Our Methodology

The tricky thing about going chronological is that we get hints of an instruction way before it was written down in Exodus. This was a great eye opener as we went through Genesis. They knew of these things from somewhere. Adam and Hawah must have taught their children and now that the 365 books of Enoch are lost, we do not have an accurate picture of the first mention of these things.

We have chosen to deal with this by acknowledging the first mention of a subject but will not address it fully until the actual instruction is given. We want to recreate the feeling of starting from scratch. It seems to us that Yahuah watched mankind and as we progressed kept note of the things which caused us to stumble the most. It was then at Sinai that Yahuah was able to set in stone the things for us to guard against and remember that would keep us on the path. But we will see that the moral code was already in practice as well as some ceremonial things. How could it be otherwise? Everyone has had the information they needed to come to love and choose Yahuah, if He has chosen them. There are some things that prevent Him from choosing certain creations, so let us keep that in mind, even if we do not fully understand it.

As always, anything written in comic sans font, we inserted in articles as corrections or are our narration.

In Part 16 of our journey in the book of Shemot/Exodus, we finish our study of the Covenant Instructions in Chronological order-for now . This last instruction is the root of all the other warnings. Murder, stealing, adultery, lying, giving false testimony. It is also the issue that started all our trouble in the first place. Shatan coveted Yahuah's seat on the throne. And if he cannot get people to worship him instead of Yahuah then it is the adage of "If I can't have them, nobody will." Of course he really does not want us. He hates us. But we have come to realize he wants bits and parts of us. Kind of like stealing a car and stripping it for parts. That is what Shatan is doing as he entices man to change his DNA from what Yahuah created, to some horrific hybrid of evil in his likeness. Talk about delusions of grandeur.

The Pattern

- Yahuah lovingly gives us instructions to follow diligently and carefully
- ❖ IF We seek to understand and return love to Yahuah by applying the instructions, and joyfully clinging to them and Him, knowing they are for our best interest...
- THEN Yahuah will diligently and lovingly protect and care for us until He calls us home.

The Pattern Of the Covenant Brings The Promise of Success

- When we get off the path we turn around, ask forgiveness and return to the path, determined to not repeat the error. Teshuva.

Part 15 we looked at the wide canopy that "neighbor" falls under. The same is with this instruction. Neighbor is not just the people living next door to us. It is neighboring countries, states, peoples and Yahuah. But once a neighbor by this definition turns into an enemy of Yahuah then that is a whole different story and He has and will lead us to what the appropriate action is.

A false witness will not go unpunished,

lies will not go free.

HEBREW WORD STUDY – DELIGHT IN
DESIRE – CHAMED דחמד Cheth Mem

Pronunciation

We highly recommend this website and we use it often to get more insight into Hebrew words. We always learn little tid-bits that completely change the way we look at words in the verses because Chaim adds to the meaning, cultural insights of the time. As always use discernment but it is a great resource to look at often. We are very grateful to be able to utilize his knowledge as we incorporate it into our own studies. The Comic sans font is what we have embellished.

If mules or gimmels were to be more highly prized than donkeys chamor in Biblical times then why does the instruction in Exodus 20 direct us to not covet our neighbors mules or gimmels rather than chamors or donkeys? An even better question would be why does Yahuah even list the things we are not to covet?

Pronunciation

kham-ore'

It does not give a list of things not to steal, it just says don't steal. I mean my neighbor doesn't even have an ox or donkey and I certainly would not covet his pet pit bull dog Sparky.

I believe the answer lies in the Hebrew word for covet. It is the word chamed which is closely related to the word chamor, or donkey. It actually carries the same Semitic root and would suggest that there is a play on words. The chamor (donkey) in its verbal form means to be agitated, to ferment or to be obstinate. That is a good description of a donkey. Actually, the word chamor is sometimes used for wine. The old saying should be rendered as stubborn as a donkey, not as a mule. The word chamed (covet) means an object of desire or something in which you delight. I once heard a Jewish grandmother refer to her granddaughter as her little chamed - someone she desired to be with. So, when we are directed not to covet, it is more than just to desire something that belongs to our neighbor but we are not even to delight in something owned by our neighbor, if we are tempted by that desire to have that specific thing, to steal it. Taking something that is not ours legally as well.

