Studies with Scripture explaining the Covenant with Yahuah - what He expects as well as what He offers us as His children. There are chronological studies showing when they first showed up in Scripture and with amplification of Scripture one will find a whole new look for the Father of the Universe.

It just takes the flip of a coin to decide between good and evil!

<https://yahstruck.com/>

We'd like to welcome you to our site YAH STRUCK, where we are introducing the YAH STRUCK series of books. Though they are fictional, they are based on Child Trafficking as well as real events that have happened, though they are disguised. The books have a supernatural aspect to them with the help and strong presence of our Heavenly Father and Creator YAH and a group of Covenant family members destined to take on the sheer evil itself - in all its forms. You will also find blogs and merchandise to help support us as we promote the Name and Authority of Yahuah in this world.

In the fashion of all Hebrew words YAH-STRUCK has two sides. Yahuah can strike us in Righteous Vengeance, or to wake us up and get us to turn back around to Him or the best, for us to be YAH-STRUCK in amazement of Loyal Love, kindness and sheer brilliance.

In 2017 we created a series called "Another Brick in the Wall".

The PDF's were/are located on our website but we only presented the webinar studies live to a small group of Covenant Family Members since the topics, even then, sounded conspiratorial and quite outlandish. In 2021 we now have a good deal of proof that we needed on some accounts and the motivation has become crystal clear as to why this evil is happening.

Shucking Corn

AND REFRESHING MY SOUL

The Problem: Stubborn Corn Silk!
Shucking corn (which is just the process of removing the husk and silk) isn't necessarily hard work, but finding a way to remove all those sticky corn silks left behind can feel downright impossible! Ain't that the truth! Once exposed to the truth without the outer casing of propaganda, the sticky silk of programing still cling to the kernels. Before we free the kernels stuck in organized rows of compliance we need to remove the lingering attachment to the silk.

And if you don't manage to remove all the silk with the husk, you can bet those silky threads are going to end up on your kitchen floor, your countertop, and even in your teeth later on. In other words the silk can be a stumbling block and its messing with your world.

The Solution: Use The Right Tool For The Job. Gadgets don't always work as advertised. All you need for this simple hack is a small piece of shelf liner. You'll want a shelf liner like this one that has a decent amount of "grip" and feels slightly tacky to the touch.

After removing the husk from an ear of corn, just rub the shelf liner over the surface of the kernels. The liner will grip onto the silks and pull them away from the corn!

Once you have exposed the kernels, you need to hug them and give them a good understanding that with the right tool-truthful information about the depth of silk of deceit, they no longer need to hold on to the propaganda (the wrong tool) and are ready to contemplate letting go.

To be able to break away from the hive mind social induced lock step, we then also need to be removed (come out of her My people) from the cob that we have come to rely upon instead of Yahuah. Yahusha spoke of breaking the bonds and the truth shall set us free. This next step can be the most painful of all.

There are a variety of ways you can do this

You can scrape the surface a few topics at a time

You can cut into a few topics at a time a little deeper

You can go one topic at a time and pretty deep.

Or you can grab on with both hands and get free as fast as possible, which can be emotionally exhausting.

The point of this and all our studies is to free ourselves as best we can from all the counterfeits lo-shema created. The more we scrape the more we find. It is never ending until "The End". The Alice in Wonderland interrogation method that is being used on a worldwide public has a coercion aspect to it. It is evilly brilliant and very effective. Everyone is expecting the jack booted thug (which we do have in full view) but the most effective is having the people come to the conclusion that they will willingly go along by their own free will. Do you see it? Lo-shem can not force us, that was the deal. We have to invite in and by our own decision choose to reject Yahuah and His Torah.

No one makes us do anything. We are coerced to do things because we are weak in our relationship with Yahuah and do not trust in His promised protection and are ill informed with what His expectations are. That was done by coercing the "Christians" to do away with Torah in favor of Paul and the idolatry of Jesus being the Almighty. Ouch!

