidden practice of drinking blood in this Potter book, forbidden in Scripture [Genesis 9:4-5] but practiced regularly in Satanism. I wonder if Chuck Colson, Focus On The Family, and Christianity Today ever told their Christian followers about this? Have they even read this book, before they issued their acceptance of Potter?

Further, the symbolism here is unbelievable: since the Unicorn is a symbol of the coming Antichrist, this scene means he receives a fatal wound; doesn't this sound terribly like the prophesied fatal wound of Antichrist in Revelation 13:3, where the entire world goes after the Beast in amazement after he is resurrected from his fatal wound?

But, the symbolism of drinking the unicorn's blood is amazing also. Later in the book, we discover more pertinent facts that allow us to fully understand the symbolism Rowling is attempting to portray. Listen:

" 'Harry Potter, do you know what unicorn blood is used for?' 'No', said Harry, startled by the question. 'We've only used the horn and tail hair in Potions'. 'That is because it is a monstrous thing, to slay a unicorn', said Fierze . 'Only one who has nothing to lose, and everything to gain would commit such a crime. The blood of a unicorn will keep you alive, even if you are an inch from death, but at a terrible price. You have slain something pure and defenseless to save yourself, and you will have but a half-life, a cursed life, from the moment the blood touches your lips.'..... " 'But who'd be that desperate?', he wondered aloud. "If you're going to be cursed forever, death's better, isn't it?"

'It is', Fierze agreed, 'unless all you need is to stay alive long enough to drink something else -- something that will bring you back to full strength and power -- something that will mean you can never die. Mr. Potter, do you know what is hidden in the school at the very moment?'

"The Sorcerer's Stone! Of course, the Elixir of Life! But, I don't understand who ... Do you mean', Harry croaked, 'that was Vol-- [demort]' " [p. 255-9]

This means evil Lord Voldemort -- whose killing curse upon Harry, his Mom, and his Dad had rebounded against him when Harry did not die -- is near death, and is seeking to drink the Unicorn's blood to stay alive long enough to finally achieve eternal life through drinking the '666' Elixir of Life.

This is the specific New Age doctrine being taught here: people will have to draw their temporary spiritual life from The Christ until the time comes when their individual consciousness will have been raised so much they will achieve their personal godhood, and live forever!

This concept is genuine New Age, is consistent with prophecy, and Rowling depicts it very well!

Christian parents, do you want your child to be taught this New Age doctrine? Can you see Harry Potter playing the Pied Piper and leading your children straight to the Mark of the Beast?

VI. List of Books a First-Year Student Will Require [p. 66-67]

A. The Standard Book of Spells (Grade 1), by Miranda Goshwak. Many spells require both the taking of drugs and demonic possession, so it is a matter of gravest importance that Harry is actually going to learn to cast spells. When Chuck Colson dismisses the casting of spells as innocent and of no real importance, did he know this fact? Further, nearly every spell cast will result in contact with a being from the supernatural. Therefore, we can know the enormity of Colson's falsehood that Christian parents can take assurance that, in the Harry Potter books, "no contact is made with the supernatural".

B. A History of Magic, by Bathilda Bagshot. Once again, we are teaching our children the history of Witchcraft, much of it gloriously written, I am sure. God specifically forbade the teaching of Witchcraft in Deuteronomy 18:9-14, especially verse 9.

C. Magical Theory, by Adalbert Waffling.

D. A Beginner's Guide to Transfiguration, by Emeric Switch. Once again, whenever a witch changes the physical characteristics of something, he or she is practicing very high-level witchcraft, has a high level of demonic possession, and has had to carry out human sacrifice themselves or have someone else do it for them.

E. One Thousand Magical Herbs and Fungi, by Phyllia Spore

F. Magical Drafts and Potions, by Arsenius Jigger. Some of the potions are very real, very deadly.

G. Fantastic Beasts and Where To Find Them, by Newt Scamander

H. The Dark Force: A Guide to Self-Protection, by Quentin Trimble

Students were told they could also "bring an owl OR a cat OR a toad." [p. 67] These three creatures are important to an occultists. Satanists have always revered the cat because of its reputed "nine lives", which is a symbol of reincarnation. Cats are also symbols of a witch's familiar spirit.

They have revered the frog because his prominent bulging eyes represent the All-seeing nature of Lucifer. Frogs are also consistently used in many of the potions witches concoct. They revere owls as a symbol of occult wisdom and omniscience -- again because of their eyes. In the Harry Potter books, the owls are the letter carriers, carrying communication from witch to witch, once again consistent with the occult depiction.

VII. Classes Taught -- The Curricula

A. Transfiguration -- "some of the most complex and dangerous magic you will learn at Hogwarts", the professor, Professor McGonagall intoned. [p. 133-4] McGonagall has obviously mastered her Craft because she was the tabby cat seen by Uncle Vernon reading a map, back in chapter one. Remember that any time a witch or wizard practices transfiguration, they need expert spell-casting, and demonic possession. I bet no one ever told you that little fact, did they?

B. Potions Class -- taught in one of the dungeons [p. 136] How disgusting must the atmosphere for this class, and others, taught in a dungeon, which was built to torture people to death?

C. Charms Class -- [p. 170]

Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry has four fraternity houses:

1. Hufflepuff -- White Magic house

2. Gryffindor -- White Magic house, and the one to which Harry, Ron, and Hermione belong

3. Slytherin -- Black Magick house -- "There's not a single witch or wizard who went bad who wasn't in Slytherin. You-Know-Who [Evil Lord Voldemort] was one." Their color was green. Isn't it interesting that Rowling does not tell us what the official color is for any of the other fraternities?

4. Ravenclaw -- White Magic house

To determine which fraternity house each student should be assigned, a Sorting Hat on which a special spell had been cast, would be placed on the head of each student. The Sorting Hat acted as a familiar spirit, in assessing the thoughts, feelings, and emotions of each student, and then decide which house to place that student.

VIII. Attitudes, Values, and Emotions

A. The fundamental occult/Communist philosophy that the "Ends Justify The Means" permeates this entire book. To achieve a goal deemed good, Harry and his friends consistently break rules, steal, and use Witchcraft against others.

B. An underlying emotion of dark fear fills virtually every chapter while the students are at Hogwarts.

C. Hermione, who is depicted as being the one student who obeys the rules, deliberately lies to the teachers when Harry knocks out a troll with his Witchcraft, but finds himself confronted by teachers because he was not in his dorm room. "Please, Professor McGonagall, they were looking for me", intoned Hermione ... Ron dropped his wand. Hermione Granger, telling a downright lie to a teacher?" [p. 177] Once again, the pagan philosophy that the "Ends Justify The Means" is being taught to the children who are reading this book, and believe me, they are listening. What was the result of this lie to protect Harry? "From that moment on, Hermione Granger became their friend." [p. 179] Hermione was very mildly punished, but her lie cemented a friendship with Ron and Harry, leading a child to conclude that her lie served an excellent purpose, and could not be considered 'wrong'.

In the next chapter, we learn: "Hermione had become a bit more relaxed about breaking rules ..." [p. 181]. Therefore, we can only conclude that breaking rules had become commonplace amongst the three friends.

D. Hatred toward others -- " 'I hate them both', said Harry, 'Malfoy and Snape'." [p. 196] Far from being just an isolated occurrence, or something said in jest, I find this attitude too common in the Harry Potter books.

E. No Absolute Standard of Good or Evil -- Professor Quirrell told Harry, " There is no good or evil, there is only power, and those too weak to seek it ." [p. 291] This is standard Witchcraft, and standard Illuminist doctrine. This doctrine is the guiding light to those Illuminists who are driving the world into the Kingdom of Antichrist. This doctrine is very seductive to those immature children trying to grow up in our current culture.

X. Miscellaneous Disgusting Events

A. Speaking Serpent Language: Before he learned of his Generation Witchcraft background, and before he arrived at Hogwart's School, Harry went with Uncle Vernon and Aunt Petunia to a zoo. While looking at a snake, Harry suddenly realized that he was able to understand what the snake was thinking; soon, Harry was actually talking to this snake! Later in the story, we discover this ability to speak with snakes is called Parcelmouth, and is extremely important in the practice of Black Magick

C. Revenge Motive: "Hagrid almost had to drag Harry away from Curses and Countercurses (Bewitch Your Friends and Befuddle Your Enemies with the Latest Revenges: Hair Loss, Jelly-Legs, Tongue-Tying, and Much, Much More, by Vindictus Viridian." [p. 80] Throughout these books, seeking revenge and attacking your enemies is high on the priority list of Harry, his friends, and other students. Do you want your children to adopt this most Satanic attitude? Notice the first name of the author of this revenge book, above, is named "Vindictus, i.e., Vindictive".

D. Choosing a Wand -- "... it's really the wand that chooses the wizard, of course ... Every Ollivander wand has a core of a powerful magical substance, Mr. Potter. We use unicorn hairs, phoenix tail feathers, and the heartstrings of dragons ..." Harry chose a wand made of holly wood and phoenix feather, 11 inches long. [p. 83-84] This wand contained the three elements favored most by Satanists: Unicorn, Phoenix, and Dragons. Both the Unicorns and Phoenix Birds are symbols of Antichrist, while the Dragon is clearly Satan [Revelation 12:9]

H. Halloween decorations -- "... a moment later they had entered the Great Hall, where the Halloween decorations put Hermione out of their minds. A thousand live bats fluttered from the walls and ceiling while a thousand more swooped over the tables in low black clouds, making the candles in the pumpkins stutter. The feast appeared suddenly on the golden plates [were conjured up] ..." [p. 172]

I. Wizard Chess -- "... exactly like Muggle chess except that the figures were alive, which made it a lot like directing troops in battle." [p. 199] Once again, a child will think this is cool, and will want even more to someday be a witch or a wizard so they can play this cool of a game.

