Our Methodology

The tricky thing about going chronological is that we get hints of an instruction way before it was written down in Exodus. This was a great eye opener as we went through Genesis. They knew of these things from somewhere. Adam and Hawah must have taught their children and now that the 365 books of Enoch are lost, we do not have an accurate picture of the first mention of these things.

We have chosen to deal with this by acknowledging the first mention of a subject but will not address it fully until the actual instruction is given. We want to recreate the feeling of starting from scratch. It seems to us that Yahuah watched mankind and as we progressed kept note of the things which caused us to stumble the most. It was then at Sinai that Yahuah was able to set in stone the things for us to guard against and remember that would keep us on the path. But we will see that the moral code was already in practice as well as some ceremonial things. How could it be otherwise? Everyone has had the information they needed to come to love and choose Yahuah, if He has chosen them. There are some things that prevent Him from choosing certain creations, so let us keep that in mind, even if we do not fully understand it.

Today we begin our journey in the book of Shemot/Exodus as we continue studying what it means to be in Covenant with Yahuah. We start with the story of Moshe and the burning mountain top. For further explanation why it was not a burning bush- please see our studies on the Exodus under Appointed times tab on our website.

PT 2 HISTORY OF THE EXODUS TO PESACH

Exod 3:4 And יהוה saw that he (Moshe) turned aside to examine and understand, and Yahuah called to him from the midst of the crag of the mountain and said, “Mosheh! Mosheh!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Notice the size of the bushes. Even if ablaze one would not have to step back to take in all the “majesty” of it .

There is a well known scientific practice called “grounding” or “earthing” where you take off your shoes and stand directly on the earth’s surface. This allows us to be positively effected by the electrical charges from the earth. Looking back at Yahuah’s instruction, it is logical to assume that He wanted Moshe to have nothing that would prevent this set apart energy from connecting to him. It also helps with anxiety. How wonderful is our Father!

The central theory from one review study is that grounding affects the living matrix, which is the central connector between living cells. Electrical conductivity exists within the matrix that functions as an immune system defense, similar to antioxidants. They believe that through grounding, the natural defenses of the body can be restored. Further research expands on this idea. In a small study on grounding and heart health, 10 healthy participants were grounded using patches on the palms of their hands and soles of their feet. Blood measurements were taken before and after grounding to determine any changes in red blood cell fluidity, which plays a role in heart health. The results indicated significantly less red blood cell clumping after grounding, which suggests benefits for cardiovascular health.

Another slightly larger study examined the role of grounding on post-exercise muscle damage. Blood work indicated that grounding reduced muscle damage and pain in participants. This suggests that grounding may influence healing abilities.

Go barefoot outside for at least half-hour and see what a difference it makes on your pain or stress level. Sit, stand, lay or walk on grass, sand, dirt, or plain concrete. These are all conductive surfaces from which your body can draw the Earth's energy. Wood, carpet, asphalt, sealed or painted concrete and vinyl won't work and will block the flow of electrons as they are not conductive surfaces.

Other Ways to be Earthed:

- Swim in the ocean or lakes
- Garden with bare hands
- Lay on the Earth
- Hug a living tree
- Lean up against a living tree
- Sleep on the earth while camping
- Wear natural leather-soled shoes instead of synthetic rubber/plastic shoes

Exod 3:6 And He said, "I am the Eternal of your father, the Eternal of Abraham, the Eternal of Yah'shaq, and the Eternal of Ya'cob." Then Mosheh hid his face, because of his reverence and regard toward Yahuah.

3:7 ויאמר יהוה ראה ראיתי את-עני עמי אשר במצרים

Nothing gets by Yahuah. He is acutely aware of His children and of His obligations to us. He goes to great lengths to teach His wayward children the instructions to get back on the path home. They may be harsh lessons in our view. But what is worse? A parent that does not care about our future and lets us do what we want no matter how destructive or a parent that teaches there are consequences to our actions of breaking our covenant with Him? He wants to spend eternity with us. However, there is a standard to uphold for us to be welcomed into that eternity- for the safety of all concerned. No one wants to repeat what happened in the garden right?

