A Slight Detour- Understanding Honor and Shame

We should have addressed this before we started the Instructions dealing with man's actions toward man which is ultimately a reflection of how in sync we are with Yahuah.

Here in the west we can clearly see all around us that what we view as shameful or honorable is based on a completely different scale than Yahuah's. That is a big problem. Yahuah confirms this:

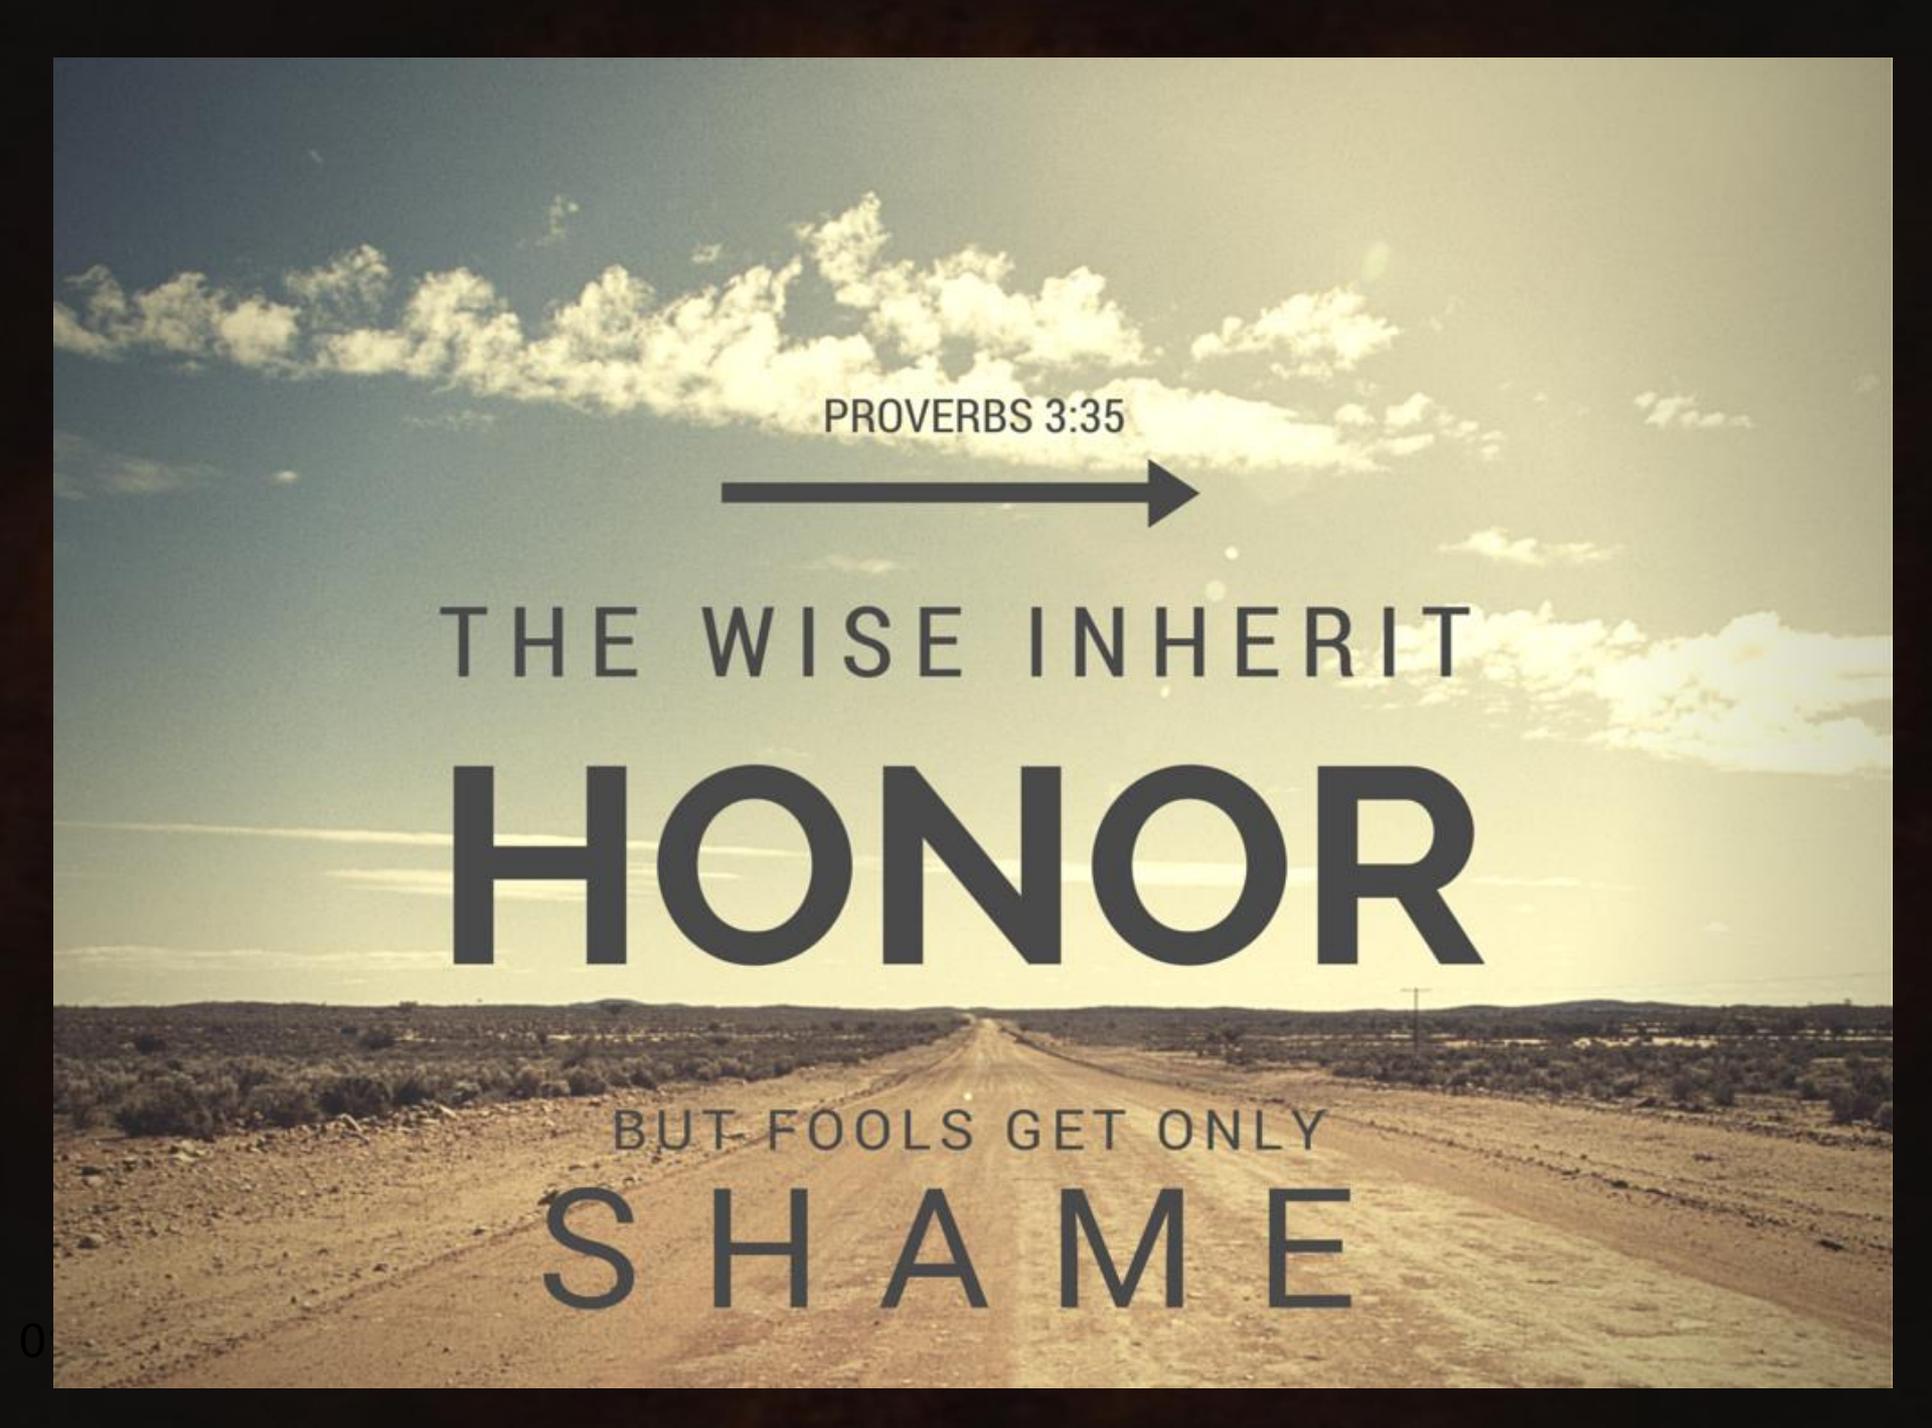

Isa 55:8 “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,” declares יהוה.

Isa 55:9 “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.

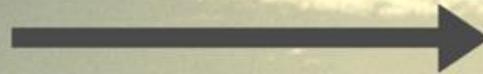

As always, anything written in comic sans font, we inserted in articles as corrections or are our narration.

The Pattern

- Yahuah lovingly gives us instructions to follow diligently and carefully