J. Demon Possession -- "... to Harry's horror, a voice answered, and the voice seemed to come from Quirrell himself ... 'Use the boy, use the boy'. " [p. 292] This is standard demonic possession. However, as Harry soon discovered, this demonic possession was a Shape-Shifter type, where the human body of the host is transfigured as the indwelling demon wishes it to be. Listen:

"Harry felt as if Devil's Snare was rooting him to the spot ... Petrified, he watched as [Professor] Quirrell reached up and began to unwrap his turban ... Harry would have screamed, but he couldn't make a sound. Where there should have been a back to Quirrell's head, there was a face, the most terrible face Harry had ever seen. It was chalk white with glaring red eyes and slits for nostrils, like a snake."

" 'Harry Potter', it whispered."

"Harry tried to take a step backward, but his legs wouldn't move. 'See what I have become?', the face said. 'Mere shadow and vapor. I have form only when I can share another's body, but there have always been those willing to let me into their hearts and minds. Unicorn blood has strengthened me, these past weeks, and you saw faithful Quirrell drinking it for me in the forest; and once I have the Elixir of Life, I will be able to create a body of my own ... why don't you give me that Stone in your pocket?" [p. 293-4]

Rowling could not have created a better description of demonic possession by a dark and powerful demon! Christian parent, is this the type of thing you want your child to bring into their minds?

K. Satanic View of Death -- "After all, to the well-organized mind, death is but the next great adventure." [p. 297, 302; Headmaster Dumbledore telling Harry the Satanic view of death] Rather than death being an eternal separation from God in Hell as the Bible teaches, the Satanist believes in reincarnation. They believe that, when a person dies, their spirit goes into the great Reincarnation Cycle, to await the next human body into which they can begin, and start the "next great adventure". Is this the doctrine of death you want your child to accept?

L. Satanic View of Human Love -- "Your mother died to save you. If there is one thing Voldemort cannot understand, it is love. He didn't realize that love as powerful as your mother's for you leaves its own mark. Not a scar, no visible sign, to have been loved so deeply, even though the person who loved us is gone, will give us some protection forever. It is in your very skin. Quirrell, full of hatred, greed, and ambition, sharing his soul with Voldemort, could not touch you for this reason. It was agony to touch a person marked by something so good." [p. 299, Headmaster Dumbledore explaining to Harry about the Love Force which protected him in his physical battle with Quirrell]

The Satanist does not view God as a being; rather, he is a Force. This belief is fully in accord with prophecy about Antichrist, as we see "But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces..." [Daniel 11:38] Therefore, occultists believe this doctrine about all of God's attributes, such as Love. When Dumbledore explains the love of Harry's mother in these terms, he is literally saying that her love was a force that protects Harry even though she is dead. Of course, the Bible declares this view nonsense. When a person is dead, there is no force emanating from their life that protects anyone.

XI. Occult Numbers Used In Story Plot

Harry was eleven (11) when he was admitted to Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. The number eleven is considered sacred to the occultist, as it is the first primary number. Occultists will also add up numbers to get an occult number that is sacred; thus, I was highly interested when the bank vault maintained for Harry by his Mom and Dad before their death was numbered '713' [p. 73]. When you add $7 + 1 + 3 = 11$. Then, we learn that, in the money of the Fantasy Reality, "twenty-nine Knuts to a Sickle". When you add $2 + 9 = 11$.

When Harry found the wand that was meant for him, it turned out to be 11 inches long! [p. 84]

The Hogwarts Express Train left at 11 o'clock from Platform Nine and Three-Quarters. [p. 91]

XII. Illuminist Beliefs

A. -- Illuminists use the symbol of a unicorn as a symbol for their coming Christ [Antichrist]. Therefore, we should not be too surprised to learn that the unicorn plays a significant part of this story:

1. Potion ingredient: silver unicorn horns [p. 81]

2. The most powerful wand contained unicorn hairs [p. 84]

B. Phoenix Bird -- In Egyptian mythology, a Phoenix Bird would live for 500 years and then die; as soon as it died, its body would erupt in flames, and be reduced to a pile of ashes. Suddenly, out of the ashes, a new Phoenix Bird would arise, to live another 500 years. The Illuminati has long depicted Antichrist with a Phoenix Bird. In fact, the original bird symbol for the United States was not an Eagle, but a Phoenix!

But, further:

C. "Sorcerer's Stone" is also called the "Philosopher's Stone", and is very, very Satanic! Rosicrucianism teaches that an Initiate will pass through five stages to become the highest Adept possible, to be most proficient in exercising the power of Satanism. They call this process the "Five Stages In The Transmutation of the Soul". The final stage is depicted by the Phoenix Bird; the Adept is then said to have achieved the "Sorcerer's Stone". Thus, the fact that the term, "Sorcerer's Stone" is in the title of this book suggests that the ultimate goal of all students at Hogwarts is to achieve the Sorcerer's Stone.

D. Alchemy has long been an Illuminist obsession. Most people think of Alchemy as being the effort to change base metals into precious metals, including gold. Certainly, this is part of alchemy, but a lower-level part. The ultimate goal of the Alchemist is to achieve eternal life through Alchemy. Therefore, we find it highly interesting that Headmaster Dumbledore is considered "the greatest wizard of modern times. Dumbledore is particularly famous for his defeat of the dark wizard Grindelwald in 1945, for the discovery of the twelve uses of dragon's blood and his work on alchemy ..." [p. 103]

IN SUMMARY>

The truth of the Satanic nature of Harry Potter can be easily seen in so many ways by someone who is familiar with the occult. In this book, we see standard occultic beliefs and practices and Illuminist beliefs. We see Drug Usage glorified, and creation of powerful drugs taught to these First-Year students.

We see standard Witchcraft philosophy and world view espoused, including the "morality" teaching that there is no Absolute Right or Wrong, that the "Ends Justify The Means". We see that the occult belief about Death and Reincarnation is taught.

But, most horribly, we see depictions of Satanism that are truly End of the Age. We see the symbol of Antichrist, the Unicorn. We see the evil Voldemort drinking the blood of the Unicorn. Not only is drinking of blood forbidden in Scripture, but Satanists do it consistently. Further, as we explain, this drinking of the blood of the unicorn delivers a very strong message as to how the people will relate ultimately to Antichrist.

Lastly, the achievement of Eternal Life -- drinking the Elixir of Life -- is firmly and directly tied to the number, '666'!

Truly, Harry Potter is Satanic to the core, so much so I cannot believe Christian ministries that falsely assured parents that Potter is all right for their children to read have actually ever read the book!

Truly, the Bible is so correct when it says:

"... Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." [Revelation 18:4b]. From Genesis through Revelation, God demands His people separate themselves from the evil around them! SEPARATE! SEPARATE! Jesus says:

....."If ye love me, keep my commandments." [John 14:15]

"If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." [John 15:10]

"... the sin of witchcraft..." —1st Samuel 15:23

"Ye that love the LORD, hate evil..." —Psalm 97:10

Read what the witches have to say for themselves at <http://www.witchcraft.org/books/KateWest.htm> (below is a short paragraph from the above website link).

"Harry Potter, Sabrina The Teenage Witch, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Charmed. It seems we cant get enough of all things magical or 'witchy' at the moment. The result of all this interest is that Wicca has become the fastest growing religion in the UK. Wicca is a nature-based spiritual path that celebrates the feminine, follows the changing seasons of the year and is rich with magic and enchantment. But is it all spells and hocus pocus?

Kate West's grounded introduction to the Craft separates the Hollywood myth from the everyday reality, with all the practical advice you need to follow the Wiccan way. There are many coffee-table pretenders around, but Kate West is the real thing. Her Witchcraft is about passion, not fashion! She explains the responsibilities of becoming a Witch and provides plenty of magical and herbal spells you can work with - from charms to help you attract your ideal partner to healing potions for natural beauty to affirmations that will help you find empowerment. Witchcraft can help you to become personally fulfilled as it teaches you take control of yourself and your life. Whether you want to join a group or a work alone, this is a great guide to Wicca."

Maybe someone needs to hand a USA Today newspaper to the people over at Christianity Today...

Witches have good reason to be excited about Harry Potter. The book series is giving the "craft" a huge boost. No wonder that when interviewed by USA Today, a warlock endorsed Harry Potter and bubbled with excitement at the series' wide acceptance by the mainstream.

He's a charmer, that Harry Potter. The adolescent hero of J. K. Rowling's series rides a broom, owns an invisibility cloak and magic wand, and has cast a spell over young readers the world over. He has modern-day witches enchanted too. "For once, the witches aren't ugly old hags," said Michael Darnell, 39, a computer programmer from Winnipeg, Canada, who has been a practicing witch for over twenty-five years. "For once they're the protagonists rather than the villains."

—USA Today, May 30, 2000

What about the actors and visuals of the movies. Are they under any illuminati influence that would also help bring children to the dark side. Yes they are.

THE INTERNET

Pointing out uncomfortable things since 1996.

Vatican Approves Witchcraft

The following article was featured in the February 4th, 2003 Chicago Sun-times Newspaper.

Vatican: Potter's magic OK

Witchcraft found not to be anti-Christian

By NICOLE WINFIELD

The Vatican says the Harry Potter series is OK.

The good-vs.-evil plot lines of the best-selling books are imbued with Christian morals, the Rev. Don Peter Fleetwood said Monday.

"I don't see any problems in the Harry Potter series," Fleetwood said, responding to questions following the release of a new Vatican document on the New Age phenomenon, which he helped draft.

J.K. Rowling
"Christian in her mode of living"

Fleetwood, who is in the secretariat of the European Episcopal Conference, was asked whether the magic embraced by Harry Potter and his pals at the Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry was problematic for the Roman Catholic Church. Some conservative Christian evangelical groups have condemned the series for glamorizing magic and the occult.

He responded, saying author

A Vatican representative says the Harry Potter books help children "see the difference between good and evil."