ALICE IN WONDERLAND TECHNIQUE: THE POWER OF APPLIED CONFUSION

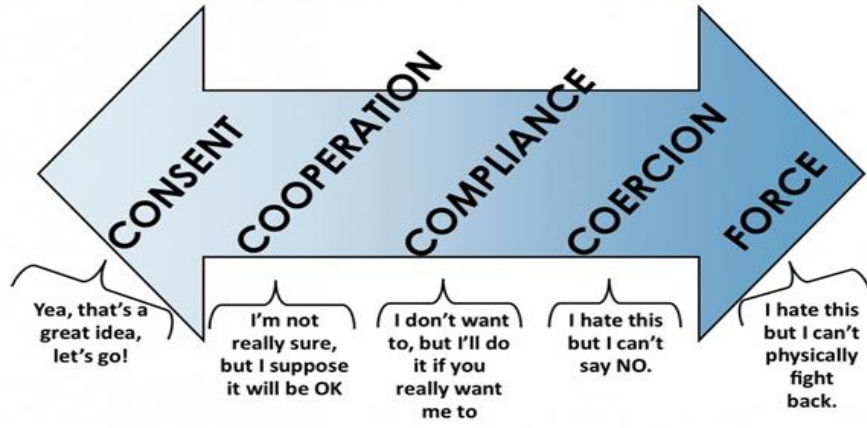

I want you to do this....

We cannot sugar coat that when we consent to something we know is not right we are in fact agreeing with that action or person. If we agree with evil we cannot agree with Yahuah. In the above illustration anything beyond consent is a lack of trust in Yahuah. Even worse, we are rejecting Yahuah and not listening (Shama) to Him.

CONSENT

kon-sent':

The verb implies compliance with the guidance and direction of another, and, therefore, a secondary and subordinate relation of approval, sympathy and concurrence on the part of the one who consents. He does not take the initiative, but yields to what the principal proposes. The phrase ek sumphonou, "by consent," means "by mutual agreement" (1 Corinthians 7:5), both parties concerned being placed on an equality. "With one consent" (Zechariah 3:9, Hebrew "with one shoulder"; Luke 14:18) suggests, although it does not necessarily imply, the result of deliberation and consultation; it may have no other force than that of unanimity.

As Covenant family members we only have one allegiance and that is to Yahuah and whom ever He has set up to run His universe. The divine kingdom to come will be under the dominion of Yahusha. But lo-shema, the evil one is seeking to destroy all of humankind so there will be no kingdom of humans left. The White House Announces a Plan to Speed the Rollout of 5G

The Pentagon will share part of the wireless spectrum, allowing telecom carriers to reach more areas with fewer cell towers.

Some recommendations are very specific.

The report recommends, for example, that in choosing an interrogation site "the electric current should be known in advance, so that transformers and other modifying devices will be on hand if needed."

The spectrum, which telecom companies will share with the Pentagon, aims to help wireless carriers offer 5G more broadly across the US. It also should generate billions of dollars for the US Treasury when auctioned off. The frequency is currently being used for high-power defense radar, but the DoD has determined that it can be freed up without affecting military systems.

Freeing up the new spectrum is part of a broader effort by the Trump administration to beat America's big technological rival, China, to leadership in a technology that could prove vital to progress in everything from smart factories to self-driving cars.

