As always, we will restore Yahuah's and Yahusha's proper Name in the texts. We will also be looking at the Crawford-Greg Glaser, the Aramaic NT interlinear by Bauscher, George Lamsa's and J.W. Etheridge's translation of the Peshitta and John Parkhurst's Hebrew To English Lexicon without points and Bayithamachiyach color coded translations to top it off.

We also have a gem from the 17th century- a Hebrew manuscript of Revelation! Not the whole book but it is in the British Library under Sloane MS 237.

http://www.bl.uk/manuscripts/Viewer.aspx?ref=sloane_ms_237_fs001r

This episode of Hebrew Voices is one of the most exciting things I have ever discovered: A Hebrew Manuscript of the Book of Revelation! This 17th century manuscript in the British Library contains the name Yehovah with full vowels and refers to "Yehoshua Mashiach". Torah-loving Methodist pastor AJ Bernard and the mysterious "T-Bone" joined me for a lively discussion of the Hebrew text and English translation. We unpacked topics such as the "Aleph Tav", the Jewish understanding of the Messiah coming on the clouds, and the meaning of Yehovah's holy Name.

AS A REMINDER.....

The "Work In Progress Narrative", while also drawn from Scripture and other sources most of the time does not affect our eternal destination, and does have more speculation due to pieces still missing. Thus we reason what options can be plausible. If at any time this takes us into a space that contradicts Scripture, or cannot connect the truths on either side, it can no longer be an option. Think of the WIPN as a plausible bridge from one solid truth to another but a land mass of truth is missing or unclear underneath.

In part 1I we are still in the corn field with Chapter 1. After being introduced to Yahusha in part 1G, we are going back to spot check certain words in the 8 verses we just covered. In Part 1H is the full translations for all the texts we are looking at. We did not repost them in this study, so if you want to see the actual translation see 1H. His head and his hair were white, like white wool, like snow.

His head and hairs white like wool and as snow, may signify his majesty, purity, and eternity. M Henry

Looking at other verses we learn this about white wool and white snow:

Isa 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, says Yahuah: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Psa 51:1 Have mercy upon me, O Yahuah, according to your lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of your tender mercies blot out my transgressions. 2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. 3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. 4 Against you, you only, have I sinned, and done this evil in your sight: that you might be justified when you speak, and be clear when you judge. 5 Behold, I was shaped in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. 6 Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part you shall make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

What Is Hyssop and Why Is It so Significant in the Bible?

Hyssop, an evergreen plant and herb that is native to the Mediterranean region, is mentioned several times in the Old and New Testaments of the Bible. Interestingly, it is brought up most often in relation to the process of being cleansed.

Hyssop plays a critical role in the story of the Israelites' Exodus from slavery in Egypt, marking who would be saved from the death that struck the firstborn of the Egyptians.

Exodus 12:22 - "Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin and put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the doorframe. None of you shall go out of the door of your house until morning."

Matthew records that as Yahusha was on the stake, “They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink” (Matthew 27:34). Mark described the drink as wine mingled with myrrh (Mark 15:23). The drink offered to Yahusha was a cheap Roman vinegar wine, which had a drug mixed in to dull the senses. It was the custom of the Romans to offer a man being crucified drugged wine so that he might more easily endure his fate. Yahusha refused the wine, however, apparently so that He could go through his suffering with a clear mind. He needed to feel the full wrath of the Father.

John 19:29-30 - “A jar of wine vinegar was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant, and lifted it to Yahusha's lips. When he had received the drink, Yahusha said, ‘It is finished.’ With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.”

The hyssop plant symbolizes the chance Yahuah offers us to be washed clean of sin. The vinegar represented Yahuah's wrath. However, because it was transferred to Yahusha on the hyssop branch, it symbolized the cleansing of Yahusha's soul from our sins and the completion of his task. All who are in covenant with Yahuah were now cleansed as well. It was finished! He and the Covenant family were cleansed white as snow and wool!
YAH-Mazing!

And his eyes, like a flame of fire.

Fire, in Scripture, is the expression of divine anger. The figure may include the thought of the clear and penetrating insight of the Son of Man; but it also expresses His indignation at the sin which His divine insight detects.

Vincent word studies.

His eyes were as a flame of fire, piercing and penetrating into the very hearts and reins of men, scattering terrors among his adversaries.