J.K. Rowling was "Christian by conviction, is Christian in her mode of living, even in her way of writing."

"I don't think there's anyone in this room who grew up without fairies, magic and angels in their imaginary world," said Fleetwood, who is British. "They aren't bad. They aren't serving as a banner for an anti-Christian ideology. If I have understood well the intentions of Harry Potter's author, they help children to see the difference between good and evil. And she is very clear on this."

The fifth book in the series, Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix, is due in bookstores June 21.

AP

Church: 'New Age' is positive—if you don't go too far

By NICOLE WINFIELD

VATICAN CITY—The Vatican weighed in Monday on feng shui, crystals and the dawning of the Age of Aquarius in a new document designed to address whether you can still be a good Christian while listening to New Age music.

"A Christian Reflection on the 'New Age,'" doesn't give many absolute answers.

But while saying some positive things about the movement, it warns that New Agers' quest for spirituality can't take the place of true Christian religion.

While New Agers are waiting for an era when they are "totally in command of the cosmic laws of nature . . . Christians are in a constant state of vigilance, ready for the last days when Christ will come again; their New Age began 2,000 years ago, with Christ," the document said.

The Vatican said the preliminary document was the result of requests by bishops for guidance on determining whether practices embraced by New Agers, including yoga, meditation and healing by crystals, were compatible with Christianity.

The Rev. Michael Fitzgerald, president of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue, said many aspects of New Age were viewed positively by the church.

"Music that relaxes you is good. But if this music empties prayer and prayer turns into just listening to music and falling asleep, it's no longer prayer."

The document traces the history of the New Age phenomenon and notes the importance of the 1969 Woodstock festival and the musical "Hair."

AP

Is it any wonder that the largest Satanic religion in the world endorses witchcraft? Not at all. Satan is hard at work friend, never needing a rest; never taking a vacation. The fact that the Roman Catholic Religion endorses witchcraft should settle any previous doubts in your mind as to the legitimacy of the Catholic Church. The Catholic religion is a fraud, an imposter, damning the untold souls of billions.

1Sa:15:23: For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry..."

Mic:5:12: And I will cut off witchcrafts out of your hand; and you shall have no more soothsayers:

Na:3:4: Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that sells nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

The names of real devils are mentioned in the Harry Potter books. Satanism is glorified. Just as the Catholic religion has diminished Yahuah and Yahusha first to Jesus Christ and then JC to nothing by replacing Him with Mary, so has Harry Potter's author replaced Yah with Satanic powers.

Witchcraft (divination): a means for extracting information or guidance from a pagan god.

When most people think of witchcraft, they think of worshipping the devil. Most people that worship the devil, do NOT worship him directly--They worship idols or other pagan gods. Did you know that behind every idol is a demon!

There is a real danger in playing with the occult. Charms, idols (statues), crystals, tarot cards, candles, potions, magic recipes, astrology, horoscopes, palm-readings, fortune-tellers, psychics, crystal-balls, spells, trinkets, etc...

There are demons behind all of these!

If your seeking guidance, power or information from them, you are practicing witchcraft. There are many people today who are placing emphasis upon astrology, rather than upon the Scripture. Remember, seeking guidance or information from a pagan god is witchcraft. Stores and magazine racks are loaded with materials on cultic practices. The media is promoting it. Oprah Winfrey has done much to promote it. Authors are promoting it. We see it everywhere we turn!

It plunges them into darkness and demonism (the real gods of the occult). There is reality in the world of demons. There are fallen angels and a spirit world around us. This stuff is real folks, and today people are fascinated with it.

Ozzy Osbourne went straight to the top of the rating's chart in 2002. He is known for upside-down crosses and blasphemies against Yahuah. Thousands of teenagers died in the 1970's and 1980's due to suicides, murders and drug overdoses while idolizing Ozzy's works of darkness. People are intrigued with the occult. People use drugs and every other means they can think of to try to make contact with this unseen world (and the satanic world is eager to make contact with them). A child of Yah must leave this mess alone! To dabble in astrology, witchcraft and other forms of Satanism is to turn away from the SET-APART Spirit and the Word of Yahuah. Yahuah's warnings have been very accurate in the past. His batting average, friend, is excellent--He hasn't missed yet.

Harry Potter: Witchcraft Repackaged - Making Evil Look Innocent

It is surprising that there is any controversy about the Harry Potter series when author J.K. Rowling openly presents blatant Witchcraft, Satanism and pagan mythology.

Unfortunately, because many don't recognize occult symbolism, or understand Witchcraft, thousands of young readers, by inference, are led to accept them as whimsical and harmless, aided by Rowling's repackaging of Witchcraft in probably its most dangerous form - children's fantasy literature.

Does Witchcraft actually have power, and if so what is its source? And, does Rowling's presentation make Witchcraft any more acceptable?

Rowling's "Harry Potter" presents all of the following elements of Witchcraft: Mother Goddess, evolution, reincarnation, communing with the dead and spirit world, seasonal nature celebrations, sorcery, divination, spells, curses, meditation, occult symbology, black magic, demon possession, "dark" aspects of Witchcraft, and more.

Young readers today, more than any other time in history, have an abundance of occult resources easily available to them. The Harry Potter series clearly teaches young children how to become witches and warlocks and brings them into the new age occult world of the Luciferian illuminist, and schools them in the devil's occult craft.

The June 2000, issue of the Last Trumpet reported that, Dr. James Dobson and his respected mainstream "Focus on the Family" organization has endorsed the witchcraft training manuals known as the Harry Potter books. Dobson's reasoning is that these books teach the good and bad forces, and that good always wins.

If you get the chance tell this to Dr. James Dobson and other "so called" or "used to be" Christians, who will not BOLDLY stand AGAINST the damnable Harry Potter series:

Mat 18:6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Mat 18:14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

Mark 9:42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

Every parent and teacher should be outraged about the damnable effects that the Harry Potter series will have to their children, grandchildren, and concerned friends.

Harry Potter: The Witch's View

"Harry in an absolute godsend to our cause," said High Priest "Egan" of the First Church of Satan in Salem, MA. "An organization like ours thrives on new blood - no pun intended - and we've had more applicants than we can handle lately."

<http://www.vigilantchristian.org/harrypotter.html>

Michael O'Brien, author of Harry Potter and the Paganization of Culture

Master storyteller, best-selling novelist and artist Michael O'Brien - the man to whom CNN went for comment on Harry Potter - has penned the definitive work assessing the Potter phenomenon. This book is essential reading for all parents whose children have read or are considering reading the wildly popular offerings by J.K. Rowling and similar works such as Stephenie Meyer's Twilight series. Although this is an analytical work, the reader will be captivated from the beginning, from the must-read preface onward.

O'Brien's earlier work, A Landscape with Dragons, delineated authentic Christian fantasy literature from its counterfeits. Now in Harry Potter and the Paganization of Culture, he contrasts Potter-world with C.S. Lewis's Narnia and with Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings, and specifically Harry with Frodo. For those whose children have consumed Potter, O'Brien's analysis will enable parents to comprehend the messages which have been fed their children and give them the points and arguments which will hopefully be the antidote to properly reset their moral order.

The book goes beyond Potter, however, to address other bestselling series such as Twilight by Stephenie Meyer and Phillip Pullman's The Golden Compass. In addition to these and other fantasy books, O'Brien reviews the films which they spawned.

In all, O'Brien's new book teaches Christians how to discern harmless fantasy literature and film from that which is destructive to heart, mind and soul.

Introduction

In 2011 a young girl at a camp site in California approached me and with a stick representing her magical wand said "avada kedav__" (which is spiritually offensive so I did not type the last two letters). This young girl did not know what she was doing because for her the word was something she read in a Harry Potter book. Harry Potter and Lord Voldemort make frequent use of this very real witchcraft word to call upon a demon to destroy life. Harry Potter author J.K. Rowling admitted she intentionally used a real killing curse on April 15, 2004 during the Edinburgh Book Festival.

Rowling explained the spelling of this killing curse in her book is the 2nd century "abracadab__" (again this is spiritually offensive so I did not type the last two letters). Rowling said "It is an ancient spell in Aramaic, and it is the original of abracadab__, which means 'let the thing be destroyed.' Originally, it was used to cure illness and the 'thing' was the illness, but I decided to make it the 'thing' as in the person standing in front of me."

The young girl then introduced me to more children between the ages of 4 and 14 that were playing a witchcraft game inspired by the Harry Potter books. Stations for initiation and receiving dark art skills were established in the woods. In addition to the killing curse, children used the actual words calling for my murder and saying they were demons. Parents nearby, fooled to believe Satan is not real viewed the behavior of their children as playful and harmless.

This experience observing Harry Potter influenced children prompted me to inquire if one of the moms' at the camp site would like to know why Harry Potter is dangerous to our children. She said she would let me know if she ever wanted to know. I pray that she one day reads this information.

The Harry Potter camp site story is a real world example of how children are in danger. This danger is even greater than being in the path of a speeding car. Children have more than one speeding car threat as Harry Potter books, movies, toys, and now theme parks represent a small fraction of the harmful witchcraft that is promoted as entertainment via television, movies, music, books and online.

Half of all children in the U.S. are estimated to have read at least one Harry Potter book. According to a 2000 Gallup poll only 7% of people aware of the books disapprove of them. In a world where parents are increasingly time-starved, the low disapproval rating may not be surprising. In 2011 Gallup poll, only 54% of Americans rate religion as very important in their daily lives and 70% of Americans claim religion is decreasing in importance. Scripture informs us that many people, even when presented with the overwhelming evidence of real witchcraft, will fail to understand why it is harmful for children.

A single quote from Scripture may be sufficient for many parents to treat all media promoting witchcraft seriously.

The below is offered because for many people breaking the spell of Harry Potter requires more than Scripture or direct statements from God that even the most playful involvement with witchcraft can defile us.