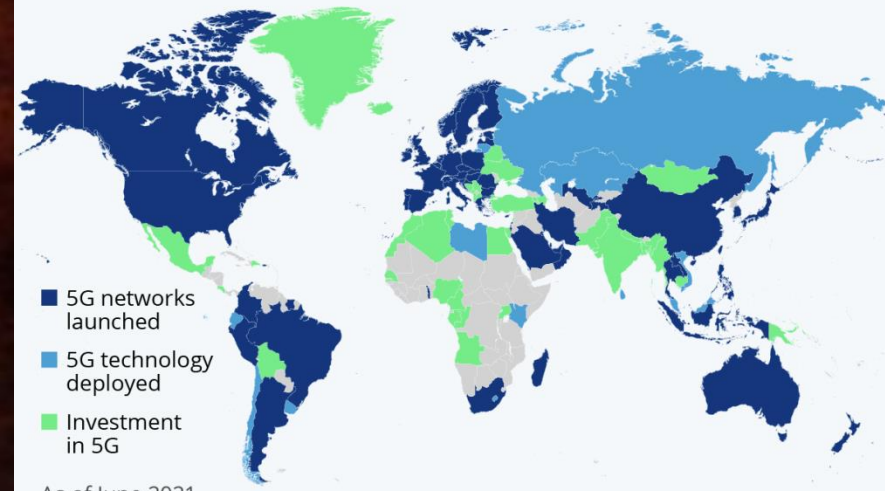

The faster speed and shorter delay could prove crucial for self-driving cars, manufacturing robots that use artificial intelligence, and new hospital equipment. More importantly, it could serve as a bedrock for new innovations across the tech industry.. "To be able to cover an entire city in mid-band, it will be really noticeable in your day-to-day usage," says Leigh."

The Trump administration has identified 5G as a key technology for the future of the US. It is especially concerned about China, a rising geopolitical rival, establishing a leadership role in 5G. The worry is that the next big tech companies, built around widespread availability of 5G, could Emerge in China first.

Under the subheading, "Threats and Fears," the CIA authors note that "the threat of coercion usually weakens or destroys resistance more effectively than coercion itself. The threat to inflict pain, for example, can trigger fears more damaging than the immediate sensation of pain."

Under the subheading "Pain," the guidelines discuss the theories behind various thresholds of pain and recommend that a subject's "resistance is likelier to be sapped by pain which he seems to inflict upon himself" such rather than by direct torture.

Roughly 40 suspects are now in jail in D.C. awaiting trial for charges stemming from that day, and their lawyers say their rights are being denied. Some, they say, have been denied access to food and showers. U.S. District Judge Royce C. Lamberth said jail officials failed for four months to move ahead with treatment for one defendant who broke his wrist while held without bail. A surgery initially scheduled for June still hasn't taken place. Lamberth called it “more than just inept and bureaucratic jostling of papers.”

For more than a year, the District's Department of Corrections kept inmates in solitary confinement for 23 hours a day in the name of constricting the spread of COVID-19 among inmates. In a country that postures as a beacon for human rights, D.C.'s prisons aren't the transmission tower.

<https://time.com/6107063/january-6-prisoners-alleged-mistreatment/>

The suspects are held in solitary confinement in cells the 'size of a walk-in closets' for up 24 hours a day and treated like 'domestic terrorists' by jail guards.

McBride said guards told his client and other '1/6ers' that 'the world hates them,' 'they'll be forgotten' and 'they'll spend the rest of their lives in here,' among other disparaging remarks.

There's a pending grievance against one of the guards who allegedly threatened to sexually assault Barnett's wife.

Ryan Samsel, was allegedly beaten by a guard so badly that he may lose an eye and has had his jaw wired shut, his lawyer Elisabeth Pasqualini said in media interviews.

(The jail guards) do their best to get guys to break us down mentally,' Barnett said in an email to DailyMail.com. 'We did our best to help out whatever guy was suffering that day.'

D.C. Jail Coerced Jan. 6 Political Prisoners Into Getting Vaccinated To Avoid Inhumane Treatment

By Andrew White
June 18, 2021 at 2:44pm

“D.C. corrections officials will ease an array of coronavirus restrictions in the coming weeks and relax the nearly 24-hour confinement that inmates endured for more than a year, according to plans released Thursday. Beginning May 15 and through July, vaccinated inmates will see a resumption of activities that are in line with the city’s return to pre-pandemic openings, and the rolling back of some of the restrictions that jail officials said were needed to contain the spread of the coronavirus but that drew sharp criticism from lawmakers and allegations of human rights abuses.”