Pronunciation

khaw-mad'

It seems the instruction runs from the most important possession of your neighbor to the least important. It starts with not coveting his wife to his manservant and maidservant to his ox and finally his chamor, the thing that is least value in his household. That is where we might find a play on words. We are not to chamed (delight, desire) something that is chamor (that which is the least valuable). How many times have you heard someone say, “Well, he will never miss it anyways.” “He has a millions dollars in the bank, he will never miss the thousand I can con him out of.”

kham-ore'

When we see the list of the Ten Instructions it often just says, “You shalt not covet.” But that is not what Yahuah is saying. It is ok to covert, chamed (delight, desire), like that Jewish grandmother chamed her granddaughter. What we are instructed to not do is chamed (delight, desire) something that belongs to our neighbor even that which is of the least value, causing you to seek to own it.

Well, at least I have no problem in that department with Sparky the Wonder dog.

History & Reconstruction

There are two possibilities for the original Early Semitic pictograph for this letter, the picture of a fish -  and a picture of a door - . The Modern Hebrew name for this letter is dalet and means "door." The word dalet is a derivative of the parent root dal also meaning "door." The Arabic name for this letter is dal giving support to the parent root as the original name. As the Hebrew word for a "fish" is dag, it is unlikely that the  is the pictograph for this letter but, rather the .

AN ACT OF DESPERATION

It is hard to get away from the Garden as we think of this word for so many reasons. Chaim explained that this word is about an object of desire or something we delight in. Dennis provided the insight that this is about guarding our thoughts against taking something that belongs to someone else.

We have talked before about the rule of first mention when looking at a word to get meanings in Scripture. Guess where this is first mentioned!

Gen 2:9 And out of the ground יהוה Eternal made every tree grow that is (chamed) pleasant to the sight and good for food, with the tree of life in the midst of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Gen 3:6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was (tah-av-aw') pleasant to the eyes, and a tree (chamed) desirable to make one wise, and she took of its fruit and ate. And she also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

So Yahuah made every tree grow that is (chamed) pleasant to the sight and good for food and the tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil also was good for food, that it was pleasant (tah-av-aw') to the eyes, but that it was also a tree (chamed) desirable to make one wise. The other tree's fruit was just nourishing to the body. The forbidden tree gave the thought of desiring wisdom they did not possess that belonged to Yahuah. He did not give them permission to have it, thus this word changed to the negative of chamed.

It came to mind when looking this up that when Yahuah told them about this tree, it was not recorded He spoke of not even touching the tree- it is only recorded of Hawah relaying to the influencer what she knew about the instructions regarding the tree.

Pronunciation
aw-vaw'

Pronunciation

Hawah made a huge mistake that is a given, but you have to ask a question. At this point in the conversation, the influencer just asked “Is it true that Eternal has said, ‘Do not eat of every tree of the garden’?” When she answers that “We are to eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden, but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Eternal has said, ‘Do not eat of it, nor touch it, lest you die.’ ”

Questions:

- At this point in time did Hawah even know how to lie?
- Could it be possible they were told to not touch the tree and it was not recorded?
- Was it possible to pick the fruit without touching the tree?

I have heard quite a few preachers call her out for “adding to the Scripture” (gosh pot calling the kettle black). But we don’t think she did. Why can’t this be just more information than was provided in Chapter 2. We see that all the time. So why does this matter?

There is something interesting about the words chosen for covet in her actions.

This was no ordinary fruit tree with apples. This was, per the Hebrew was a tree with a doorway into perhaps another dimension where evil could exist. A dimension that could separate Yahuah from Hawah and the Adam because Yahuah cannot settle down or live in a place of evil. His Ruach can communicate with us but we are separated from Him from the way the first couple had experienced Him. This place and the knowledge about it was not for them-yet. It was not for her to desire as her own, the knowledge belonged to Yahuah.

<https://www.ancient-hebrew.org/ancient-alphabet/aleph.htm>

..”that it was (tah-av-aw’) pleasant to the eyes, and a tree (chamed) desirable to make one wise”..

Adding to that, the play on words in the same verse for the pictograph of chamed- we again see crossing a wall or barrier. Of course the influencer was blocking the view of the evil so she could only see what was dazzling and pleasant. Much like where she was- only different. This place held secret knowledge.

A large, moss-covered tree trunk with a small arched doorway and a window, set in a lush green forest. The tree's roots are thick and spread out across the ground, covered in vibrant green moss. The background is a dense forest of tall, thin trees with green foliage.