Notable quotes

"You start off with Harry Potter, who comes across as a likeable wizard, but you end up with the Devil. There is no doubt that the signature of the Prince of Darkness is clearly within these books." The Vatican's chief exorcist Rev. Gabriele Amorth (HE SHOULD KNOW-He works for shatan).

"The threefold moral message that Rowling presents through her characters is clear: 1) rules are made to be broken if they do not serve one's own self-interests; 2) rules need not be obeyed if no good reason seems to exist for them; and 3) lying (along with witchcraft) is an effective and acceptable means of achieving a desired end." Richard Abanes, author of Harry Potter and the Bible

Abanes wrote on page 173 of his book: "But it is neither absurd, nor laughable, to suppose that the Harry Potter books might lead some children into the world of occultism since the series contains actual beliefs and practices associated with witchcraft and paganism, including: divination, astrology, numerology, familiars, pagan gods/goddesses, spellcasting, potions, necromancy (i.e., communicating with the dead/ghosts), mediumship/channeling, crystal gazing, palmistry, charms, arithmancy and magick."

"Harry Potter gives children an appetite for the occult." Author Steve Wohlberg in his book Exposing Harry Potter and Witchcraft

"Despite several positive values that can be found in the story, at the foundations of this tale is the proposal that of witchcraft as positive, the violent manipulation of things and people thanks to the knowledge of the occult, an advantage of a select few: the ends justify the means because the knowledgeable, the chosen ones, the intellectuals know how to control the dark powers and turn them into good... This is a grave and deep lie, because it is the old Gnostic temptation of confusing salvation and truth with a secret knowledge." Professor Edoardo Rialti

Harry Potter Overview

Harry Potter is a cleverly crafted story of witchcraft that begins by casting a spell on readers to condition them to respond with anger to anyone who criticizes Harry Potter. The conditioning is subtle and takes the form of presenting all people who criticize or mistreat Harry as mean and close-minded Muggles. Muggles is a derogatory term for all people who reject magic. The series of books and films communicate the consistent theme that the real evil in the world is from people who reject magic (e.g., the relatives who care for Harry Potter and Voldermort's father who abandons his son). Another major harmful message is people can use the tools of evil to defeat evil. As Christians, we know the tools of white magic and black magic are not from a neutral power source but from Satan.

The hidden messages begin with the book title and subtitles communicating blasphemous spiritual symbolism. In ancient Babylon the "Potter" is the female goddess of Babylon who created people from clay. The book series title communicates via witchcraft this boy named "Potter" reveals secrets transforming humans to become gods. The name "Harry" is a reference to both the Antichrist and a powerful assistant who is described as "hairy" in the Abrahamic faiths ranging from Daniel 8:21 to the Islamic teaching about the Antichrist or Dajjal.

The hidden meaning of the sub-titles are along alchemical guidelines.

- | | |
|----------|------------------|
| 1. Earth | Stone |
| 2. Air | Chamber |
| 3. Water | Azkaban (island) |

4. Fire	Fire
5. Quintessence	Phoenix
6. Soul	Blood
7. Spirit	Hallow

The book series deception that Harry Potter is a positive allegory for Christ has successfully fooled many people. J.K. Rowling accomplished this confusion with her false god, Harry Potter, as the savior of the world who has:

- a magic father, human mother
- a miraculous birth foretold by prophecy
- an early attempt on his life resulting in needing to go into hiding
- a special power over animals, time and matter
- the lion as his symbol and an enemy symbolized as a snake
- descended into the underworld
- a special ability to break seven magical seals
- suffered, died is resurrected
- a final victory over his enemy

The story is Harry Potter is a boy orphaned as a baby. He is told his parents died in a car accident. He is cared for by living family members, the Dursleys, who are wizards and witches.

His guardians treat him badly and he is repeatedly told he will never be special. When he is 11 years old a giant invites him to go to Hogwarts boarding school for wizards and witches. The number 11 holds special magical power in the religion of the New World Order. Key human sacrifices often occur on the 11 day in the month (e.g., 9/11). Satan worshipper Alesiter Crowley taught there is magic in numbers. He wrote in his Book of the Law that "11 is the number of Magick in itself." This is also why Harry Potter's wand is 11 inches long. The story continues with a giant revealing to Harry that his parents were not killed in a car accident but killed by a powerful wizard, Lord Voldemort.

Harry learns that Lord Voldemort tried to kill him but failed and the attack left a lightning bolt mark on Harry's forehead. Harry also received the ability to speak to serpents which is explained in the Deathly Hallows as the result of an occult bond formed with Voldemort. The lightning bolt mark is explained in Luke 10:18 as Satan fell like lightning. The lightning bolt, also known as the Satanic S was used by the Nazis and in more recent times by the music group KISS (Knights in Satan's Service) and is the central part of the logo for the satanic singer Lady Gaga.

Note the Harry Potter and Lady Gaga lightning bolts and the letter “P” in Potter includes a lightning bolt.

Harry learns that from the lightning bolt on his forehead that he has special psychic powers including the ability to speak with serpents. Harry also learns he is one of the elite and there are two kinds of people in the world. There are people called Muggles (the New World Order term is Goyim which means cattle). Muggles are people who have no special powers, increase their suffering by rejecting magic, and have less value than wizards and witches. Another way to define a Muggle is a weak and lesser educated loser when compared to wizards and witches who are an illuminated elite. In truth, all witches and wizards in Harry Potter are drawing their magic powers from Lucifer. Muggles include people who worship the God of Abraham and anyone who rejects or ignores Luciferian power.

Deathly Hallows

The Deathly Hallows film name is appropriate because this film teaches many of the deepest secrets of the New World Order religion. The film is holy only from a witchcraft perspective. The blasphemy is hard to miss. For Deathly Hallows, knowledge of the book of Revelation is helpful. In Revelation 6:1-17, only the Lamb of Yah is can break the seven seals resulting in apocalyptic events. The opening of the first four seals release

The Four Horsemen, each with their own specific mission. The opening of the fifth seal releases the cries of martyrs for the word of Yah. The sixth seal prompts cataclysmic events. In Revelation 8:1-13, the seventh seal cues seven angelic trumpeters which cues the seven bowl judgments destroying the followers of the Antichrist. Deathly Hallows, the final film follows a similar pattern. Specifically, it is no surprise to find Harry Potter successfully breaking seven magical objects, called Horcruxes contain pieces of Lord Voldemort's soul and in the process becoming the savior of the world.

Many previous Christian supporters of Harry Potter distanced themselves from J. K. Rowling when in the final book it became clear Harry Potter is a blasphemous resurrected false Christ. Fortunately, most Christians know Matthew 22:24, "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Fewer Christians are remained fooled when they learn about the New World Order's gifted wizard named Hiram Abiff.

Hiram Abiff is the person who unlike Yahusha really does matches Harry Potter's life, death and resurrection. Hiram Abiff is well known in Freemasonry because every initiate plays the role of Hiram Abiff as part of the Luciferian ritual to "be raised" as a master mason. People fooled to believe the New World Order is not real, are naturally unaware of their religious beliefs and many of the darker Harry Potter hidden messages.

With Deathly Hallows, the good news is many people finally took notice of the concrete and clear occult purpose. Deathly Hallows further proves that a person engaged in behaviors Yah clearly defines as abominations, with the mark of the Antichrist on his head, and teaching witchcraft is good is not.

Advice for parents

With the introduction of television shows, movies and other forms of modern entertainment to make witchcraft appear harmless, small amounts of dark poison have been introduced to desensitize us and lower our guard. The Harry Potter books and films encourage behaviors that we are warned in Scripture can defile us including using: spells, witchcraft instruments (e.g., a flying broom), magic potions, spirit communications tools (e.g., a sorting hat), objects for power (e.g., pentagram), revenge, and speaking with the dead.

As parents, is it reasonable to conclude Harry Potter books and films are potentially spiritually harmful? Given Yahuah's guidance throughout the Bible, should we risk exposing our children? If children are bombarded with multiple witchcraft films and television shows over several years, will this serve to increase their faith in Scripture?

Many people, when unaware of the very real religious beliefs the New World Order is secretly advancing via Hollywood, believe Harry Potter is harmless entertainment. You do not need to know anything about the New World Order to know that the behaviors Yah defines as abominations are behaviors glorified in Harry Potter.

With knowledge of the Scriptures, you can break the Harry Potter spell. With knowledge of the New World Order, you can see concrete examples of how this film is carefully crafted to undermine Christianity.

Lucifer's seething energy

The book of Revelation warns of the mark of the Beast and many other Harry Potter abominations. With even an elementary awareness of the Bible, Harry Potter's forehead lightning bolt should prompt concern. Anyone who has ever watched Star Wars will note the many similarities (e.g., in Harry Potter Lord Voldemort tries to kill a savior with occult seething energy and in Star Wars Lord Palpatine tries to kill the savior with this same energy called the Force).

The religion of the New World Order elite teaches that their god, Lucifer, empowers followers with "force" energy. The "force" is a very important concept taught at the higher levels of Freemasonry. On page 48 in the book The Lost Key of Freemasonry, Manly P. Hall wrote: "When a mason learns the key to the warrior on the block is the proper application of the dynamo of living power, he has learned the mystery of his craft. The seething energies of Lucifer are in his hands and before he may step upward, he must prove his ability to properly apply energy." What we see in these photos, is this "seething energy of Lucifer" being delivered by the evil Lord Voldemort in Harry Potter and Lord Palpatine in Star Wars.

When parents encourage their children to read Harry Potter books, buying Harry Potter wizard sticks, or a Star Wars toy, they are teaching their children the religion of the New World Order. The New World Order religion that draws upon energy from Lucifer, not the Almighty of Abraham.

