Studies with Scripture explaining the Covenant with Yahuah - what He expects as well as what He offers us as His children. There are chronological studies showing when they first showed up in Scripture and with amplification of Scripture one will find a whole new look for the Father of the Universe.

Our Methodology

The tricky thing about going chronological is that we get hints of an instruction way before it was written down in Exodus. This was a great eye opener as we went through Genesis. They knew of these things from somewhere. Adam and Hawah must have taught their children and now that the 365 books of Enoch are lost, we do not have an accurate picture of the first mention of these things.

We have chosen to deal with this by acknowledging the first mention of a subject but will not address it fully until the actual instruction is given. We want to recreate the feeling of starting from scratch. It seems to us that Yahuah watched mankind and as we progressed kept note of the things which caused us to stumble the most. It was then at Sinai that Yahuah was able to set in stone the things for us to guard against and remember that would keep us on the path. But we will see that the moral code was already in practice as well as some ceremonial things. How could it be otherwise? Everyone has had the information they needed to come to love and choose Yahuah, if He has chosen them. There are some things that prevent Him from choosing certain creations, so let us keep that in mind, even if we do not fully understand it.

In Part 15 of our journey in the book of Shemot/Exodus, we continue with our study of what it means to be in Covenant with Yahuah. In today's study we move on to the next instruction regarding how we treat each other and Yahuah. Today we look at bearing false witness and the wide range implication of this instruction! Without bearing false witness, which is also lying, someone like Bernie Madoff from our last study could not have pulled off his Ponzi scheme. Bearing false witness can be a matter of life and death is a very grave matter. In part A, we will be highlighting blistering examples of bearing false witness in a legal setting, in part 15B the court of Public opinion and Part 15C, bearing false witness against Yahuah in the religious court- from the pulpit- the most grievous action and aspect of this.

The Pattern

- Yahuah lovingly gives us instructions to follow diligently and carefully
- ❖ IF We seek to understand and return love to Yahuah by applying the instructions, and joyfully clinging to them and Him, knowing they are for our best interest...
- THEN Yahuah will diligently and lovingly protect and care for us until He calls us home.

The Pattern Of the Covenant Brings The Promise of Success

- When we get off the path we turn around, ask forgiveness and return to the path, determined to not repeat the error. Teshuva.
- Yahuah will diligently protect and care for us until He calls us home.

In our study 15 A on "not bearing false witness", we will be examining The Hebrew words and the consequences of ignoring this instruction. This is not something Yahuah takes lightly and neither should we. After all it was part of what caused Hawah (Eve) and Adam to fall. Also, the legal court aspect of this instruction.

As you can see looking at the Hebrew the words are out of order in English. That is due to Grammar and ease of understanding from Hebrew to English. The Samek at the end of the sentence means it is a complete thought. BLB also did not translate LA (lamed-Aleph) which in this case means “no” and the translators embellished with “thou shalt not”. Literally its “No you speak amongst/against neighbor witness false. The prefix and suffix letters help smooth it out.

Strong's H6030-6034

Anah- per the various points has a wide range of meanings but are connected. From being humbled, suppressing, deeply concerned, alternate or responsive singing. Something you act upon and even can mean sexual intercourse. The action is of returning to something repeatedly.

- The Lamed Aleph is a negative or No and a Tau prefix to the word is you will- so in the English it would be "You will (tau) not (Lamed Aleph).

- II. (Qal) to sing, utter tunefully
- III. (Qal) to dwell

Affliction is not an English word I would use here for 'anah unless the context was talking about afflicting someone else by telling a lie. I would add a word for it to modify which would be the word conscience.

The word for affliction is 'anah which can mean affliction but it is really more generally used for answering or responding, testifying and/or humbling.

His affliction was his conscience, the word for answer is 'anah which means to pay attention, to respond, to give a reply.

ענה H6031 & H6033

With a radical, but mutable or omissible, ה. The † general meaning of this extensive root seems to be, to act upon some person or thing, to affect, produce effects upon, or sufferings in some other, to act or speak with respect to some other, to return, give or send back.

I. In Kal, transitively, to act upon, effect. Hos. ii. 21, 22,—אענה I will affect or act upon the heavens, and they יענו shall affect the earth, and the earth תענה shall affect the corn, and the wine, and the oil, and they יענו shall affect Jezreel.

