Studies with Scripture explaining the Covenant with Yahuah - what He expects as well as what He offers us as His children. There are chronological studies showing when they first showed up in Scripture and with amplification of Scripture one will find a whole new look for the Father of the Universe.

Our Methodology

The tricky thing about going chronological is that we get hints of an instruction way before it was written down in Exodus. This was a great eye opener as we went through Genesis. They knew of these things from somewhere. Adam and Hawah must have taught their children and now that the 365 books of Enoch are lost, we do not have an accurate picture of the first mention of these things.

We have chosen to deal with this by acknowledging the first mention of a subject but will not address it fully until the actual instruction is given. We want to recreate the feeling of starting from scratch. It seems to us that Yahuah watched mankind and as we progressed kept note of the things which caused us to stumble the most. It was then at Sinai that Yahuah was able to set in stone the things for us to guard against and remember that would keep us on the path. But we will see that the moral code was already in practice as well as some ceremonial things. How could it be otherwise? Everyone has had the information they needed to come to love and choose Yahuah, if He has chosen them. There are some things that prevent Him from choosing certain creations, so let us keep that in mind, even if we do not fully understand it.

In Part 7 of our journey in the book of Shemot/Exodus, we continue with our study of what it means to be in Covenant with Yahuah. In today's study Yahuah, brings about a brilliant teaching on Shabbat and learning the importance of paying attention to detail. It also highlights the art of effective communication. All this as we continue looking at the Man- (AH! I get it now).

EXODUS

SETTING THE SCENE..

Exod 15:26 And He said, “If you carefully and diligently listen with the understanding to heed (double shama!) the voice of יהוה your Eternal and who is righteous in His eyes, and work and pay attention by broadening your willingness to understand and respond to His terms and conditions, (Mistwah) and shall guard and protect all His established statutes (Huq-qay), I shall bring on you none of the diseases I brought on the Mitsrites, for I am יהוה your healer.”

Yahuah has already told them what they need to be doing. Pay close attention to what He is saying and to the one whom He is giving instructions to. They need to broaden their thinking to be able to grasp this chain of authority. If Mosha is telling them what Yahuah said, it has the same authority as if it comes directly from Yahuah. If Mosha has given the authority to teach to the Elders over the tribes, and they are saying the exact same thing as Mosha, who is saying the exact same thing as Yahuah, then the people need to pay attention as if it is being said to them directly from Yah. A perfect form of the game “telephone”. This only works however, if the message from Yahuah is expressed by leaders exactly as Yahuah has said. A perfect example of “perfect telephone” is Yahusha.

In order for this event to have success then and in the future, this chain of authority had to be established and adhered to. Otherwise the people would be out of Yahuah’s will. Mosha was ultimately responsible for the education of the people in learning Yah’s will.

Exod 16:17 And in this manner, worked the children of Yah'shara'al as they gathered. Some more, some less. 18 Then they measured in omers (about 2 quarts). Then the one gathering more had no more than an adequate amount, and the one gathering little did not lack. Each one gathered according to what he could eat.

Off to a great start! No one got greedy and gathered the amount that they were told and what they could eat up in a day. No one was going hungry. Now came the second part of these terms and conditions.

Exod 16:19 Then Mosha said, “Let no man (Ish) have any of it remain until the next morning.” 20 And they did not listen to Mosheh, so some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred crimson worms and stank. And Mosha was provoked to anger and was furious with them.

Two big issues.

#1. Some of them did not listen to Mosha.

Not all of them decided to go their own way. But Yahuah has told us, that a little leaven will corrupt the whole loaf if not corrected. We want to caution that this line of thinking is only for Yahuah's will and His terms and conditions. Why? Because His way only has our best interests at heart. This does not apply to man's laws or ordinances that clearly do not have our best interest at heart and go against Yahuah's will. That is a big difference. We must draw the line in the sand in our lives using Yahuah's pen. Otherwise we will become frightened and keep moving the line. We need to hold our ground. Yahuah is locked and loaded standing in front and beside and behind us. No Fear!

#2 Moshah was wroth with them.

The people are not getting the clear picture of how important this is. They put in a request and Yahuah provided, but with terms and conditions. The terms and conditions must be agreed upon and then acted upon for the benefit of the request being continually honored. As humans, it is important for us to know the "why". That is why we love it when we see the word "because" in Scripture. Yahuah knows that if something makes sense to us, it makes it easier to trust Him. The more we trust Him with the things that He asks us to do knowing the reason for it, then on the things we don't know the reasons for, we should have enough experience with Yahuah to know it is for the best. We just don't have all the pieces yet. Moshah was the weak link here. Moshah recognized he needed to do a better job at guarding the situation and engaged the leaders. He was growing into this leadership role Yahuah style. He was entitled just like everyone else to have growing pains. Teshuva is the word.