Occult Symbolism in Harry Potter

The occult symbolism in Harry Potter, with witchcraft wands and glorifying even a witches "sorting" hat, is clearly prohibited in Scripture. The use of the same seething energy in Star Wars is harder for people to see because it is more carefully hidden. When you do understand the religion of the New World Order, the boy in the middle picture below is calling upon demonic power to move the object in his Star Wars toy. In the two pictures on the right, Luke Skywalker and Harry Potter hold energy seething from the power source of Lucifer.

Why are leaders of faith routinely silent about the occult tools and messages designed to corrupt the souls of our children? The simple answer I find in speaking with people is they dismiss guidance in Scripture as not applicable and combined with little or no knowledge of the meaning of symbols they end up failing to see the harmful messages being broadcast. People who miss the J.K. Rowling messages crafted to corrupt our children are often people who are unable to see how multiple films and other forms of entertainment are teaching people to reject

Yahuah. In Matthew 13:14-16, Jesus instructs us that not everyone will understand. "And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Yahshyahu -Isaiah, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear."

Characters in Harry Potter are sometimes versions of real people combined with demons. For example, in Harry Potter Nicolas Flamel is 666 years old and the creator of the philosopher's stone. A real Nicolas Flame, (1330–1418), was an alchemist and occult manuscript seller in France who developed a posthumous reputation for his reputed philosopher's stone accomplishments. The philosopher's stone is mentioned in Cheirokmeta by Zosimos of Panopolis (c. 300 A.D.) and is thought to also be the cornerstone rejected described in Psalm 118.

New World Order Conditioning

One very troubling example is Harry Potter's lightning bolt scar on his head prepares young children to have a favorable impression of tattoos and openness to receive the mark of the Beast. This may not mean much to many people reading this but the New World Order is planning to mark every person on the planet. They have not attempted this because they are working on conditioning the public to accept it. Putting a lightning bolt tattoo on your body is from a Christian perspective receiving a mark of the Beast. For Christians, the warning is clear that we must reject the mark of the Beast or be prohibited from entering heaven.

"And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the Torah of Yahuah, and the faith of Yahusha." Revelation 9-12

If people say to you, "Harry Potter is just fantasy and fun entertainment." These parents may see nothing wrong with kids putting a lightning bolt mark on their forehead or wearing a witches hat. I encourage you to do your best to help them understand Scripture.

Do not be surprised if even close friends are resistant to hearing you speak about this. I have found in multiple situations that bringing up the subject has resulted in people becoming upset.

As parents, this is natural as none of us wants to hear we may have encouraged behaviors that are spiritually harmful. The multi-billion dollar Harry Potter franchise can find "credible" religious authorities to say the film is only fun and the warnings in the Bible need not be heeded. No doubt my personal experiences happen for different reasons but it certainly is logical that none of us want to hear that we may be allowing behaviors that hurt our children.

The delivery of this information via this website and in books is intended in part to allow the information to be available in a way that can be received as caring and not judging of a specific person in their role as a parent.

Teaching people why Harry Potter is promoting the New World Order religion is challenging because most people do not know the New World Order is real. Knowing about the New World Order is necessary to fully see how the Harry Potter series of books are written to introduce children to the New World Order belief system.

The Scriptures say we are not to try to communicate with the spirits of the dead because the dead know nothing. In Harry Potter the spirit of Harry's dead father communicates with him. Mind reading is a routine practice at the school. For example, the sorting hat is used to read the mind of the students and determine which fraternity they will live at. On an interesting note, the sorting hat almost puts Harry in Slitherin because he has the potential to be a great evil force.

A key takeaway of each book in the Harry Potter series is behaviors defined as "evil" in the Scriptures, such as witchcraft, are defined as "good" in Harry Potter. Additional examples include the books teach there is good in astrology, wizardry, witchcraft, opposing authority, reincarnation, and achieving revenge. The message of Harry Potter is situational ethics and "do what you want" which is the golden rule of Luciferianism and opposite of following Yah's Torah.

J. K. Rowling

Author J. K. Rowling refutes her books are teaching real witchcraft. However, pictures of her making occult hand signals are easy to find. In a Scholastic Inc. interview she explains her childhood fascination with witchcraft and witchcraft activities with playmate Ian Potter. Ian Potter's sister Vicky was interviewed and she said "we used to dress up as wizards and witches...she would always send us off to get twigs for the potions." A more detailed examination of the J. K. Rowling reveals a dark history of occult involvement with witchcraft and Druidism.

Rowling's official explanation was the Harry Potter books appeared to her mind's eye. The mind's eye is a New World Order symbol for the "All Seeing Eye" of Lucifer. To other followers of the religion of the New World Order she is saying Lucifer gave her the idea and details for the book.

The concept of the mind's eye is an ancient and new age movement teaching that humans have a third eye. Rowling said in a 1990 Scholastic Inc. interview "I was sitting on a train just staring out the window at some cows, it was not the most inspiring subject when all of a sudden the idea for Harry Potter just appeared in my mind's eye. I can't tell you what triggered it but I saw the idea of Harry and the wizard school very plainly. I suddenly had this idea of a boy who did not know what he was." In Newsweek magazine she was quoted as saying "I had this physical reaction to it. I never felt like that before and Harry came in this huge rush and very bizarrely he had this mark on his forehead but I did not know why at that point. It was like research. I did not feel like I was entirely inventing it. Harry just strolled into my head full formed."

Summary

In summary, the Harry Potter books teach the witchcraft and wizard religion of the New World Order. The books wet childrens' appetite for the real thing. Children learn mom and dad have no powers so they should go to tools available to them to obtain power. The tools put in front of children with the Harry Potter series include books, films, games, clothing and for advanced studies to become a wizard, the Internet.

Many children who started down the occult path with Harry Potter are continuing their journey by visiting websites run by witches and Luciferians. These children are conditioned to accept the religion of the Antichrist. They are far more likely to join secret societies promising occult powers including Freemasonry and participate in magick. Black magick, white magick, sexual magick, spirit possessions, using mirrors to speak with spirits, drinking the blood of the unicorn to sustain life, situational ethics, reincarnation, a false savior, using the occult seething energy, and revenge are taught in Harry Potter. Harry Potter is paving the way for a religion opposed to Christianity, the religion of Luciferianism.

I sincerely believe that parents exposing their children to Harry Potter will not help their children deepen their faith and risk having their children to participate in behaviors that are spiritually harmful. Explaining why behaviors in Harry Potter can be harmful will help children make good decisions when presented with situations independent of your guidance. Reading the Vigilant Christian will help you deepen your understanding of Harry Potter and other occult works seeking to undermine Christianity.

Any person who explains why films such as Harry Potter are teaching the religion of Hiram Abiff will be attacked. The top reason is people, even religious leaders, often do not know about the New World Order and are successfully "charmed" to believe accepting what Yah has declared an abomination as harmless fun.

A key New World Order objective is the destruction of Christianity by confusing young people to accept behaviors that God defines as abominations. The approach is to confuse a person when they are young so that they will remain confused for life. The Synagogue of Satan, as do Christians, believes Proverbs 22:6 is accurate. Proverbs 22:6 teaches "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Harry Potter books and all works glorifying behaviors God has declared as abominations do introduce children to the occult, produce a positive impression about the occult, and desensitize them with the goal that they do not depart from accepting abominations as adults.

Dave Dionisi

P.S. Checklist for occult symbolism applied to Harry Potter. I encourage you to apply this checklist to other movies, television shows, books, music and online content. For example, Lady Gaga songs routinely result in a yes answer across for every occult attribute.

Attribute In the Harry Potter books and films

Spells and magic phrases Yes
Pentagram Yes
Blood rituals Yes
Potions Yes
666 symbols Yes
Lightning bolt Yes
All Seeing or Evil eye Yes
Occult hand signs (e.g., horn of Satan) Yes
Withcraft instruments (e.g., a wand, flying broom, etc.) Yes
Spirit communications tools (e.g., mirrors, sorting hat, etc.) Yes
Reincarnation Yes
Backward masking messages Yes
Levitation Yes

Special note on levitation and other examples of using magick or the "force." People do not have the "force" power to make things levitate, read minds, or perform true magic. The Christian teaching is mysterious works can and will happen. The Antichrist will have an associate who will deceive many people with his occult powers. So on one level a power like levitation can be real and at the same time we are warned it is not real. The answer to this paradox is that when it appears that humans are performing magic, whether in Harry Potter or with the force in Star Wars, it is really demonic power giving the person the illusion that they are in control when a demon is moving the object. This is the deception that is carefully guarded by occultists and why time and time again the temporary good accomplished by using magick or the "force" routinely leads to greater evil.

The false idol of materialism is serves as the foundation for evil. People are increasingly focused on materials possessions which opens the door to demonic possession. As people lose their sensitivity to the reality of supernatural evil, the path is cleared for Satan and demons.

People claiming to be Christian leaders who praise witchcraft have and will surface. Acts chapter 20 reveals perverse things would come from the bishops of the church. "Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves." Acts 20:30

Yet, few dare mention the fact that the C.S. Lewis books—which are even more vile and more blatantly occultism—continue to be sold in Christian bookstores, endorsed by Hank Hanegraaff, Chuck Colson, Billy Graham, and other leaders, and quoted each Sunday in dozens of "conservative" Southern Baptist and other churches!

This phenomenon is only one striking example of the witchcraft explosion that has erupted and is now ravaging the Christian establishment.

C.S. Lewis Exposed as Pagan Mythologist Tex Mars

In 1987, as one of only a few lone voices in the wilderness, I warned the Christian world of the insidious, unscriptural, satanic, and magical messages and images contained in the books of famous "Christian" author, C.S. Lewis. I wrote particularly of Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia series for kids and adults, demonstrating how these works were from the very pit of hell.

And though British author C.S. Lewis was one of the most quoted, admired, and beloved of all "Christian" writers and teachers, I demonstrated that Lewis' own personal and doctrinal life was stigmatized by pagan beliefs, mythological imagery, sexual kinkiness, and adultery.