“This means that inmates who are not vaccinated are being held in ongoing inhumane lockdown conditions. This is a clear violation of the Nuremberg code, which prohibits testing medications on inmates, and prohibits the use of force or coercion in the use of medical experiments,” said Suzanne Monk, conservative activist, journalist, and founder of ReOpen America. “These abuses have been made more possible by the already utter disdain for human rights that has been in place in the DC Detention Center for now over 450 days, human rights violations that continue to this day, and are made even more disturbing in their criminal abuse of medical protocol.”

VIII. THE NON-COERCIVE COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTERROGATION

A. General Remarks

The term non-coercive is used above to denote methods of interrogation that are not based upon the coercion of an unwilling subject through the employment of superior force originating outside himself. However, the non-coercive interrogation is not conducted without pressure. On the contrary, the goal is to generate maximum pressure, or at least as much as is needed to induce compliance. The difference is that the pressure is generated inside the interrogatee. His resistance is sapped, his urge to yield is fortified, until in the end he defeats himself.

Manipulating the subject psychologically until he becomes compliant, without applying external methods of forcing him to submit, sounds harder than it is. The initial advantage lies with the interrogator. From the outset, he knows a great deal more about the source than the source knows about him. And he can create and amplify an effect of omniscience in a number of ways. For example, he can show the interrogatee a thick file bearing his own name. Even if the file contains little or nothing but blank paper, the air of familiarity with which the interrogator refers to the subject's background can convince some sources that all is known and that resistance is futile.

If the interrogatee is under detention, the interrogator can also manipulate his environment. Merely by cutting off all other human contacts, "the interrogator monopolizes the social environment of the source." (3) He exercises the powers of an all-powerful parent, determining when the source will be sent to bed, when and what he will eat, whether he will be rewarded for good behavior or punished for being bad. The interrogator can and does make the

B. The Theory of Coercion

Coercive procedures are designed not only to exploit the resistant source's internal conflicts and induce him to wrestle with himself but also to bring a superior outside force to bear upon the subject's resistance. Non-coercive methods are not likely to succeed if their selection and use is not predicated upon an accurate psychological assessment of the source. In contrast, the same coercive method may succeed against persons who are very unlike each other. The chances of success rise steeply, nevertheless, if the coercive technique is matched to the source's personality. Individuals react differently even to such seemingly non-discriminatory stimuli as drugs. Moreover, it is a waste of time and energy to apply strong pressures on a hit-or-miss basis if a tap on the psychological jugular will produce compliance.

In order to be successful they need to know as much about you as possible. "Familiar spirits" comes to mind that we were warned about. With the advent of the internet we willingly consented to let them know our every waking thought and movement. Selfies, what we ate, who our friends and family are, where we work. Facial recognition, voice recognition, alexia listening in, Smart devices listening in. Banking on line and now you can even order your car on line have it delivered. We forgot to SHAMAR! Be on guard. The one thing lo-shema hates is unpredictability. They need our data to see how we react. Thumb up or down, sharing, memes. What causes us to react?

All coercive techniques are designed to induce regression. As Hinkle notes in "The Physiological State of the Interrogation Subject as it Affects Brain Function"(7), the result of external pressures of sufficient intensity is the loss of those defenses most recently acquired by civilized man: ". . . the capacity to carry out the highest creative activities, to meet new, challenging, and complex situations, to deal with trying interpersonal relations, and to cope with repeated frustrations. Relatively small degrees of homeostatic derangement, fatigue, pain, sleep loss, or anxiety may impair these functions." As a result, "most people who are exposed to coercive procedures will talk and usually reveal some information that they might not have revealed otherwise."

Remember before social media? When you had to take a photo of your food, develop it, then go to your friends homes to show it to them? Me neither.