How many times has man been told to eat the Word of Yahuah for knowledge? Is it so far fetched that this held the words of Yahuah for them at another time when they were ready to fully digest it for proper nourishment of His word?

- Ezekiel 2:8—3:4
Ezekiel ate the scroll and spoke with Yahuah's words,
- Revelation 10:8-11
John ate the scroll and prophesied:
- Jer 15:16 a Your words were found and I ate them, / And Your word became to me / The gladness and joy of my heart"
- Psa 119-103 How sweet to my taste has Your word been, More than honey to my mouth!

As a matter of habit, let us look at the family of Hebrew words for tah-av-aw to gain more insight.

Gen 3:22 And יהוה Eternal said, “See, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever...”

Gen 3:23 so יהוה Eternal sent him out of the garden of Ėden to till the ground from which he was taken,

Gen 3:24 and He drove the man out. And He placed kerubim at the east of the garden of Ėden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

They got what they coveted but was it worth the price they paid by disrespecting Yahuah? Obviously the threat of death (Eternal death) was not enough of a hindrance or they at that point did not believe Yahuah. They had to know the concept of death or Yahuah would be in error by not explaining the full extent of the consequence.

Eze 16:1 Again the word of יהוה came to me, saying, Eze 16:2 “Son of man, make known to Yerushalayim her abominations,

Eze 16:3 and say, ‘Thus said the Master יהוה to Yerushalayim, “Your origin and your birth are from the land of Kena’an. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

Eze 16:4 “As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water for cleansing, and you were not rubbed with salt at all, nor wrapped in cloth at all.

Eze 16:5 “No eye felt sorry for you, to do any of these for you, to have compassion on you. But you were thrown out into the open field, to the loathing of your life on the day you were born.

Eze 16:6 “Then I passed by you and saw you trampled down in your own blood, and I said to you in your blood, ‘Live!’ And I said to you in your blood, ‘Live!’

Eze 16:7 “I have let you grow like a plant in the field. And you are grown and are great, and you come in the finest ornaments. – breasts were formed, your hair grew, and you were naked and bare.

Eze 16:8 “Again I passed by you and looked upon you and saw that your time was the time of love. And I spread My skirt over you and covered your nakedness. And I swore an oath to you and entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine,” declares the Master יהוה.

Eze 16:9 “And I washed you in water, and I washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil.

Eze 16:10 “And I dressed you in embroidered work and gave you sandals of leather. And I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk.

Eze 16:11 “And I adorned you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your wrists, and a chain on your neck.

Eze 16:12 “And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a crown of adorning on your head.

Eze 16:13 “Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your dress was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, and honey, and oil. And you were exceedingly pretty, and became fit for royalty.

Eze 16:14 “And your name went out among the nations because of your loveliness, for it was perfect, by My splendor which I had put on you,” declares the Master יהוה.

Eze 16:15 “But you trusted in your own loveliness, and whored because of your name, and poured out your whorings on everyone passing by who would have it.

Eze 16:16 “And you took some of your garments and made multi-coloured high places for yourself, and whored on them – which should not have come about, nor shall it be.

Eze 16:17 “And you took your splendid adornments, of My gold and My silver that I gave you, and made for yourself images of a male and whored with them.

Eze 16:18 “And you took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set My oil and My incense before them.

Eze 16:19 “And My food which I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey which I fed you, you set it before them as sweet incense – and so it was,” declares the Master יהוה.

Eze 16:20 “And you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to Me, and these you slaughtered as food to them. Were your whorings a small matter,

Eze 16:21 that you have slain My children and gave them up to them by causing them to pass through the fire?

Eze 16:22 “And in all your abominations and whorings you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, trampled down in your blood.

Eze 16:23 “Then it came to be after all your evil – ‘Woe, woe to you!’ declares the Master – יהוה

Eze 16:24 that you also built an arched place for yourself, and made a high place in every street for yourself.

Eze 16:25 “You built your high places at the head of every way, and made your loveliness to be loathed. And you parted your feet to everyone who passed by, and increased your whorings. Eze 16:26 “And you whored with the sons of Mitsrayim, your neighbours, great of flesh. And you increased your whorings to provoke Me.

Eze 16:27 “And see, I have stretched out My hand against you, and withdrew your portion, and gave you up to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your wicked way.

Eze 16:28 “And you whored with the sons of Ashshur, without being satisfied. And you whored with them and still were not satisfied.