Exod 16:22 Then it came to exist, on the sixth day, that they gathered a double portion. Two omers ( 4 quarts) for one person. And all the leaders of the assembly came and gave evidence to Mosha.

16:22 ויהי ביום הששי לקטו לחם משנה שני העמר לאחד
ויבאו כל-נשיאי העדה ויגידו למשה:

Mosha may have a thick tongue but is a quick learner. He is holding the leaders accountable for their tribes. Yahuah's chain of authority is being taught here. There was no way for Mosha to possibly check on every household, but with the tribes divided up, the leader of each tribe should have been able to make sure the message was understood and why they were doing it this way. This is a Covenant requirement not just for the wilderness but they would be keeping Shabbat forever. It would be their jobs to teach each generation! They were to be the light to the world. They had to get this right.

Exod 16:23 And he said to them, “This is what יהוה has said, ‘A Shabbaton-a rest period- a Sabbath set-apart to יהוה. is tomorrow את as a strong covenant mark. In relation to that which you bake, bake. And את as a strong covenant mark, in relation to that which you roast, roast. And את as a strong covenant mark, put aside for yourselves the surplus, as a requirement and obligation to guard until morning.’ ”

16:23 ויאמר אלהם הוא אשר דבר יהוה שבתון שבת־קדש ליהוה מחר את אשר־תאפו אפו ואת אשר־תבשלו בשלו ואו כל־העדף הניחו לכם למשמרת עד־הבקר:

Exod 16:24 And they laid it up את as a strong covenant mark, till morning, as Masha instructed. And it did not stink, and no crimson worm was in it.

16:24 ויניחו אתו עֲדָה־בִּקְרָא כַּאֲשֶׁר צִוָּה מֹשֶׁה וְלֹא הִבְאִישׁ
וְרִמָּה לֹא־הִיְתָה בּוֹ:

Perfect! They were told the why and what to expect and they did it correct. They gathered double and cooked it all and the next morning it was good to eat. A miracle they should have noticed.

Exod 16:25 And Mosha said, "Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to יהוה . Today you do not find it in the field. 26 "Six days you will gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, it will not come to exist on it."

16:25 ויאמר משה אכלהו היום כי-שבת היום ליהוה היום
לא תמצאהו בשדה:

16:26 ששת ימים תלקטהו וביום השביעי שבת לא יהיה-בו:

Mosha thought he did a good job explaining the why and they did gather the 2nd portion which was great. He even warned them that on Shabbat there would be nothing out there so do not go. Just stay and rest for this is a day given to them by Yahuah. Why was this not resonating with some of the people?

Is The Rabble The Mixed Multitude?

- Exodus 12:38 A mixed multitude also went ...
- Numbers 11:4 The rabble who were among them had greedy desires; and also the sons of Israel wept again and said, "Who will give us meat to eat?"

Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon

Root Word (Etymology)

By reduplication from אַסַּף (H624)

אַסְפִּסָּף m., collectiu, adj. adunatus, mixtus contemptuously, a mixed crowd, scraped together of men of all kinds, colluvies, who added themselves to the Israelites; Gefindel (which word is itself a diminutive used in contempt). With article אַסְפִּסָּף־הַ Num. 11:4, Aleph quiescent. The same are called in Ex. 12:38, עַרְבֵי רֶבֶךָ.

It is our observation that the mixed multitude was in the rear or last to come out and were the hardest to convince due to not having a basis of knowing who Yahuah is and the heritage of Abraham. They were put in back of the line and mixed in with Dan, Ephraim and Menasha. This makes perfect sense because Ephraim and Menasha were half Egyptian!

to gather, receive, remove, gather in

A. (Qal)

- i. to gather, collect
- ii. to gather (an individual into company of others)
- iii. to bring up the rear
- iv. to gather and take away, remove, withdraw

B. (Niphal)

- i. to assemble, be gathered
- ii. (pass of Qal 1a2)
  - a. to be gathered to one's fathers
  - b. to be brought in or into (association with others)
- iii. (pass of Qal 1a4)
  - a. to be taken away, removed, perish

C. (Piel)

- i. to gather (harvest)
- ii. to take in, receive into
- iii. rearguard, rearward (subst)

D. (Pual) to be gathered

E. (Hithpael) to gather oneself or themselves

We observe that this would be the group to have the most people in it who would have trouble following Yahuah's instructions.

On the side opposite to the eastern camp, to the west, were the tribes of Ephraim, Menashe, and Benyamin. Ephraim and Menashe essentially represented Shevet Yosef. Based upon Yaaqob Avinu's blessing to his sons prior to his demise, HaRav Hirsch suggests that Ephraim and Menashe were to develop greatness and might. Bravery would be their primary attribute, which would be a wonderful supplement to Yehudah in the east in terms of national welfare. Regrettably, history indicates that instead of complementing Yehudah, the house of Yosef opposed their leadership, catalyzing a tragic rift in Klal Yisrael. Instead of planting their banner behind Yehudah, they chose to go to the forefront and claim leadership. When they broke the G-d-given formation, they brought ruin upon themselves and all the other tribes that had attached themselves to them.