M Henry

I found this wonderful article that really shows both sides of what Yahusha's eyes were like. Also, Yah-Mazing!

John says that when he looked into those eyes, they were “as a flame of fire.” The Greek word for “flame” is phloz, which describes swirling, whirling, flickering flames that bend, twist, turn, and arch upward. The word translated “fire” is puros, the Greek word for a burning fire. Thus, the phrase “flame of fire” depicts a brightly burning fire with flames swirling, whirling, flickering, twisting, turning, and arching upward toward the sky. This, then, is not a depiction of heat but of the character of fire.

Many readers misread this phrase and conclude that Yahusha had real fire in His eyes. But John didn't say that. He said that Yahusha's eyes were "as" a flame of fire. That word "as" means like, similar to, or with the same effect as fire. It is necessary to stop and think about the effect that a campfire or a fire in a fireplace has upon a person who stares at it for any length of time. The longer a person looks into a fire, the more the flickering flames have a magnetic, mesmerizing effect on his eyes, mind, and senses. Soon the person gazing into the fire gets lost in the swirling, turning, twisting flames that flicker back and forth as the wood crackles and pops and the flames reach upward and disappear out of sight. The fire has its own character, both captivating and sedating, drawing people near to watch the dance of its flames as it gives out its warmth.

<https://renner.org/article/his-eyes-were-as-a-flame-of-fire/>

These seem to be the qualities of fire that John thought of when he peered into Yahusha's eyes and became transfixed by what he saw. Although he had looked into those eyes thousands of times nearly 60 years earlier, something was different about these eyes. In the vision, Yahusha's eyes were compelling, irresistible, riveting, and gripping. They exuded intelligence and magnetism.

Like the flickering flames of a fire, those eyes drew John closer and captivated him completely. John must have been drawn by the warmth and love pouring forth from Yahusha's eyes. Yet that wasn't all John saw, for Yahusha's eyes also burned with a searching gaze, looking intently into the seven assemblies in the book of Revelation to see and address their specific needs and problems.

“Fire” is an important symbol in Scripture and frequently represents purification and judgment. Which effect of divine fire we experience depends wholly on our response to Yahuah. If we as individuals, submit to the pleadings of the Set Apart Spirit and “hear what the Spirit says to the called out ones,” we will experience the first type of fire — a Set Apart fire intended to purify and to make us more like Yahusha. The first fire is unavoidable for a Covenant people who submit to authority of Yahuah; This fire does not result in severe discipline. It is a refining fire, meant to make us beautiful in the eyes of Yahuah. A returning to His definition of a moral and just character and become the creature He made in the beginning that He wanted to live with forever!

On the other hand, if we resist the pleadings of the Set Apart Spirit and stubbornly continue to act in ways that are contrary to Yahuah’s character and instructions, there is a second type of fire that burns up chaff and consumes everything that stands opposed to Yahuah. Remember Yahuah is merciful, and even this kind of fire is an act of His love and mercy. Consuming the rebellious will keep His children out of harms way in our forever life with Him. That is a promise He has made. To keep us safe.

Yahusha's intense, searching eyes, which seemed "as" a flame of fire, captivated John's attention and signaled to the apostle that the Head of the Covenant Family had examined the seven churches in Asia and was preparing to deliver a potent message. Some of these assemblies were about to be encouraged by the words of Yahusha — such as the assemblies of Smyrna and Philadelphia, which received no correction at all.

The other five assemblies — Ephesus, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, and Laodicea — were about to be warned of impending judgment if they didn't repent. As King and Head of the Covenant Family, Yahusha had every right to search the assemblies and require them to change. The very fact that he came to warn them meant he did not want to judge them.

How we respond to the dealings of Yahuah determines which kind of fire we will experience. Will it be a fire that purifies and takes us to a higher level in our relationship, or will it be a fire that burns up the chaff in our lives that we haven't been willing to surrender on our own? The choice is ours, but the fact is, that divine fire will come, whether we like it or not. When we find we have chaff that is destined to be burned, it is better to get rid of it ourselves— and prepare ourselves for the Set Apart fire that comes to purify and give us a more fulfilling and blessed understanding in our walk with Yahuah.

This should be the deepest desire of our heart!

Deuteronomy 7:9

“And you shall know that יהוה your Eternal, He is Eternal, the trustworthy Eternal guarding covenant and loving-commitment for a thousand generations with those who love Him, and those who guard His instructions

1Jn 1:5-10

And this is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that Yahuah is light and in Him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and are not doing the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of משיח Anointed His Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we are misleading ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is trustworthy and righteous to forgive us the sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.