Eze 16:29 “And you increased your whorings as far as the land of traders, Chaldea, and even then you were not satisfied.

Eze 16:30 “How weak is your heart!” declares the Master “, יהוה seeing you do all this, the deeds of a shameless whore.

Eze 16:31 “You built your arched place at the head of every way, and built your high place in every street. Yet you were unlike a whore, you scorned payment!

Eze 16:32 “The wife who commits adultery who takes strangers instead of her husband! Eze 16:33 “To all whores they give gifts, but you gave gifts to all your lovers, and bribed them to come to you from all around in your whorings.

Eze 16:34 “Thus you are different from other women in your whorings, because no one whores after you, and in you giving a gift, while a gift was not given to you. Thus you are different.”

Eze 16:35 ‘Therefore, O whore, hear the word of יהוה!

Eze 16:36 ‘Thus said the Master “ , יהוהBecause your copper was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your whorings with your lovers, and with the idols of your abominations, and because of the blood of your children which you gave to them, Eze 16:37 therefore, see, I am gathering all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved, with all those you hated. And I shall gather them from all around against you and shall uncover your nakedness to them, and they shall see all your nakedness.

Eze 16:38 “And I shall judge you with judgments of adulteresses and shedders of blood. And I shall bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy.

Eze 16:39 “And I shall give you into their hand, and they shall throw your arched place down, and they shall break down your high places. And they shall strip you of your garments, and they shall take your splendid adornments, and leave you naked and bare. Eze 16:40 “And they shall bring up an assembly against you, and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords, Eze 16:41 and burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you before the eyes of many women. And I shall make you stop whoring, and no longer give gifts. Eze 16:42 “So I shall bring My wrath to rest upon you, and My jealousy shall turn away from you. And I shall be calm, and no longer be vexed.

Eze 16:43 “Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but troubled Me with all this, so see, I shall also bring your way on your own head,” declares the Master “ יהוה. And shall I not do this thought for all your abominations?

Eze 16:44 “See, all who use proverbs shall use this proverb against you, ‘Like mother, like daughter!’ Eze 16:45 “You are your mother’s daughter, who despises her husband and her children. And you are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Eze 16:46 “And your elder sister is Shomeron, she and her daughters, who is dwelling to the north of you. And your younger sister, who is dwelling to the south of you, is Sedom and her daughters. Eze 16:47 “And have you not walked in their ways and did according to their abominations? But in all your ways you soon became more corrupt than they. Eze 16:48 “As I live,” declares the Master “ , neither your sister Sedom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done. Eze 16:49 “See, this was the crookedness of your sister Sedom: She and her daughter had pride, sufficiency of bread, and unconcerned ease. And she did not help the poor and needy.

Eze 16:50 “And they were haughty and did abomination before Me, and I took them away when I saw it.

Eze 16:51 “And Shomeron did not commit half of your sins, but you have increased your abominations more than they, and by all the abominations which you have done you made your sisters seem righteous! Eze 16:52 “You also, who pleaded for your sisters, bear your own shame, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs.

They are more righteous than you. So be ashamed too, and bear your own shame, because you have made your sisters seem righteous. Eze 16:53 “And I shall turn back their captivity, the captivity of Sedom and her daughters, and the captivity of Shomeron and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives with them,

Eze 16:54 so that you bear your shame, and shall blush for all that you did when you comforted them, Eze 16:55 “and your sisters, Sedom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Shomeron and her daughters return to their former state, and you and your daughters return to your former state. Eze 16:56 “Was not your sister Sedom a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, Eze 16:57 before your evil was exposed, as the time of the reproach of the daughters of Aram and all who were around her, and of the daughters of the Philistines, who are despising you everywhere?

Eze 16:58 “You shall bear your wickedness and your abominations,” declares יהוה.

Eze 16:59 ‘For thus said the Master “, יהוה shall deal with you as you have done, in that you have despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

Eze 16:60 “But I shall remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I shall establish an everlasting covenant with you.

Eze 16:61 “And you shall remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters. And I shall give them to you for daughters, though not by your own covenant.

Eze 16:62 “And I Myself shall establish My covenant with you. And you shall know that I am , יהוה

Eze 16:63 so that you remember. And you shall be ashamed, and never open your mouth any more because of your shame, when I pardon you for all you have done,” declares the Master ” ’. יהוה

Remember, the Influencer cannot make you do anything that is not already in your character. The buck stops with us. Just because he desperately covets our expectation of eternal life with Yahuah, does not mean he can obliterate that without our permission! It is our choices that lead to that consequence!