Exod 16:28 And יהוה said to Mosha, “How long shall you refuse or resist to be in the position to guard My Mitswah and My Torot -
 Instructions (Torah plural) ?

16:28 ויאמר יהוה אל-משה עד-אנה מאנתם לשמר מצותי
 ותורתי:

Yahuah was upset with Mosha and not the people for not following these instructions!

He may have had experience with commanding armies but a general populous that was not recognizing Mosha's authority over them was like herding cats! He had to take a more active role in being sure the instructions were clear and understood and agreed upon! You can tell someone to do something but it means nothing if they do not agree to do it.

So it was Mosha, (not Yahuah) that put a fence ordinance around the Shabbat to guard it, because he could not get the importance of Yahuah's message across. This was also up to all the elders of each tribe. But Mosha was responsible. He was the leader. Now Mosha goes back and explains the reason for what they are being asked to do.

Exod 16:29 “See, because הוה has given to you the Sabbat, therefore He is giving you bread for two days on the sixth day. Stay and remain, each man in his place. No man (ish) goes out of his place on the seventh day.”

16:29 ראו כי-יהוה נתן לכם השבת על-כן הוא נתן לכם
ביום הששי לחם יומים שבו איש תחתיו אל-יצא איש ממקומו
ביום השביעי:

We can clearly understand this in today's world, but Mosha to drive the point home put them in a 24hr quarantine. He built a fence around Yahuah's instruction to rest to be sure everyone understood that this was a day to look to Yahuah and find the blessing of what He has done and how amazing He is. This was a time for teaching the children and instilling a trust in Yahuah for future generations. Shabbat is amazing if you let it be about Yahuah and resting in Him and His plan for you. Let Yahuah restore, replenish and refocus your mind.

Exod 16:30 Then the people- the paternal kin, rested on the seventh day.

16:30 וישבתו העם ביום השבעי:

Shabbat Shalom שבת שלום

- Gen 2:2-3 Shabbat – The seventh day of the week. We cease from doing normal business. Setting the day apart out of respect for what Yahuah has created. Created for the specific function of not being like any other day, it is a favored day that is exalted by Yahuah. A gift for intimacy with Him.
- Exod 16:25 And Mosheh said, “Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to יהוה , today you do not find it in the field. 26 “Gather it six days, but on the seventh day, which is the Sabbath, there is none.”

CONSEQUENCES

- Do not ingest and live off the evil energy, food, knowledge of this world as it leads to death. Feed on what Yahuah has provided. Gen 2-16-17
- Woman will now worry about conception and have pain at childbirth. Gen 3:16
- Woman will now have her husband rule over her even though she will not want that. That is the consequence of Hawah's actions. Women must accept this just and righteous judgement. Gen 3:16
- Mankind will now have to earn what he eats out of the ground. Gen 3:17
- The ground was cursed to not produce so abundantly for man, to be the vehicle that Yahuah uses to met out this consequence. Although today in modern societies most men do not toil the field- a few do that, most other men toil for money to buy what comes from the field.

- Our life span was reduced to no more than 120 years. Gen 6:3

CONSEQUENCES

- The consequence of sin, once it reaches the point of no return is total destruction. Gen 6:5-7
- Corruption of the Flesh (DNA, hybrids, AI,) and violence brings the judgement of total destruction from Yahuah Gen 6:11-13
- Yahuah Himself brought floodwaters on the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life from under the heavens – all that is on the earth is to die due to corruption of the flesh and violence. Gen 6:17
- Gen 11:8 Yahuah scatters the people for profaning and trying to usurp Him.
- Gen 12:3 “And I shall ..... curse him who curses you (Abram).
- Gen 17:14 “So an uncircumcised male, who is not circumcised כּ as a strong covenant mark, in the flesh of his foreskin, he shall be cut off- separated from his people – כּ -Behold-pay strong attention to this sign- as he has broken My Covenant.”

CONSEQUENCES

- Gen 19:13 “For we are going to destroy את as a strong Covenant mark this place, because the cry against them has grown great את as a strong Covenant mark before the face of יהוה who sent us . יהוה will destroy it.” Gen 19:23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Tso‘ar. 19:24 And יהוה rained brimstone of sulphur and fire on Sedom and Amarah, את as a strong Covenant mark from יהוה out of the heavens. 19:25 Then He overthrew את as a strong Covenant mark those inhabitants, and את as a strong Covenant mark the whole plain, and את as a strong Covenant mark all the inhabitants of the cities, and the vegetation on the ground.
- Exod 3:8 “And I have come down to deliver them from the hand of the Mitsrites, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Kena'anites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Yebusites.