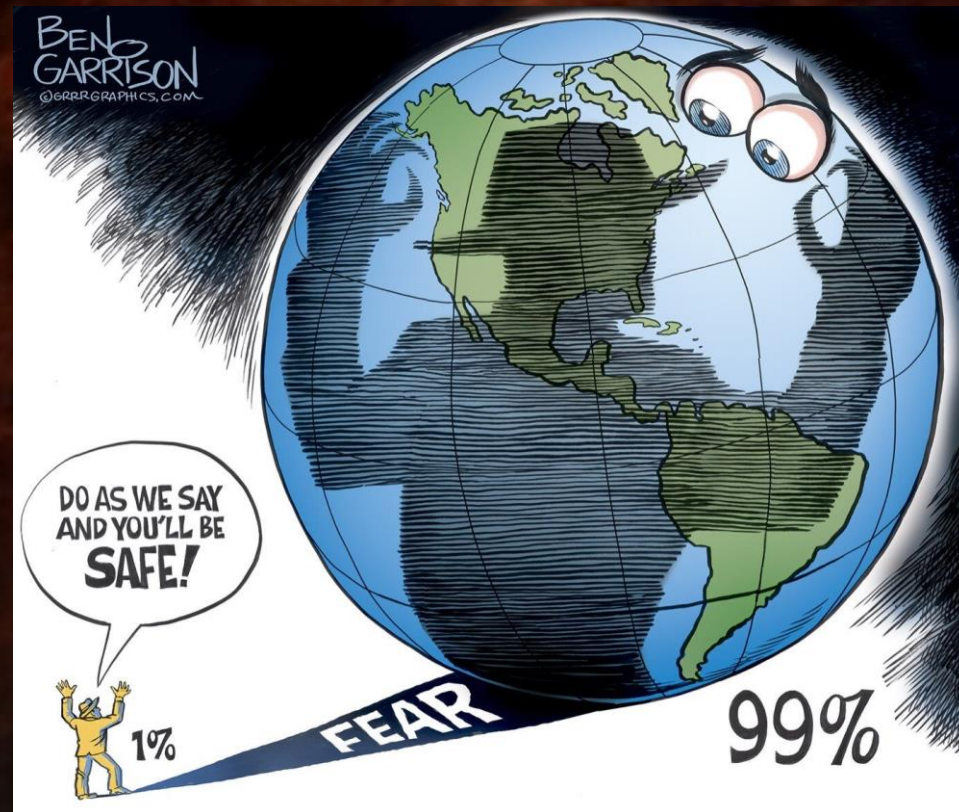

someecards
user card

As we share our own user generated content, we begin to build a digital footprint.

One subjective reaction often evoked by coercion is a feeling of guilt. Meltzer observes, "In some lengthy interrogations, the interrogator may, by virtue of his role as the sole supplier of satisfaction and punishment, assume the stature and importance of a parental figure in the prisoner's feeling and thinking. Although there may be intense hatred for the interrogator, it is not unusual for warm feelings also to develop. This ambivalence is the basis for guilt reactions, and if the interrogator nourishes these feelings, the guilt may be strong enough to influence the prisoner's behavior Guilt makes compliance more likely. . . ." (7).

Farber says that the response to coercion typically contains ". . . at least three important elements: debility, dependency, and dread." Prisoners ". . . have reduced viability, are helplessly dependent on their captors for the satisfaction of their many basic needs, and experience the emotional and motivational reactions of intense fear and anxiety. . . . Among the [American] POW's pressured by the Chinese Communists, the DDD syndrome in its full-blown form constituted a state of discomfort that was well-nigh intolerable."

People will come to love their oppression, to adore the technologies that undo their capacities to think.

Germany | Dr Thomas Jendges Head of Clinic, Commits Suicide “COVID-19 Vaccine Is a Genocide” 11-17-2021 ³⁶

In Germany, the Head of the Chemnitz Clinic, Dr Thomas Jendges, committed suicide saying he no longer wants to be part of the Genocide happening vis the COVID-19 Vaccine. In a letter found on the scene, he explains that he can no longer be part of the Genocide. He committed suicide by jumping from the top of the clinic’s building in Flemmingstrasse, Germany, according to Bild . He was 55 years old.