H6030 & H6032

III. The word denotes, as above observed, returning, reversion, replication. As a V. in Kal it generally signifies to reply, answer, to return, or speak in answer or reference to some other person or thing. Gen. xviii. 27. Deut. xix. 18. xxvi. 5. Ruth i. 21. Job iii. 2. Cant. ii. 10. Zech. iii. 4. iv. 4, 11. Also, to answer in singing, sing alternately. Exod. xv. 21. 1 Sam. xxi. 11. Comp. Exod. xxxii.

In context, Yahuah is saying do not falsely bring suffering upon someone by lying about them or a situation that involves them. Planting false evidence, stories, implying guilt on circumstantial evidence are a few examples.

A good example of H6031 & H6033 is the phrase "to make an example of". It carries the meaning of meting out harsher justice or consequence to deter others from doing the same action. But is that Torah justice? No it is not. One set of instructions for everyone and one set of consequences for everyone.

That is true justice.

In our current society this can happen to appease a mob mentality or to avoid social upheaval but it is still wrong. Here is a headline where Minnesota's AG was keenly aware of what a mob wanted but warned against this practice. He was very brave.

'Don't go heavy on him': Minnesota AG says judge should not make an example of Derek Chauvin when he sentences him on Friday because it's not about 'revenge'

- Chauvin, 45, is facing a maximum of 40 years in jail after he was convicted of second-degree unintentional murder, third-degree murder and manslaughter
- Minnesota AG Keith Ellison said he was satisfied to see Chauvin convicted
- But he added: 'I will admit, I felt a little bad for the defendant ... He's a human'
- 'The State never wanted revenge against Derek Chauvin,' the AG told CBS

Do Not Bear False Witness

Dennis Prager

Dec 01, 2014

The Ninth of the Ten Instructions is "You shall not give false witness against your neighbor." This means two things: "Do not lie when testifying in court." And, "Do not lie." Period. Remember, in order for an action to be prohibited or demanded in the Ten Instructions it has to be fundamental to making civilization. As important as donkey riding might have been when the Ten Instructions were given, the Ten Instructions contains no Instruction to ride your donkey responsibly. A society can survive bad donkey drivers. But it cannot survive contempt for truth -- whether inside or outside a courtroom. If people testify falsely in a courtroom, there can be no justice. And without even the hope of justice, there can be no civilization. The Hebrew Bible was so adamant on this subject that the punishment imposed on a witness who gave false testimony was the same as the punishment that would have been meted out to the accused had the false testimony been believed. In the case of a crime that would be punishable by death, therefore, the false witness was liable to be put to death. But the Instruction is clearly concerned with truth generally, not only in a courtroom.

<https://www.prageru.com/video/do-not-bear-false-witness/>

Both the great twelfth century Jewish commentator, Ibn Ezra, and one of the most influential biblical scholars of the 20th century, Brevard Childs of Yale University, agreed that the commandment was about truth-telling generally. As Childs pointed out, if the Ten Instructions were solely concerned with truth and falsehood in a courtroom, it would have added words such as "in court."

There are many important values in society, but truth is probably the most important. Goodness and compassion may be the most important values in the micro, or personal, realm. But in the macro, or societal, realm, truth is even more important than compassion or kindness. Virtually all the great societal evils, such as African slavery, Nazism and Communism, have been based on lies.

There were slave traders, Nazis and Communists who were compassionate in their personal lives, but all of them told, and most of them believed, some great lie that enabled them to participate in a great evil. Black slavery was made possible in large measure by the lie that blacks were innately inferior to whites. The Holocaust would have been impossible without tens of millions of people believing the lie that Jews were inherently inferior to so-called Aryans. And Communist totalitarianism was entirely based on lies. That's why the Soviet Union's Communist Party newspaper was named Pravda, the Russian word for "Truth" -- because the Party, not objective reality, was the source of truth.

There is only so much evil that can be done by individual sadists and sociopaths.

In order to murder millions, vast numbers of otherwise normal, even decent, people must believe lies. Mass evil is committed not because a vast number of people seek to be cruel, but because they are fed lies that convince them that what is evil is actually good. However, one big obstacle to truth-telling is that believers in causes, including good causes, that don't place truth as a central value, will be very tempted to lie on behalf of their cause.