I showed also C.S. Lewis' mixture and confusion of Hindu and Greek gods with Christian heroes. In one instance, C.S. Lewis even equated Jesus Christ with the ancient Greek sun god Apollo, the son of the mythological Zeus. (Ok this I agree with CS Lewis).

C.S. Lewis was most fond of expressing a belief in Jesus, followed by a clarifying exclamation, "Jesus was the fulfillment of myth." According to Lewis, Jesus deserved worship because he was, "the myth that had come true." (Yahusha is NO MYTH).

As I pointed out in my book, Ravaged by the New Age, Lewis also taught in his novels, the Chronicles of Narnia series, that all service done by a person on behalf of Lucifer and the dark side was, in fact, also credited by God as service to him! In Lewis' nonfiction writings, we discover his belief in evolution, in the Catholic version of Mary, and in the odd notion that in our "next lives," Christians may just become planets, stars, or other heavenly objects. (Sounds like Mormonism).

Moreover, Lewis believed the Bible to be flawed, and suggested that Jesus was an ignorant prophet, regrettably tied to the Jewish messianic myth. Lewis further suggested that Jesus' prophecies had failed to come to pass. (Wow how did CS Lewis become a Christian writer? Maybe he was the illuminati test case for Harry Potter to see if would be accepted.)

Nevertheless, all these things being so, the fantasy books of C.S. Lewis have for decades been super sellers in both Christian and New Age occult bookstores. For my efforts in warning Christian parents to keep Lewis' wicked and foul books far from their kids, many a Christian bookstore owner and manager responded by angrily pulling Texe Marrs' books off their shelves and banning them forever from their premises. Pottermania Invades Christian Homes.

Twilight Series Exposed!

To: Scott Johnson

Sent: Saturday, March 28, 2009 10:26 PM

Subject: REGARDING MOVIE AND BOOK SERIES TWILIGHT

Dr. Johnson,

Do you have any information or would you consider checking into the following craze taking place among young people and adults - the Twilight series. My husband and I were walking around Walmart last night while buying groceries and everywhere you look there is Twilight advertising. This series is about "Good Vampires" and we saw numerous people with them in their baskets to purchase. We went over to the display and planted tracts inside the books for sale.

Even some of the people at a local church that we use to attend are so excited about this series of books!!!! They look at it like it's so innocent, just like people talking about Harry Potter being so innocent -

Gen 9:4 But flesh with the life thereof, [which is] the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

Exd 12:7

And they shall take of the blood, and strike [it] on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

Lev 3:17 [It shall be] a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

Lev 7:26 Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, [whether it be] of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

Lev 17:12

Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

Lev 17:14

For [it is] the life of all flesh; the blood of it [is] for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh [is] the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

Lev 19:26

Ye shall not eat [any thing] with the blood: neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times.

Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Yahuah; Ye eat with the blood, and lift

Eze 33:25 up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

1Sa 14:32

And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew [them] on the ground: and the people did eat [them] with the blood.

1Sa 14:33

Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against Yahuah in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

1Sa 14:34

And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay [them] here, and eat; and sin not against Yahuah in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew [them] there.

Proverbs 14:12 & 16:25: "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Proverbs 28:26: "He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered."

Jeremiah 17: 9: "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?"

Proverbs 17:15: "He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to Yahuah."

Isaiah 5:20: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

Psalms 94:16: "Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?..."

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Jeremiah 48:10: "Cursed be he that doeth the work of Yahuah deceitfully..."

Jeremiah 7:28: "But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of Yahuah their Almighty, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth."

Psalm 97:10: "Ye that love Yahuah, hate evil..."

James 4:4: "Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with Yahuah? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of Yahuah."

BEWARE OF "TWILIGHT SAGA"

(Friday Church News Notes, December 12, 2008, www.wayoflife.org fbns@wayoflife.org, 866-295-4143) - The following is adapted from the report "Occultic Twilight Movie Praised by Christian Groups" by Caryl Matrisciana:

The Twilight Saga is a series of novels by Stephenie Meyer describing an illicit romance between a teenage girl and a vampire. The four books have sold more than 17 million copies, been translated into 20 languages, and spun off a new movie that grossed $70 million in its first week. Twilight has become a pop culture phenomenon hotter than Pottermania, promoting midnight release parties and vampire proms, obsessed fans called Twi-hards, and spawning more than 350 fan sites online that claim more than 100 million hits.

The series is about a sophomore teenage girl named Bella who moves to a new town and falls in love with a handsome vampire named Edward, though 108 years old, he appears to be 17. The story is about their intoxicating infatuation for each other and the consequences of a lustful vampire/mortal romance. Edward is a member of a "coven" of vampire family members that are depicted as "good."

The shocker is that many Christians are attracted to this spiritually dysfunctional romance and are attempting to give Christian applications to its demonic premise. No matter how resplendent the "vampire" is portrayed in mythology and fiction, in Scripture blood drinking and creatures of darkness are judged as despicable by Yah. Distortion of the purpose of blood is a satanic mockery of Yahuah's intent for the sacredness blood represents. Scripture teaches, "Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life..." (Deut. 12:23) and in the shedding of blood is the remission of sins.

Meyer "received" the story of Twilight in a dream on June 2, 2003. The vision compelled her to start writing the story immediately. She says she had an additional dream after Twilight was finished when her vampire character Edward came to speak to her. Her latest novel, The Host, is about demon possession. The Twilight books and movie have been recommended by the Christian Stay at Home Moms website, Focus on the Family's Plugged In Online, ChristianityTodayMovies.com, and Campus Life's Ignite Your Faith Christian teen magazine.

(Wow sounds like JK Rowlings getting the HP stories on the train).

Summit sells 3 Million Twilight DVDs JUST on Saturday!

Posted by Colleen on March 23, 2009

View Colleen's blog

Thousands of TWILIGHT fans across the nation participated in the "TWILIGHT at Midnight" event and some were surprised by filmmaker and cast appearances. 2,500 fans attended in Salt Lake City to see Rachelle Lefevre who plays Victoria; 2,000 showed up in Los Angeles to see Ashley Greene who plays Alice Cullen; over 1,000 fans came out to see director Catherine Hardwicke in Dallas; 700 fans lined up in New York for Edi Gathegi who plays Laurent; and 500 fans in Chicago saw Nikki Reed who plays Rosalie Hale.

With over 3 million DVD units sold, TWILIGHT enters the top five best first day DVD releases over the past two years along with PIRATES OF THE CARIBBEAN: AT WORLD'S END, THE DARK KNIGHT, HARRY POTTER AND THE ORDER OF THE PHOENIX, and TRANSFORMERS.

<http://blackandredbible.ning.com/profiles/blogs/summit-sells-3-million>

Stephenie Meyer Biography: Author of Twilight

Stephenie Meyer's Background: Meyer grew up in Phoenix, Arizona and was one of six children. She met her husband, Christian, in high school, but they did not marry until after she graduated from Brigham Young University. Meyer has three sons. She is Mormon.

Stephenie Meyer's Books: Meyer's started her writing career in Young Adult fiction. In 2005, she published her first book, Twilight, about a teenager who falls in love with a good vampire. Meyer has also published four sequels to Twilight and one adult novel, The Host.

Stephenie Meyer Movies: A movie adaptation of Twilight was released in November 2008. The sequel, New Moon, is scheduled for release in fall 2009.

Stephenie Meyer Trivia:

- Meyer was inspired to write Twilight after a dream she had on June 2, 2003. The transcript of that dream is Chapter 13 of Twilight.

- What exactly does Meyer say about human beings? "In Love with Death - The Twilight of American fiction" By Gina R. Dalfonzo in National Review online Meyer claimed to be “anti-human” on her own website. The relevant quote from the Dalfonzo article here:

- “Meyer once retorted to critics who accused her of misogyny,
- Misogyny (IPA [mɪs.ɪdʒ.ɪni]) is hatred (or contempt) of women or girls. It is parallel to misandry—the hatred of men or boys. Misogyny is also comparable with isanthropy which is the hatred of humanity generally.
- “I am not anti-female; I am anti-human.” Whether she was aware of it or not, this was far more than just a flippant remark. Just like the allegedly positive messages about romance and sexuality, any value that Meyer and her characters place on human life is only on the surface.”
- You see the evidence of this worldview in the books, especially after Bella is “turned” into a vampire. For example, see Breaking Dawn p.469 when she contrasts her prior “hideous human” face with her new “glorious immortal” vampire face.

Movie Review: Twilight--Giving heed to fables

<http://lighthouse-trails-research.com/blog/index.php?cat=1>

By Pastor Bill Randles

Why "Twilight" is spiritually fatal, and what it shows us about the state of Christian youth. If someone would have told me 25 years ago, that one day a popular series of "vampire romance" books would be accepted and promoted by evangelical ministries, I wouldn't have been able to believe it. That's why I was shocked to read this article by Christian documentarian and researcher, Caryl Matrisciana & Paul Villanueva, which documents the glowing reviews of the occult book series by evangelical publications such as: Campus Life, Focus on the Family, Christianity Today, Christian Teen, and Christian Stay at Home Moms Magazine. All gave glowing testimonials, and some even suggested that the "Twilight" series could become the basis for Bible discussions and studies!

My purpose isn't to merely echo Caryl Matrisciana & Paul Villanueva's excellent article, exposing the occult roots of this book series. Rather, I have a burden to show you why I believe that this literature could have a completely soul deadening effect on those who are fascinated by its dark vision.

First of all, consider what the 'vampire' myth really is--nothing less than an obscene parody of the precious gift of Yah--which is eternal life through the Plan of the Torah and Yahusha . To Yah, blood is sacred, those who drink it are an utter abomination to Him, because of what blood represents.