Jendges had only been appointed sole managing Director of the Chemnitz Clinic since October 1st 2021. Since April, he was acting as Managing Director of East Germany’s largest municipal hospital.

“It is with great dismay that I have just learned of the tragic death of Dr. Thomas Jendges’ experience. Last night (Monday, ed) we talked at length about the difficult situation of the crown “, said the mayor of Chemnitz Sven Schulze (50, SPD) on Tuesday morning.

Reports of a letter that the deceased allegedly left behind are circulating. Jendges allegedly killed himself to set an example against the corona vaccinations. These are “bio-warfare agents”, so it says in the postings. He is also said to have described the vaccine in his letter as genocide and a crime against humanity”.

SUICIDE
MURDER?

In the lengthy farewell letter Dr. Thomas Jendges wrote before his suicide and demanded its publication, he is said to have harshly criticized the information policy of governments in dealing with the dangerousness of Covid vaccines. The constant lies and deceit to the patient and the vaccinated that the vaccines are supposedly harmless, he could no longer bear them,

He condemns vaccinating the population with experimental and lethal vaccines against Covid-19, which is in fact more of a biological warfare agent created and manipulated for that use, than for any other known utility. For Dr. Thomas Jendges a genocide and a crime against humanity is taking place, they report that he says the letter, according to the German press such as the Bild newspaper.

Because the mayor threatened to fire him if he no longer stayed in the submissive line imposed by government order and refused to vaccinate patients at the clinic, there were presumably no more options for Jendges. This director has not wanted to support a crime of the federal government, the state government and his faithful henchmen. So he considered that his suicide was the only way to oppose him.

Read here.. CONSENT instead of confession.

Once a true confession is obtained, the classic cautions apply. The pressures are lifted, at least enough so that the subject can provide counterintelligence information as accurately as possible. In fact, the relief granted the subject at this time fits neatly into the interrogation plan. He is told that the changed treatment is a reward for truthfulness and an evidence that friendly handling will continue as long as he cooperates.

When an interrogator senses that the subject's resistance is wavering, that his desire to yield is growing stronger than his wish to continue his resistance, the time has come to provide him with the acceptable rationalization: a face-saving reason or excuse for compliance. Novice interrogators may be tempted to seize upon the initial yielding triumphantly and to personalize the victory. Such a temptation must be rejected immediately. An interrogation is not a game played by two people, one to become the winner and the other the loser. It is simply a method of obtaining correct and useful information. Therefore the interrogator should intensify the subject's desire to cease struggling by showing him how he can do so without seeming to abandon principle, self-protection, or other initial causes of resistance. If, instead of providing the right rationalization at the right time, the interrogator seizes gloatingly upon the subject's wavering, opposition will stiffen again.

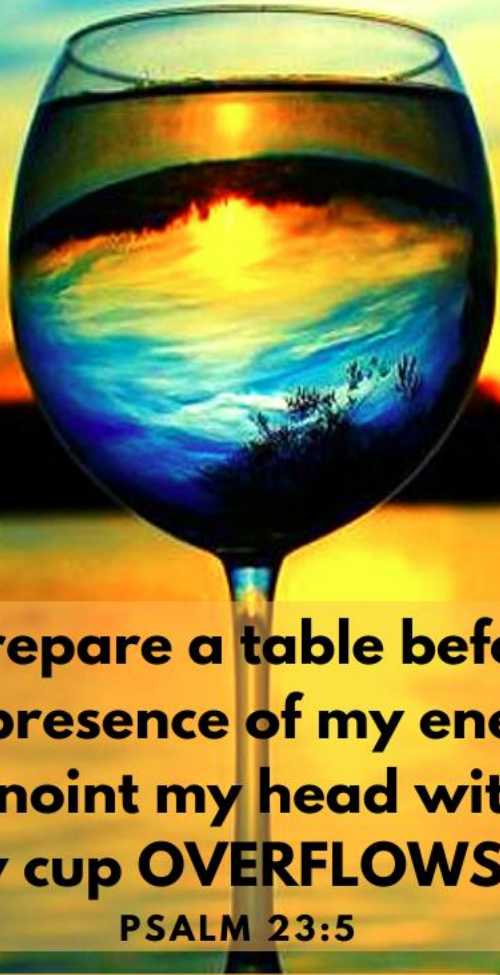

They will arm you with bold face lies so you can spout the science that has long since been debunked by the doctors and scientists world wide.