There are many examples. In the 1980's, to promote the cause of the homeless, the leading activist on their behalf, claimed that there were 2 to 3 million homeless in the United States. Years later he admitted on national television that he had to come up with a number and made that one up. The real number was between 250,000 and 350,000.

Similarly, groups in the fight against cancer were caught greatly exaggerating the number of women who get breast cancer each year. Why? In order to frighten more women into getting mammograms. Again, lying on behalf of a good cause. Why is lying on behalf of good causes destructive? Because if we don't know what's true, how and where do we know how to properly allocate society's limited resources? And in the worst cases, it distorts society's priorities, and therefore does great harm.

<https://www.prageru.com/video/do-not-bear-false-witness/>

The Ten Instructions is there to warn all of us that, with very few exceptions, such as the immediate saving of innocent life, no cause is more important than truth-telling. The Ten Instructions is the greatest list of instructions ever devised for creating a good society. But such a society cannot be created or maintained if it is not based on truth.

I'm Dennis Prager.

The truth is still the truth, even if no one believes it.
A lie is still a lie,
even if everyone
believes it.

How This Con Man's Wild Testimony Sent Dozens to Jail, and 4 to Death Row

Paul Skalnik is a grifter and criminal. Now a man may be executed because of his dubious testimony. Why did prosecutors rely on him as an informant?

The remarkable story of Paul Skalnik, a grifter, imposter and jailhouse informant who testified or gave information in at least 37 cases in one Florida county alone — and helped to send four men to death row. So effective was Skalnik in the courtroom that Pinellas County prosecutors — who knew he made a living by fraud and deception — put him on the stand again and again.

<https://hillmanfoundation.org/hillman-prizes/2020-hillman-prize-magazine-journalism>

Colloff was tipped by an attorney working on the appeal of a Florida death row inmate named James Dailey. At Dailey's 1987 trial, the most damaging testimony came from Skalnik, who was then an inmate. Skalnik was the "closer" for the prosecution, the witness who could smooth over a case's inconsistencies, nudging jurors past reasonable doubt. Remarkably, he repeatedly claimed that inmates had spontaneously, and often against all odds, confessed their crimes to him. Prosecutors returned to him repeatedly and in return, they afforded Skalnik favorable treatment and shorter sentences, benefits that jurors never heard about. Florida prosecutors concealed the extent to which they worked with Skalnik and insisted that he never received anything in exchange for his testimony.

Skalnik passed himself off as a decorated fighter pilot, a former college football star, a high-rolling oilman, a luxury home builder, a defense attorney, an aide to the speaker of the Texas House, and a dying cancer patient. Still, prosecutors were willing protect their star witness — even looking the other way after he molested a 12-year-old girl and allowing him to go on to victimize a 16-year-old, both of whom Colloff managed to find and persuade to go on the record.

In most states, prosecutors' use of jailhouse informants is not tracked or regulated. The deals they receive are rarely made public. Skalnik's shocking story is a powerful example of why the system must change. "False Witness" is now recommended reading for all DA's and it's being used as an educational tool for state legislatures and prosecutors on limiting and regulating the use of these dubious witnesses. "False Witness" draws on thousands of pages of police reports, arrest records, jail logs, probation and parole records, pretrial interviews and correspondence, as well as voluminous court records back to the 1970s, in both Florida and Texas, from nearly 40 criminal cases.

Colloff interviews dozens of people who crossed paths with Skalnik, including men who served time with him; victims of his crimes; defendants he testified against; ex-wives, former stepchildren and ex-fiancées; as well as prosecutors, law enforcement officers and defense attorneys. Along the way, she filed more than 50 public records requests for documents.

I think what people don't understand about what we call jailhouse informants is, that they're people who are being held in jail who want to get out, who are incentivized to lie. They will say what they need to say to win their freedom and that's resulted in numerous wrongful convictions and numerous people being sent even to death row on that false testimony. The use of jailhouse informants is done in all 50 states. It's a pervasive part of the criminal justice system and it's not an abstract issue. We have people such as James Daley who's sitting on Florida's death row because of the testimony of the jailhouse informant.