In the pagan myth, 'vampires' are those who obtain 'immortality' by sucking other's blood. The 'immortality' they gain, is literally a damned existence. They live in the night, they cannot endure light, they feed on the blood of innocence. Far from just a harmless thrill, Vampirism is the basis for all sorts of pagan spiritualities. Blood drinking and blood sacrifice is an everyday reality among animists all over the world.

The vampire fable is nothing less than an all-out assault on the work of Yahusha.

Consider this, a young person can go to a theater on a Saturday evening and vicariously fall in love with a vampire, and his 'coven'(family), and then go to church on Sunday. (She should be going on Shabbat- but that is another study).

Ah but Pastor it is only a movie! Lighten up! But this is more than a movie--it is a pagan myth which is a perversion of only Yahuah can save us. The movie presents vampires as being attractive, in fact so attractive that the young lady in the story is willing to become a vampire to be with her lover. In order to be with her vampire lover, she submits to being an eternally damned soul! This movie skillfully plays on the emotions in such a way that the viewer pulls for the mortal young woman to be with her "lover," a 110-year-old vampire in the form of an attractive and well-mannered teen.

What the popularity of this film, even among evangelical youth, says about the state of the church is that we have forgotten what we once knew very well. That is, you can't fill your mind with all of this paganism without injuring your relationship with Yahuah.

We once knew that to voluntarily expose ourselves to blasphemy and sexual sin--not to mention something as blatantly spiritual as Vampirism--was something to be shunned, avoided, that it was soul deadening, and injurious to our walk to Yahuah.

Where is the sense of being Set-Apart? The idea of being Set-Apart is that the purity of children is to be held special and should be defended, that is why there is a special warning to any who would cause them to stumble.

This article or excerpt was posted on December 21, 2008@ 11:48 am .

SPECIAL REPORT: Occultic Twilight Movie Praised by Christian Groups

<http://lighthouse Trailsresearch.com/blog/index.php?cat=1>

Category:

The church and Christians are being deceived by many new-age occult philosophies and are promoting them as compatible with "Christian" ideals. To name just a few: The Secret came out in 2006, A Course in Miracles and the movie The Golden Compass in 2007. The seventh book in the Harry Potter series was released in 2007. In 2008, there was The Shack and the Oprah Winfrey endorsed book The New Earth.

Simultaneously, in 2006 a teenage phenomenon began gaining incredible momentum—a demonically-inspired series of vampire romance, which surprisingly has hoodwinked Christian youth who are confusing Yah's love with sensual, romantic lust and His Word with occult philosophy. As Twilight lulls the spiritually asleep into a darker 2009, people need to wake up to the supernatural dangers these compromises pose.

The Book:

Author Stephenie Meyer's four-book series, Twilight (September 6, 2006), Eclipse (August 7, 2007), New Moon (May 31, 2008), and Breaking Dawn (August 7, 2008) have sold 17 million copies, principally to pre-teen and teen girls, and spawned more than 350 fan sites online. According to the author's website, these are the statistics for Twilight, her first book in the series. All are published by Little, Brown Books for Young Readers.

- * A New York Times Editor's Choice
- * A Publishers Weekly Best Book of the Year
- * An Amazon "Best Book of the Decade...So Far"
- * A Teen People "Hot List" pick
- * An American Library Association "Top Ten Best Book for Young Adults" and "Top Ten Books for Reluctant Readers"
- * Has been translated into 20 languages

The entire four-book collection is called the Twilight Saga. This link shows the book covers and contents of the collection. All the books in the series follow a "forbidden fruit of love" theme between a human teenage girl (mortal) and a "vampire."

Twilight, the movie, released by Summit Entertainment with sequel #2 and #3 already in the works, grossed $70.6 million its first week. Twilight is more than a four-book series and movie; it's a pop culture phenomenon hotter than Pottermania, prompting midnight release parties and vampire proms, claiming 100 million hits on Twilight internet sites!

We need to examine exactly what a "vampire" is and ask, can Christians honestly consider it OK for teens (indeed anyone?) to crave a relationship with one? For centuries, vampires have been part of folklore and mythology, understood to be ugly, dark creatures of morbid horror, close to the dead, sometimes known as the undead for they claim eternal life and subsist by feeding on human blood, roam in darkness, avoid the light, and are enemies of the human race.

This repulsive concept was changed with the popularization of Bram Stoker's famous 1897 novel about a fictionalized vampire Count Dracula, who was presented as an aristocrat Transylvanian nobleman. He was imbued with supernatural powers, superhuman capabilities and a lustful passion for beautiful ladies whose blood he became addicted to. His blood sucking was two-fold--to maintain his (eternal) "life force" and eventually befall his victim with the curse of vampirism and ultimate death. No matter how resplendent the "vampire" is portrayed in mythology and fiction, in Scripture blood drinking and creatures of darkness are judged as despicable by Yahuah.

Also, Scripture explains fallen spirits ("angels") as those who deliberately choose to follow their leader Satan (Isaiah. 14) and deny their Creator. For this choice, they are damned with eternal separation from Yah and an eternity in the Lake of Fire. (Rev 15.)

Pagan cultures, seduced by myths and lying doctrines of demons have attempted to salvage eternal damnation by ceremony, one of them being vampirism, the sucking of human blood believed to sustain eternal life.

In a future movie, Bella succumbs to vampire status--and yes! they do have sex and an unwanted baby. The secular reviewers of the Twilight series call it, "A dark romance that seeps into the soul."

The original title of Twilight was "Corpse," but the publisher changed it to make it more Appealing, the content of Twilight is in opposition to many Scriptures: it promotes sorcery, divination and witchcraft.

Author Stephenie Meyer:

A housewife named Stephenie Meyer "received" the story of Twilight in a dream on June 2, 2003. The vision she had of a vampire and mortal as lovers compelled her to start writing the story immediately. She says she couldn't resist the drive to write down her dream (a similar scenario to J.K Rowlings, author of Harry Potter). Meyer gives a summary of that first dream: "I woke up (on that June 2nd) from a very vivid dream. In my dream, two people were having an intense conversation in a meadow in the woods. One of these people was just your average girl. The other person was fantastically beautiful, sparkly, and a vampire. They were discussing the difficulties inherent in the facts that A)they were falling in love with each other while B)the vampire was particularly attracted to the scent of her blood, and was having a difficult time restraining himself from killing her immediately. Within three months, she had the entire novel written. Within six months, it had been dreamed, written, and readied for publishing. She admits she had little to no prior writing experience with only a B.A. degree in English and had to learn from the Internet how to submit a book proposal. She tried a few times and "miraculously" got published with a $750 thousand dollar publishing contract! Miraculous happenings have been known to come from powers of darkness.

Meyer, a Mormon mother of three, states that some of her inspiration in writing her vampire saga came from a band of musicians called Marjorie Fair. "For New Moon, they were absolutely essential. They can put you into a suicidal state faster than anything I know . . . Their songs really made it beautiful for me." Also an inspiration for one of her characters was a band called My Chemical Romance. She states, "It's someone . . . who just wants to go out and blow things up." See mind blowing information about the music industry and a shocking spirituality many are involved in.

Scaringly, Meyer's fictional character Edward took on the "terrifying" form of "real" spirit when it leapt from the pages of her saga and communicated with her in a dream. She says she had an additional dream after Twilight was finished when her vampire character Edward came to visit and speak to her. The Edward who visited her in the night told her she'd got it all wrong because he DID drink human blood, and could not "live" on ONLY animal blood as she wrote in the story. She said, "We had this conversation and he was terrifying." Conversation with spirits (saying they need human blood to suck!) and frightening dream visitations by spirits are part of occult communication. Meyer's spiritual experiences could well be influenced by her Mormon faith which allows for communication with the so-called "the dead"; indeed "the dead" of former generations are baptized into Mormonism in Mormon Temple ritual. Mormon founder Joseph Smith was "visited" by a communicating "angel" called Moroni, whose statue stands atop all Mormon Temples. This fallen angel of Mormonism gave Smith messages on which he formed his Mormon doctrine about prior civilizations, none of which have been discovered despite endless archeological digs to substantiate Mormons claims. Others Mormon teachings conflict with Christianity such as Mormonism's claim that Yahusha of the Scriptures is the half-brother of Satan. Mormons additionally believe numerous teachings about the spirits that oppose Bible truths and could help embellish Meyer's Twilight series.

In 2007, Stephenie Meyer wrote portions of a work titled, "Prom Nights from Hell," which is about supernatural events surrounding evil prom nights. On May 6, 2008, she released her adult novel, The Host, which is about "invading alien souls" that take over a person and get them to do what they want. This behavior is called demonic possession, a state Jesus came to set captives free from. Meyer's fiction "crosses over" to severe occult philosophy.

The Fans:

Twilighters (fans) are besotted with its influence and spell as witnessed on the Internet where they're encouraged to write their own "fan fiction" stories about Twilight characters. This is not harmless entertainment but rather a satanic ploy to engage fans to use spiritual imagination (taboo in Scripture) to conjure and create their own reality, a central belief of witchcraft.

Twilighters have a "Stephenie Meyer Day" on September 13th to honor the birthday of the character Bella Swan. They dress up like the characters in the book. View frenzied fans and the out of control craze on Nightline's coverage.

TWI-hards (fans) are obsessed with Twilight occult contents as Harry Potter fans were bewitched with its Wiccan instructions. Many don't realize occultism (the craving for hidden "wisdom" knowledge) has spiritual addiction power much like drugs demand a dependency.

Fans wear t-shirts displaying the character's sayings, and one such t-shirt reads, "Forbidden Fruit Tastes the Best."

Christian youth's involvement in the shocking abandonment of Yah's word should be of concern enough, but sadder still is that youth in general are being seduced to embrace Satan's lies and reap eternal damnation. Christians, rather than protecting youth, are feeding them to Satan who is known as the prowling lion (1 Pet. 5:8). Satan deceived Eve with the promise of "wisdom" (Gen. 3) and suggested Yahuah's forbidding was on grounds of meanness not loving concern. Satan continues his attack on the truth of Yahuah's Word and His essential Character of love (comparing it to erotic sex) targeting younger and younger Christian youth.