We must be refined and purified if we are to stand before the consuming presence of Yahuah. It is up to us how Yahuah teaches us.

Notice if you will, it was never recorded that Abraham went through a tough time with Yahuah.

There was no need! He was all in! Remember, what we profess with our mouths, Yahuah will hold us accountable for. If we profess to be in Covenant with Him, He will do all He can to make sure we honor that commitment to Him. It is our free will to walk away, but until our lives are over, He will continue to present situations that will have us calling out to Him. How does a smelter know the gold and silver are pure? When they can see their reflection in it. When we call out to Yahuah, He can see His reflection start to come through. We hope this makes sense. Yahuah only works with our best interest in mind. It is our best interest to follow His instructions. A perfect circle.

Exod 3:8 “And I have come down to deliver them from the hand of the Mitsrites, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Kena'anites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites and the Yebusites.

Interesting to note and not coincidental that all these “ites” came from the line of Ham and Canaan. Yahuah would be teaching these people the consequences of being rebellious to Him after bringing this line through the great flood. It was a righteous act on Yahuah's part.

The Exodus From Egypt

Nuweiba Beach Crossing -- Sinai at Jabal al-Lawz

Just as a point of reference they sure took the long way home.

Israel traveled from Goshen by way of the Red Sea wilderness to Succoth (Exod 13:18-20).

Israel camped at a number of places before coming to Ezion Geber (Num 33:15-35).

Israel came to Kadesh Barnea and wandered in the wilderness before heading north to conquer their enemies (Num 33:15-35).

Israel camped before Pi Hahiroth between Israel and the Sea--they were trapped (Exod 14:2-3).

Israel traveled to Mara (Exod 15:22), then they camped near Elim (Exod 15:27), then on to Rephidim (Exod 17:1).

Israel camped in the Wilderness of Sinai near Mt. Sinai (Exod 19:1-2).

Exod 3:9 “And now, behold! The cry of distress and anguish of the sons of Yah'shara'al (Yah powerfully leads) has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression as a ת strong Covenant mark with which the Mitsrites oppress them.

In Hebrew you can break up the words to find root words to give more meaning to the word you are looking at. “Israel” can be broken up several ways and it is our contention that depending upon how this paternal family was acting dictates how we pronounce it.

This is powerful leader.

This 2 letter word has many meanings.

With the Yod in front we know who it is that powerfully leads.

Yah'shara'al = Yah powerfully leads

Lexicon :: Strong's H3478 - Yisra'el

Strong's H8280 - sarah

Root Word (Etymology)

From שָׂרָה (H8280) and

Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon [?]

H8280

שָׂרָה — (1) TO PLACE IN A ROW, TO SET IN ORDER; Arab. سار. Med. Waw, reihen, ordnen. Hence שֹׁרָה series, order, row; which see.

(2) to be leader, commander, prince, i. q. שָׂרָה No. I. 2, and שָׂרָה; from setting in order, arranging soldiers. Arab. سار to be noble, liberal; سارى a prince, a noble.

(3) to fight (prop. to wage war) with any one; followed by עַם Genesis 32:29; followed by אֶת Hos. 12:4 (Arab. سار Conj. III. id.). Fut. is taken from שָׂרָה No. I.

If you look up Israel in Blue Letter Bible you will find it under H3478. They translate it as "God Prevails". They do this by breaking up the root word H8280 Shara - (Same as spelling as Abraham's wife's name H8283) which means to be a leader and to fight to prevail. H8281 spelled the same means to let loose or set free.

Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon [?]

H8281

I. שָׂרָה i. q. Ch. שָׂרָה to loose.

PIEL, שָׂרָה TO LOOSE, Jer. 15:11 קרי לטוב, "I will loose thee for good," i. e. I will set thee free. The Hebrews appear to have used this verb also in a bad sense (לרע), for to desert, on which account there is added in this place לטוב.

Derivatives, מִשָּׂרָה, נְשִׂוּת.

When we are in Covenant we conclude the pronunciation would be Yah'shara'al.