DAILY MANNA

REFRESHED

"You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup OVERFLOWS."

PSALM 23:5

YAHSMANNA.COM

After learning a bit of the technique "they" are using, it is now time to refresh ourselves in the Yah-mazing word of Yahuah for strength, joy and encouragement. Let us look at what Yahuah says about consenting.

Pro 1:1 The proverbs of Shelomoh son of Dawid, sovereign of Yah'shara'al:

Pro 1:2 For knowing wisdom and discipline, For understanding the words of understanding, 1:3 For receiving the discipline of wisdom, Righteousness, right-ruling, and straightness; 1:4 For giving insight to the simple, Knowledge and discretion to the young.

1:5 The wise one hears and increases learning, And the understanding one gets wise counsel, 1:6 For understanding a proverb and a figure, The words of the wise and their riddles.

1:7 The reverence of יהוה is the beginning of knowledge; Fools despise wisdom and discipline. 1:8 My son, heed the discipline of your father, And do not forsake the Torah of your mother; 1:9 For they are a fair wreath on your head, And chains about your neck. 1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

Pretty black and white. Revering Yahuah is critical to understanding everything. When you understand His character, you will feel it when something is off. Be teachable but make sure the teaching is wise- or founded in Torah principles. Follow Torah! You can not convince those who foolishly do not acknowledge Yahuah as the highest authority. Seek wisdom. Do not consent to enticement.

Pro 1:11 If they say, “Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood, Let us ambush the innocent without cause. 1:12 “Let us swallow them alive like the grave, And entirely, like those going down to the pit. 1:13 “Let us find all precious goods, Let us fill our houses with spoil. 1:14 “Cast in your lot among us, Let us all have one purse,” 1:15 My son, do not walk in the way with them, Keep your foot from their path;

AND AN ADDITIONAL $39,000 IF THEY USE A VENTILATOR!

Pro 1:16 For their feet run to evil, And they hurry to shed blood. 1:17 For in vain the net is spread In the sight of any bird. 1:18 But they lie in wait for their own blood, They ambush their own lives. 1:19 Such are the ways of everyone greedy for gain; It takes away the life of its owners.

Even though the 84-year-old's family says he was fully vaccinated against COVID-19, he still died from virus complications on Monday, Oct. 18.

Pro 1:20 Wisdom calls aloud outside;
She raises her voice in the broad places.

1:21 At the head of the noisy streets she cries out, At the openings of the gates, In the city she speaks her words: 1:22 “How long, you simple ones, Would you love simplicity, And shall scoffers delight in their scoffing,
And fools hate knowledge? 1:23
“Turn at my reproof. See, I pour out my spirit on you, I make my words known to you.

I'm fully vaccinated and boosted. No, I don't know "what's in it". Neither this vaccine or the ones I had as a child. Nor do I know what's in the 11 secret herbs and spices at KFC. (I of course actually do know "what's in it" but I trust science that has kept us safe for my entire life. I know how a ventilator works (though I don't want to personally be on one).

I also don't know exactly what's in Ibuprofen or Tylenol - they just cure my headaches & my pains.

I don't know what's in tattoo ink, botox and fillers, or every ingredient in my soap, shampoo or deodorants. I don't know the long term effect of mobile phone use, or whether or not that restaurant I just ate at REALLY used clean foods and washed their hands.

There's a lot of things I don't know.

One thing I do know is that life is short. Very short. And I, personally, still want to do things. I want to travel and hug people without fear, and find a little feeling of life "before".