I found it shocking the degree to which prosecutors were willing to put witnesses on the stand and vouch for witnesses to a jury who they had to know were at best extremely unreliable witnesses and most likely lying and I saw it again and again and again. I have come to the conclusion that jailhouse informant simply should not be in American courtrooms. There are too much of the danger to the system.

Two men, similar crime. One sentenced to die, the other gets life in prison | Editorial

By SUN SENTINEL EDITORIAL BOARD

SOUTH FLORIDA SUN SENTINEL | MAR 24, 2021 AT 6:05 AM

James Dailey was convicted of a rape-murder in Pinellas County. Robert DuBoise was convicted of similar charges in Hillsborough County. Both were sentenced to death. There were no eyewitnesses and no physical evidence except what a dentist opined were DuBoise's bite marks on the victim's body. To convict them, prosecutors relied on dubious jailhouse informants — “snitches” in prison parlance — who claimed that the defendants had confessed to them.

DuBoise is free, totally exonerated, while Dailey remains on death row, having lost multiple appeals.

DuBoise's jury had recommended life. Circuit Judge Harry Coe, whose nickname was “Hanging Harry,” imposed death instead. On direct appeal, the Supreme Court took DuBoise off death row by reducing his sentence to life. The vote was 4-3.

Dailey told me something that he'd thought back to many times over the years: He had been moved from one cell to another shortly before his trial was slated to begin. Jail logs, in which inmates' cell assignments are recorded, confirm that on May 1, 1987 — just 18 days before Dailey's scheduled trial — Dailey was moved from the lower G wing of the jail to the upper G wing, where Skalnik was held. “Right away, I told the sergeant, I said, ‘Get me out of here,’” Dailey told me. “This is a damn setup.” Skalnik claimed to have elicited Dailey's confession just two days later. Five days after that, he was talking to the state attorney's office. It was one of many troubling facts that the jury in Dailey's trial never heard.

Three years later, however, it merely sent Dailey's case back to the trial court for a new sentencing hearing at which he was condemned again. The Supreme Court let the second sentence stand. Dailey's co-defendant, who was sentenced to life, had been telling people he committed the crime alone, but has refused to say so under oath in court. Two men, one crime. One is sentenced to die, the other gets life in prison. That's as disparate as disparity can get.

The courts, including Florida's, are primed to uphold convictions. They have a fixation with "finality." Once they've made up their minds, that's that. For an innocent person who has lost every state and federal appeal, the last resort in Florida is a conviction review unit. But such units are left to the discretion of Florida's prosecutors, only five of whom have seen the need for them.

That's another example of how discretion tilts the scales of justice. DuBoise had the benefit of a conviction review unit. Dailey didn't.

Pamela Colloff  @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

At James Dailey's trial, a prosecutor assured the jury that Skalnik was "honest" and "reliable." A detective also attested to his truthfulness. Skalnik told jurors that he was not getting anything in return for his testimony. 7/

Pamela Colloff  @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

Jurors never knew that Skalnik had a powerful motive to lie. He was released FIVE DAYS after Dailey was sentenced to death. A Florida Parole and Probation Commission memo stated that his release was "due to his cooperation with the State Attorney's Office" in Dailey's trial. 8/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

There was plenty of evidence that Dailey's housemate, Jack Percy, killed 14-year-old Shelly Boggio. In fact, prosecutors had previously told a judge that "no evidence exists that Percy was not the main actor in this child's brutal murder." 9/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

Percy told cops he drove Boggio to the lovers' lane where she was killed. He admitted to stabbing her at least once, and provided details about the crime that were known only to investigators. But he insisted that it was Dailey who was the actual killer. 10/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

Percy, who had a history of arrests for violence against women, has previously suggested—but never explicitly said—that he killed Boggio. Yet today he is serving a life sentence, with the possibility of parole. Dailey is on death row. 11/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

Dailey has no history of violence against women. He was with Percy for only part of the night in question. He has always maintained his innocence and says he was asleep when Percy last took Boggio out. Nothing—other than Percy's word—places him at the scene of the crime. 12/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

The state attorney's office in Clearwater claims all the info Skalnik provided was independently verified & that prosecutors never granted him leniency. Skalnik, currently in a nursing home in Texas, insists he always told the truth. He proudly told me, "I never lost a case." 14/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