In the sense of our verse, Yahuah fits this description to a tee. He was taking command as supreme leader, putting into place and arranging who would be taking the journey based on their decisions and putting leadership into place with Mosha. He literally fought against Pharaoh and his army, and prevailed in setting free His paternal kin.

ישראל

If you dig into the Hebrew language you will find that certain letters have changed sounds and been exchanged for other letters over time. This happened with the

In Modern Hebrew this is just pronunciation but in Pictograph this changes the whole meaning of the word. Also remember Yahuah is very poetic. It would just be like His character to use the same word to describe His paternal people spelled one way when in covenant and one way when they rebelled. We reason that is what was done, but the scribes "corrected" this, not getting fully what Yahuah was expressing. What do we mean by this? Consider the word Israel now spelled with an Aleph in front of the Yod. And and Ayin instead of the Aleph.

- Ayin ע and the Yod י
- Ayin ע and Aleph א
- The Shin ש and the Samek ס
- Tau ת and Thet ט

Mosha felt as we all do, we are not worthy. But please consider this, when we think this, we are telling Yahuah the Creator of the Universe that HE made a mistake! We need to focus on what Yahuah sees in us. Our ability to love Him fully! That is all He needs to be able to do His work in us. A soft heart for Him alone. Self doubt is a tool of the enemy. As far as Netanyahu's last name, the Biblical meaning is no less significant for a leader of the Jewish people.

The prime minister's family hails from Poland, where their surname was Mileikowsky. Rabbi Nathan (Natan) Mileikowsky moved to the Land of Israel in 1920, where the passionately Zionist rabbi occasionally used the pen name "Netanyahu". His sons later adopted the pen-name as their surname.

According to Abrahamovitz, the Hebrew meaning of Netanyahu derives from the word Natan (na-TAN), which means "to give." The suffix "yahu," which concludes the prime minister's surname, is one of the names of God. Thus, the full meaning of his surname is "God gives." The name Netanyahu appears a number of times in the Bible, specifically in the books of Jeremiah and Chronicles.

The ancient roots of his surname are not lost on the prime minister. In a speech to AIPAC in 2010, Netanyahu shocked delegates with an incredible announcement:

“

In my office, I have a signet ring that was loaned to me by Israel's Department of Antiquities. The ring was found next to the Western wall, but it dates back some 2,800 years ago, two hundred years after King David turned Jerusalem into our capital city.

The ring is a seal of a Jewish official, and inscribed on it in Hebrew is his name: Netanyahu. Netanyahu Ben-Yoash. That's my last name.

A Hebrew seal found in Jerusalem from the First Temple bearing the name "Netanyahu"

A person's name can tell us so much about who they are as a person and is an inherent part of one's identity. Jewish tradition holds that a name is connected back to the original namesake, sharing character traits and attributes. Israel365 will personally research each name and then prepare a

YAHU-Ah.

This is how the Prime Minister of Israel says his name and pronounces the name found in Jeremiah and Chronicles. So we find that we have sound footing for pronouncing Yahuah this way as well. But we will know for sure when Yah Himself restores our language as promised in the end.

We have seen that Yahuah wanted Mosha to make a few things known.

- As a sign that Mosha was speaking for Him, He would continue to bring His people back to this set apart mountain range.
- His character is everlasting. He was not to be identified with any other deity that they were aware of from other religions.
- He had a history with this people and a promise He was intent on keeping because of Abraham, Isaac and Yac'cob.
- He has a specific Name-Yahuah that He wants published and spoken so that He alone gets the recognition for what He has done, what He is doing and what He will accomplish in the future. And he specifically wants the Pharaoh to know His name
- He has never stopped paying especially close attention to His paternal kin, even in exile- past, present and future.
- He is now acting upon (shamar) the plan He has put into place.
- Yahuah was and will be awe inspiring which leads them and us to be released from captivity.
- They and we will leave with a purpose. They left with gold and silver and we will leave and be rewarded with the riches of eternal life for the purpose to live in the House of Yahuah with all our Covenant family.