Throughout my life I've been vaccinated against many diseases. Measles, mumps, rubella, hepatitis, pneumonia, influenza, rotavirus, tetanus, pertussis. My parents (and I) trusted the science, and never had to suffer through or transmit any of those said diseases.

I'm vaccinated. Not to please the government. Not to make other people do it. But I don't want to:

- *die from Covid-19
- *clutter a hospital bed if I get sick
- *not be able to hug my loved ones
- *have to test routinely
- *live my life in fear

Pro 1:24 “Because I called and you refused, I have stretched out my hand and no one inclined,
 1:25 “And you spurned all my counsel, And would not consent to my reproof, 1:26 “Let me also laugh at your calamity, Mock when your dread comes, 1:27 “When your dread comes like a storm, And your calamity comes like a whirlwind, When distress and anguish come upon you. 1:28 “Let them then call on me, but I answer not; Let them seek me, but not find me. 1:29 “Because they hated knowledge And did not choose to revere , יהוה

Pro 1:30 “They did not consent to my counsel, They despised all my reproof, 1:31 “Therefore let them eat the fruit of their own way, And be filled with their own counsels. 1:32 “For the turning away of the simple slays them, And the complacency of fools destroys them. 1:33 “But whoever listens to me dwells safely, And is at ease from the dread of evil.”

CHRISTMAS IN NAZARETH 2021

Nazareth is a great place to visit for those of you not able to make it to Bethlehem/Jerusalem. There is the now annual Christmas Market, a Christmas Parade, and Midnight Mass in the Church of the Annunciation, so plenty to enjoy!

The Old City in Jerusalem

Yahuah is so up front and firm about why things going south and how to fix it, that it is frustrating to see the world looking everywhere but up to Him.

People who reject His Name and Authority for "Jesus", His Sabbath and Feasts and Torah instructions will look on in shock when after priest, pastor, rabbi and cleric urge them to vaccinate for the sake of the collective, find out it was the worst decision of their eternity. He keeps calling us but so many are not listening... TO HIM.

These tactics are just the tip of the iceberg and as we go through them, it will be important to SHAMAR- guard against every attempt at corrosion for anything that Yahuah finds objectionable. We will be shucking corn for a very long time!

Let us be broad minded in identifying the Influencer and the army of deceivers. Do not give them access or permission to dwell anywhere near you or have any authority over your life. No matter the cost here on Earth. If it does not look right, it probably isn't. Be grateful you can spot it. Do not consent!

Shalom! It has been a blessing to share with you!

It's not hard- it is universal. It's not done away with, it is what brings everlasting life.
One Yahuah, One Yahusha, One Torah
One People.

- ❖ Yahuah is allowing this to happen now for a reason
- ❖ Lo-shema a title we gave the enemy meaning “no name or authority” is the dragon and head of this resistance to Yahuah
- ❖ The timing was perfect due to the unrest of society that has been propagated by lo-shema to lead a coup against the world
- ❖ The Evil WHO’s in Whosville have Narcissistic and Psychopathic tendencies in common
- ❖ Yahuah WINS
- ❖ Be aware of gas lighting and double speak.
- ❖ We never give our consent to anything or anyone except Yahuah, His word and His Torah guidance.
- ❖ Shamar- be on guard against coercion

Professor of clinical psychology at Ghent University Mattias Desmet. He holds a masters degree in statistic.

Four things need to be in place if you want a large-scale mass phenomenon to emerge. (1) socially isolated people, people who experience a lack of social bond. (2) a lot of people who experience a lack of sense-making in life. (3) a lot of free-floating anxiety, (4) a lot of free-floating psychological discontent—meaning anxiety and discontent that is not connected to specific representations.

It needs to be in the mind without people being able to connect it to something. If you have these four things... then society is highly at risk for the emergence of mass phenomena, and these four conditions existed shortly before the corona crisis."

Definition of psychopath

: a mentally unstable person especially : a person having an egocentric and antisocial personality marked by a lack of remorse for one's actions, an absence of empathy for others, and often criminal tendencies