To hear Skalnik tell it, men in jail loved to confess to him—men who were awaiting trial and had everything to lose. In Pinellas County, Florida, he testified or provided information in at least 37 different criminal cases. Four of those defendants were sentenced to death. 5/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

Because Skalnik was a known snitch, he was held in protective custody, in a cell where he was shielded from inmates who might want to do him harm. Despite this impediment, he claimed men kept confessing to him—as they walked by his cell, or through the fence in the rec yard. 6/

Pamela Colloff ✓ @pamelacolloff · Dec 5, 2019

I hope you'll read my story, co-published by @propublica and @NYTmag, about Skalnik and the role he played in Dailey's case. Then ask yourself: did Dailey—and the other men Skalnik testified against, some of whom remain behind bars—receive fair trials? nytimes.com/2019/12/04/mag...

Dailey understood that any chance of proving his innocence was lost when Skalnik took the stand. "I never talked to Paul Skalnik in my life," he told me, his voice rising. "We all knew he was an infamous snitch and an ex-police officer. We knew everything about him. We knew how many guys he had snitched on. There wasn't any hiding the fact. The officers would tell us! The officers that worked in the dang jail, they'd say, 'Don't talk to him.'

Opinion by Tampa Bay Times ✓

@TBTimes_Opinion

"Based on the known history of informant convict felon Paul Skalnik, I do not see the fairness in executing James Dailey," says a retired special agent in charge of the FBI's Jacksonville division.

"His guilt is certainly not beyond a reasonable doubt."

Paul Skalnik Stood By His Testimony On His Death Bed in 2020

Coverage By Shreya Bhatt — October 24, 2020

Paul Skalnik, left, testified that James Dailey confessed to fatally stabbing a 14-year-old girl shortly before Dailey's 1987 murder trial. It was a circumstantial case in which there was scant evidence. Dailey, right, now faces execution in Florida. (Eli Durst, special to The New York Times Magazine)

Paul Skalnik, a convicted con man whose testimony sent four people to death row, died of natural causes in March, 2020, following a lengthy stay in a nursing home in Texas.

Skalnik briefly served as a police officer in the early 1970s and retired after a series of creditors caught up to him for writing bad checks, according to a 1987 article in the Tampa Bay Times. He became a private eye, and when he was serving time in jail for theft and fraud charges, he told investigators he was collecting confessions from other inmates, including in cases that would eventually send suspects to death row.

'I was angry, and I sent it out': Woman admits she fabricated a claim about writing an anonymous letter that accused Brett Kavanaugh of sexual assault

David Choi Nov 2, 2018, 8:31 PM

Munro-Leighton, who said she called Congress multiple times to oppose Kavanaugh's nomination to the Supreme Court, also admitted she "just wanted to get attention" and that her actions were "just a ploy."

"I was angry, and I sent it out," Munro-Leighton said of her sexual assault allegation.

"Such acts are not only unfair; they are potentially illegal," Grassley added. "It is illegal to make materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements to Congressional investigators."

Grassley's office also noted Munro-Leighton is a "left-wing activist" from Kentucky who is "decades older" than Kavanaugh.

Additionally, a Rhode Island man who initially claimed Kavanaugh sexually assaulted a woman on a boat in Newport in 1985 was referred to the Justice Department. He ultimately recanted his accusation.

Julie Swetnick and her attorney Michael Avenatti were referred for a criminal investigation by the Senate Judiciary Committee chairman following her allegations against Brett Kavanaugh. (Michael Avenatti via AP)

For criminal investigation regarding a potential “conspiracy” to provide false statements to Congress and obstruct its investigation into the sexual misconduct allegations levied against Kavanaugh.

There's every reason to believe that radical leftist, Democrat Senator Kamala Harris had a hand in Munro-Leighton's claims because she was the person who brought Munro-Leighton's letter to the committee's attention.

The Pay off??

Kamala Harris @KamalaHarris · 1h
 I sat through those hearings. Brett Kavanaugh lied to the U.S. Senate and most importantly to the American people. He was put on the Court through a sham process and his place on the Court is an insult to the pursuit of truth and justice.
 He must be impeached.