The Value of Wisdom Proverbs 2:1-12

Pro 2:1 My son, if you accept my words, And treasure up My instructions with you,
2 So that you make your ear attend to wisdom, Incline your heart to understanding; 3 For if you cry for discernment, Lift up your voice for understanding, 4 If you seek her as silver, And search for her as hidden treasures, 5 Then you would understand the fear of יהוה, And find the knowledge of Yahuah. 6 For יהוה gives wisdom; Out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding. 7 And He treasures up stability for the straight, A shield to those walking blamelessly, 8 To watch over the paths of right-ruling, And the way of His lovingly-committed ones He guards. 9 Then you would understand righteousness And right-ruling, and straightness – Every good path. 10 For wisdom would enter your heart, And knowledge be pleasant to your being, 11 Discretion would guard you; Understanding would watch over you, 12 To deliver you from the evil way, From the man who speaks perversities

Lamentations 3:21-26

This I recall to my mind, therefore I wait: 22 The loving-commitments of יהוה!
For we have not been consumed, For His compassions have not ended. 23 They are new every morning, Great is Your trustworthiness. 24 “ יהוה is my Portion,” says my being, “Therefore I wait for Him!” 25 יהוה is good to those waiting for Him, To the being who seeks
Him. 3:26 It is good – both to wait and to be silent, For the deliverance of יהוה.

THE REVELATION OF

1. (Yahuchanon speaking): The revelation to Yahusha the Yahusha, which Yahuah gave to him (Yahusha) to show to his (Yahusha's) servants the things that must shortly occur and by necessity be done with wrath: and he (Yahusha) signified and symbolized it to make clear, explain, notify, and which is consistently taught by Torah by sending it, through his (Yahusha's) messenger to his servant Yahuchannon;
2. Who (Yahuchanon- John) bore witness to the Word of Yahuah, and to the testimony and martyrdom of Yahusha the Yahusha, as to all and whatever that he saw.

7. (Yahuchanon quoting Scripture) Behold, he (Yahusha) comes with clouds; and all eyes will see him (Yahusha), and also they who pierced Him (Yahuah); and all the tribes of the earth will mourn on account of him (Yahusha). Yes: So Be It.

THE REVELATION OF

Rev 1:8 “I am Aleph, also Taw,” a Strong Covenant Mark, says the Master YHWH, Eternal; who is existing, and He who has always existed, and He who is coming, (Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh) the Omnipotent- unlimited power, authority and influence Al Shaddai- He who holds all.

Rev 1:9 (Yahuchanon speaking) I Yahuchanan, your brother and companion with you in the tribulation and vexing by a female rival of Yahuah, causing affliction and suffering, being gathered together in patient steadfast endurance and in the cheerful hope and expectation of Yahusha the Yahusha, was in the island called Patmos because of the Word of Yahuah and because of the testimony and witness of Yahusha the Yahusha (Yahusha).

Rev 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the day of our Master YHWH; and I heard behind me a great voice, as of a shofar, which said:

11. (Yahusha speaking) “That which you see, write in a book, and send to the seven assemblies; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyratira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”.

THE REVELATION OF

Rev 1:12 And I turned myself to look at the Strong Covenant mark voice that talked with me; and when I had turned, I saw seven menorahs of gold;

Rev 1:13 and, in the midst of the menorahs, one like the Son of man, clothed to the feet with a sleeveless epod, and turned about in a sleeveless robe reaching to his feet with a girdle of gold around his chest and heart.

Rev 1:14. And his head and his hair were white, like bright white wool, like snow; and his eyes, like the flames of fire:

Rev 1:15. and his feet were like fine brass, flaming in a furnace: and his voice, like the sound of many waters.

Rev 1:16. And he had in his right hand seven stars; and from his mouth issued a fervent spirit; and his countenance was like the sun shining in its strength.

Rev 1:17. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet like one dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, and said, “Fear not: I am the First and the Last;

THE REVELATION OF

Rev 1:19. Therefore, write what you have seen, and the things that are; and the things that are to be after this:

Rev 1:20. the mystery of these seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven menorahs of gold. Those seven stars are the angles of the seven assemblies; and the seven menorahs are the seven assemblies.”