By being adopted into the Covenant family of Yahuah, we receive His seal, that cannot be broken on Yahuah's side. Only ours. We point our fingers at historical people thinking how crazy they were not to do what Yahuah asked them to after seeing the consequences. How do we not see our own selves doing the exact same thing? Look at all the history we have at our disposal!

If we love Yahuah, we cling only to Him.

If we cling only to Him, we have to trust Him.

If we trust Him, that will bring us shalom.

In our Shalom, we can be patient as we wait for righteous judgment.

As we wait for righteous judgement, watching the world as it circles the drain, we keep asking the Father Yahuah to guide us and keep us ever alert and on guard (shamar) against the Influencer and mercy for those who still can be adopted.

תארת, a chamber or room bounded by walls,

While the abyss is reserved for the Influencer, this will be the fate of those mortals who helped him lead others away from the loving Eternal Yahuah. They will never have any authority in our lives. Not now or there after. We should not take pleasure in their demise.

Eze 18:20 “The being who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the crookedness of the father, nor the father bear the crookedness of the son. The righteousness of the righteous is upon himself, and the wrongness of the wrong is upon himself. 21 “But the wrong, if he turns from all his sins which he has done, and he shall guard all My Instructions, and shall do right-ruling and righteousness, he shall certainly live, he shall not die. 22 “All the transgressions which he has done shall not be remembered against him – in his righteousness that he has done, he shall live. 23 “Have I any pleasure in the death of the wrong?” declares the Master יהוה. “Is it not that he should turn from his ways, and live? 24 “But when a righteous one turns away from his righteousness and does unrighteousness, according to all the abominations that the wrong one has done, shall he live? All his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered. For his trespass which he has committed, and for his sin which he has committed, for them he shall die. 25 “And you said, ‘The way of יהוה is not right.’ Hear now, O house of Yisra’el, is My way not right? Is it not your ways that are not right? 26 “When a righteous one turns away from his righteousness, and does unrighteousness, and he dies in it, it is because of his unrighteousness which he has done that he dies. 27 “And when the wrong turns away from the wrong which he has done, and he does right-ruling and righteousness, he keeps himself alive. Eze 18:28 “Because he sees and turns away from all the transgressions which he has done, he shall certainly live, he shall not die. 29 “And the house of Yisra’el have said, ‘The way of יהוה is not right.’ Are My ways not right, O house of Yisra’el? Is it not your ways that are not right? :30 “Therefore I judge you, O house of Yisra’el, every one according to his ways,” declares the Master “ יהוה. Repent, and turn back from all your transgressions, and let not crookedness be a stumbling-block to you. 31 “Cast away from you all the transgressions, by which you have transgressed, and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Yisra’el? 32 “For I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies,” declares the Master “ יהוה. So turn back and live!”

2 PETER 3:11

"ARE YOU READY?"

2Pe 3:7 And the present heavens and the earth are treasured up by the same Word, being kept for fire, to a day of judgment and destruction of wicked men. 8 But, beloved ones, let not this one matter be hidden from you: that with יהוה one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 יהוה is not slow in regard to the promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward us, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of יהוה shall come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with intense heat, and the earth and the works that are in it shall be burned up. 11 Seeing all these are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be in set-apart behavior and reverence, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of Yahuah, through which the heavens shall be destroyed, being set on fire, and the elements melt with intense heat! 13 But according to His promise we wait for a renewed heavens and a renewed earth in which righteousness dwells. 14 So then, beloved ones, looking forward to this, do your utmost to be found by Him in peace, spotless and blameless.

We have provided some wide ranging<sup>56</sup> applications in our studies of the Covenant Instructions. We are ending this series with this study at this point. We may continue on in the Torah in the future, but for now let us Major on the Majors and get this part right in our mind's, hearts, spirit and our walk.

As we let this percolate in our beings, let us be broad minded in identifying the Influencer and the army of deceivers. Do not give them access or permission to dwell anywhere near you or have any authority over your life. No matter the cost here on Earth. Shalom! It has been a blessing to share with you!. We leave this study with a how we hear the anguish in Yahuah's words.

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings,
and you were not willing." MATTHEW 23: 37

It was not in Yahuah's original plan to lose anyone. He cannot make us love Him.