NEW LIFE

We have given you some ranging applications of "Do not continue to bear false witness". As we have seen the consequences go far beyond what any could have imagine. Death, despair, prison, humiliation and shame. No one gets away with it forever.

As we let this percolate in our spirits, let us be broad minded in identifying what this is. Every time we speak we are giving a witness to something! We must remember this! The larger habitual offenses create wars, famines, economic, political, medical and societal disasters. If we are quick to identify if a person has this false witness character flaw, maybe our future will hold a brighter promise.

Shabbat Shalom שבת שלום

- Gen 2:2-3 Shabbat – The seventh day of the week. We cease from doing normal business. Setting the day apart out of respect for what Yahuah has created. Created for the specific function of not being like any other day, it is a favored day that is exalted by Yahuah. A gift for intimacy with Him.
- Exod 16:25 And Mosheh said, “Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to יהוה , today you do not find it in the field. 26 “Gather it six days, but on the seventh day, which is the Sabbath, there is none.”
- Exod 20:8 “Remember with the strength of steel, as a strong Covenant mark את the Sabbath day 7th day of the week, to set it apart (as separate to Yahuah).

Shabbat Shalom שבת שלום

- Exod 20:9 “Six days you labor, and shall do all your business,
- Exod 20:10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath of יהוה your Eternal. You do not do any business – you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates.
  - Exod 20:11 “For in six days יהוה made as a strong Covenant mark אֵת, the heavens and as a strong Covenant mark אֵת, as a strong Covenant mark אֵת, the earth, as a strong Covenant mark אֵת, the sea, and as a strong Covenant mark אֵת, all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore יהוה blessed-putting divine favor as a strong Covenant mark אֵת, on the Sabbath day and set it apart.

CONSEQUENCES

- Do not ingest and live off the evil energy, food, knowledge of this world as it leads to death. Feed on what Yahuah has provided. Gen 2-16-17
- Woman will now worry about conception and have pain at childbirth. Gen 3:16
- Woman will now have her husband rule over her even though she will not want that. That is the consequence of Hawah's actions. Women must accept this just and righteous judgement. Gen 3:16
- Mankind will now have to earn what he eats out of the ground. Gen 3:17
- The ground was cursed to not produce so abundantly for man, to be the vehicle that Yahuah uses to met out this consequence. Although today in modern societies most men do not toil the field- a few do that, most other men toil for money to buy what comes from the field.
- No escaping that we have to die the first death. Return to ash. Gen 3:18
- We are forever banished forever from the original garden. Gen 3:23-24
- Our life span was reduced to no more than 120 years. Gen 6:3

CONSEQUENCES

- The consequence of sin, once it reaches the point of no return is total destruction. Gen 6:5-7
- Corruption of the Flesh (DNA, hybrids, AI,) and violence brings the judgement of total destruction from Yahuah Gen 6:11-13
- Yahuah Himself brought floodwaters on the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life from under the heavens – all that is on the earth is to die due to corruption of the flesh and violence. Gen 6:17
- Gen 11:8 Yahuah scatters the people for profaning and trying to usurp Him.
- Gen 12:3 “And I shall ..... curse him who curses you (Abram).
- Gen 17:14 “So an uncircumcised male, who is not circumcised כּ as a strong covenant mark, in the flesh of his foreskin, he shall be cut off- separated from his people – בּ -Behold-pay strong attention to this sign- as he has broken My Covenant.”

CONSEQUENCES

- Gen 19:13 “For we are going to destroy את as a strong Covenant mark this place, because the cry against them has grown great את as a strong Covenant mark before the face of יהוה who sent us . יהוה will destroy it.” Gen 19:23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Tso'ar. 19:24 And יהוה rained brimstone of sulphur and fire on Sedom and Amarah, את as a strong Covenant mark from יהוה out of the heavens. 19:25 Then He overthrew את as a strong Covenant mark those inhabitants, and את as a strong Covenant mark the whole plain, and את as a strong Covenant mark all the inhabitants of the cities, and the vegetation on the ground.
- Exod 3:8 “And I have come down to deliver them from the hand of the Mitsrites, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Kena'anites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Yebusites.

CONSEQUENCES

- Exod 4:22 “And you will say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus said “ , יהוה Yah’shara’al is My son, My first-born, 23 so I say to you, let My son go to serve Me. But if you refuse to let him go, see, I am killing your son, your first-born.”