What Christian and other Religious Organizations are saying about the Twilight Series: The Catholic News Service has this to say of Edward the vampire: "Just because you're a vampire, it doesn't mean you can't be a gentleman." It continues to praise the vampire and ties one scene directly to the vampire appearing as an angel of light only to offer forbidden fruit just as Satan did so long ago in the Garden. "Soon after Bella first sees Edward, an optical illusion makes it appear as though he's sprouted angel's wings, but a later scene has them casually handling an apple symbolic of mutual temptation." The Catholic News Service doesn't warn of spiritual dangers but continues to whitewash the demonic theme of the movie saying it, "never takes itself too seriously, preferring instead to use its ill-matched couple's predicament to parody both adolescent awkwardness and teenage yearning." The reviewer concludes that the movie "Is acceptable for older teens."

The "Christian Stay at Home Moms" website praised the movie: "If you ask me I would be more willing to let my 13 year old daughter watch this movie than MTV because the relationship between the two main characters really is a healthy one. There is really not a whole lot of emphasis on being in a sexual relationship, and there are a couple of scenes where you see them just talking with each other. I was very impressed by the positive relationship between the two, I think it's good for teenagers to see that to be a couple you don't have to have sex and make out all the time--or at all!" This Christian stay at home mom needs to weigh all against Scripture as bottom line and not promote her 13-year old daughter to accept as approved the message of a vampire wanting to drink the blood of his girlfriend because the vampire is "good" and does not engage in sexual intercourse on screen (at least in this movie)? The reviewer concludes, "All in all I give this movie 3 out of 4 stars because I thought it was a great movie!"

This article or excerpt was posted on December 7, 2008@ 4:07 pm .

From: <http://carylmatrisciana.com/x2/>

It is no coincidence that the Twilight series has spawned T-shirts proclaiming that "Forbidden Fruit Tastes Best."

The US sets world record for flash mob zombies

November 1, 2011

The current world record is 4,700 dead corpses walking around in the streets.

The current record of 4,700 zombies is held by Seattle, but the Long Beach spooky counterparts were hungry to devour the old mark. Guinness officials were on hand for the festivities and will review data before making a decision.

Thousands of ghouls paraded around with hopes of setting the Guinness World record for most zombies on the move at one time.

Source: The Telegraph

The devil worship in Music is harmless for the kids right?

“lady gaga”

Here we have the alter set up with a “pure” sacrifice.

Notice the Ashra tree and the virgin owl get up... Remember when we thought Madonna's like a virgin performance was racy in 1984?

Madonna then and now – aka the Grand Priestess of the music industry –

The Superbowl is kind of like the Holy of Holies in America. I'll come at halfway of the "church experience" and I'm gonna have to deliver a sermon. It'll have to be very impactful."

Coincidence?

How many times does the music industry do this same imagery? They don't repeat things if they are not telegraphing it to the public in plain sight.

Looking completely demented, LG smears blood on her face like she is tasting it and now becomes a sacrifice to be "taken up"..

Notice how her cheeks are all puffed out- she has some thing in her mouth..

And then ofcourse the ending illuminating rays since she has been sacrified to the sun.

Right after her performance, Gaga appears dressed all in red, with her face completely covered in red. She is basically a walking, talking blood sacrifice. It represents the aftermath of fame, the hellish life that follows the sacrifice, the selling of the soul for success in the music industry.

“This is for God and the gays”

Pink's Masonic Initiation

There is no way a Mason could watch this performance without recalling his initiation into the First Degree. Here's a description by Mark Stavish:

"The candidate for initiation is stripped of all material possessions and dressed in a strange and peculiar garb (...). This includes a blindfold and a length of rope called a cable tow."

"The blindfold used represents secrecy, darkness and ignorance as well as trust. The candidate is led into the lodge room for initiation but is not able to see what is happening. He is bound about the waist and arm with the cable tow."

-Mark Stavish, Freemasonry: Rituals, Symbols and History of the Secret Society

The initiate is blindfolded and attached to a cord with the left breast and left leg exposed

Pink is blindfolded and bound with ropes. Her costume exposes her left breast, as is the case with Masonic initiates. Instead of having her left leg exposed, Pink's costume bears a diamond pattern which is very reminiscent of the floors in Masonic lodges.

Taylor Swift's Initiation

This scene is in fact Taylor Swift's initiation into what I call "The Circle of Chosen Artists". The pupil is humiliated in front of her peers and told that she is not worthy to be on the same stage as Beyonce, the queen of the ceremony. Almost all groups, fraternities and gangs carry out an initiation process to test the recruit's character, strength and worth. Swift's ordeal was to have Kanye ruin her first award ever and to be told that she didn't deserve this recognition. The rapper is known for bitching during award shows so he was the perfect candidate to make it all seem "unexpected".

Taylor Swift's Acceptance into the Order

"Can we try this again now?"

After Swift's public humiliation, Beyonce, the queen of the ceremony, calls her up on stage to let her "have her moment". She appears from backstage (as if awaiting her cue) in a red dress which is strikingly similar to Beyonce's. A reader of this site has noticed that, at the moment the two singers hug, a strange phrase appears on the screen behind them saying "RDFO IL 40 PRO DEL ATO". I have no idea what that means, but it was there. If you solve this enigma, be sure to post it in the comments. *Editor's note Pretty sure it means "Ilford Delta Pro film".

Is this a computer glitch or a coded message?

Taylor Swift being called on stage represents the fact that she has now been accepted as an equal to Beyoncé and has become one of the "chosen ones". The matching dresses also convey this sense of belonging to a new group. She has "passed the test" – the ordeal of being humiliated – and she can now reap the rewards of being an insider.

Taylor Swift at the Brit Awards: Yet Another Illuminati Ritual for the Masses

<http://vigilantcitizen.com/latestnews/taylor-swift-at-the-brit-awards-yet-another-illuminati-ritual/>

Mar 1st, 2013

Last November, I posted a short news article entitled Taylor Swift's Performance at the 2012 AMA's: A Typical Initiation Ritual where I described how it symbolically represented an occult initiation ritual. For the 2013 Brit Awards, Swift brought back that same symbolism as she performed again her single I Knew You Were Trouble. While the setting of the performance was different than the one of the AMA's, its symbolic meaning and the color code used was identical. Furthermore, the ritualistic symbolism of the entire thing was even more blatant.

As it was the case for her AMA performance, Swift begins her song dressed in a virginal white dress, symbolizing purity and innocence. She stands at the door of some kind of temple.

Swift stands at the door of a temple, signifying that she is not yet initiated. The burning fires emphasize the ritualistic aspect of the set while the horned head above the door hints that this temple is far from holy.

After dancing for a while in front of the temple, the doors open. The set then gets very fiery and the ritual begins.

The screen behind Swift now displays the “inside” of the temple. If you look closely at where the horned head used to be, there appears to be another horned head now...

Do you see it?...Or am I seeing things?

Looking at the screen from a distance (as if being one of the audience), it almost looks as if Baphomet was presiding over the whole thing. Or it might be an illusion...Or a calculated illusion...Not sure.

At one point, Taylor is surrounded by bunch of guys and emerges with a brand new outfit.

Taylor is now dressed in black, symbolizing the completion of her initiation. The “good girl gone bad” narrative is complete, once again. She lets her hair down and has a nastier attitude.

During her performance at the AMA’s, Swift also started singing with a white dress to end up in a sexier, black outfit. The fact that this exact change of costume color occurred again is proof that none of this is random. In fact, it symbolizes a very profound process and this ritualistic color code is used across the entertainment industry to underline occult meanings in performances.

Looking back at the beginning of her career, Swift was known for being very timid and down to earth. With the release of her last album, Swift embodied a new, feistier, nastier persona. This performance symbolically represents the same process, one that is apparently required to be in the good graces of the music industry. How many young female pop stars went from good girl to bad?

Some people who read my previous articles might ask: “Didn’t Taylor Swift get initiated during the 2009 VMA’s?”. Remember that these performances are not actual initiation rituals (which occur behind closed doors). Televised performances are meant to expose the public to the Illuminati’s rituals and symbolism in order to make it trendy and part of popular culture. As the occult elite knows all too well: The best place to hide something is in plain sight. Very Sad!

Coincidence?

Is this acceptable "entertainment" for Yah's Family and Children to be exposed to ? Is this what we are suppose to be spending our money on?

None of this is harmless. This desensitizes us to move the meter from "evil" to "not so bad" to "I enjoy it" and support these people by buying their music and going to their concerts. Evil imagery is a slippery slope. What is deemed acceptable on Halloween is now the norm in everyday entertainment. We only have ourselves to blame here. We have to know this is beyond the pale of goodness and moral behavior. I am not a prude. Anyone who knows me, knows I wanted to be in the music industry. Music was my life. I am so glad that I never crossed the line to where Yahuah could not keep His hand of protection on me and bring me back to Him. What a tragedy it would have been, to sell out for tinsle and flashing lights. We must encourage our children that the lifestyle of the rich and famous is short lived and the price will be more than they will want to pay. But if we don't warn them, who will? Whitney Houston? Michael Jackson? Kurt Cobain? Amy Winehouse? Too late for them, but each of them did send out a warning before they were killed. No one is listening.

We must be Set-Apart from all this corruption of mind, body and soul, otherwise there is no way to enter into Yahuah's family. We must choose to come out first. Then we can get on that narrow path. We can not be double minded or serve two masters. It is not easy. It will be painful. There will be persecution by family and friends. But if being a "stick in the mud" means you are standing tall above the dirt and filth, I think that is a better position to be in. At least it's a start in the cleansing process.