- Gen 4:7 “If you do well, is there not acceptance? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should master it.”

HOW TO BE BLESSED BY YAHUAH

- Be set Apart in your walk and Walk with Yahuah on His path. Gen 6:5-7
- Be seen by Yahuah that you are righteous before Me in this generation. Gen 7:1
- Gen 12:3 “And I shall bless those who bless you (Abram),....And in you (Abram) all the clans of the earth shall be blessed.”
- Gen 15:6 Then he (Abram) had cause to believe (Ah-main) in יהוה, and accounted, determined the value of it to Him (Yahuah) for righteousness.
- Gen 21:4 And Abraham circumcised his son Yah’shaq when he was eight days old, as Yahuah had instructed him.

PROPHECIES

- Gen 3:15 “And I will cause to occur enmity (hostile mind or intention) between you (the enchanter) and the woman, and between your seed (offspring) and her seed (offspring). He shall crush your head, and you shall bruise His heel.”
- Gen 11:8 Yahuah scatters the people for profaning and trying to usurp Him. But as He takes His hand of protection away, we see this very issue coming back into play now in the end times.
- Exod 3:19 “But I realize indeed, the sovereign of Mitsrayim will not permit  as a strong covenant mark, you to travel, not even by a strong, severe or violent hand.

PROPHECIES

- Exod 3:20 “So then I shall stretch out, אֶת as a strong covenant mark, My hand and strike, kill and conquer, אֶת as a strong covenant mark, Mitsrayim with all My astounding hardships producing great awe, which I shall do in its midst. And afterward, therefore he will send אֶת as a strong covenant mark you away.
- Exod 3:21 “And I shall give אֶת as a strong covenant mark, this people favour in the eyes of the Mitsrites. And it will come to exist, that when you travel, you will not travel empty-handed
- Exod 12:35 And the children of Yah’shara’al did according to the word of Mosheh, and they asked from the Mitsrites objects of silver, and objects of gold, and garments.
- Exod 12:36 And אֶת- gave אֶת- as a strong covenant mark, the paternal kin favour in the eyes of the Mitsrites, so that they gave them what they asked, and they escaped אֶת- as a strong covenant mark, the Mitsrites.

Our Statement of Trust in Yahuah

10. We will trust Yahuah and not complain when He brings into our lives challenging circumstances but will ask for guidance from Him.

11. We will trust that Yahuah is looking after His sheep better than we can, so we do not have to feel compelled to correct or grumble against a Covenant Family Member. If they need our help, Yahuah will lead them to us to ask for it.

12. We agree to trust in Yahuah's Covenant plan and will learn all we can about them so we can stay on His path.

13. We agree when we enter into a Marriage Covenant that we do not rush into it and seek to understand and trust the pattern that Yahuah has set inside it. A pattern of how to treat each other and Him.

Our Statement of Trust in Yahuah

14. We will trust Yahuah when He asks us to take our rightful positions, to be able to function as He has planned from the beginning.

15. We will be on guard to not eat food that will change our DNA or that does not have His original DNA coding in them. These are Genetically Modified plants and animals.

16. We trust that when Yahuah asks us not to eat of the blood it is for a very good reason.

17. Whatever we have done before we knew You, Yahuah we trust that there will be forgiveness if we teshuva and repent. We will hold the sanctity of life as precious and will never take the opinion that the murder of an innocent is not without dire consequences to those who do this. We pray they will see the eternal consequences of their actions and repent. We are in Your image and thus to murder is to make light of your creation.

Our Statement of Trust in Yahuah

18. When Yahuah when He says that He will honor His promises of the Covenant -the blessings and the consequences of His justice will be taken care of in His proper time.

19. Now that Yahuah is allowing evil to be united and gather under one language of globalism, we will trust in Him that He of course saw this and has made provision for us.

20. We will not forget that because of the amazingly righteous people who have gone before us, Abraham in particular we receive our blessing. He is a great example of doing what Yahuah asks without question of a deep trust and love. It is our task and to our honor to follow his example.

Our Statement of Trust in Yahuah

21. When we trust Yahuah with our everything, we give to Him the highest praise we can give Him.