- ❖ IF We seek to understand and return love to Yahuah by applying the instructions, and joyfully clinging to them and Him, knowing they are for our best interest...
- THEN Yahuah will diligently and lovingly protect and care for us until He calls us home.

A dirt road stretches into the distance under a cloudy sky. The sky is filled with large, white, fluffy clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden light. The road is flanked by dry, scrubby vegetation. The overall scene is a vast, open landscape.

PROVERBS 3:35

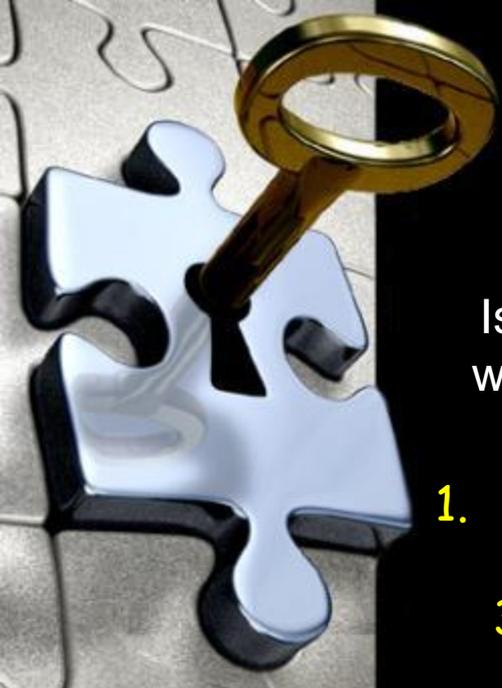

THE WISE INHERIT

HONOR

BUT FOOLS GET ONLY

SHAME

Let us put Yahuah's words in context and see if we can unlock more insight on Honor and Shame. As always, Yahuah is teaching us that when we follow His path, then we will be given everything we need.

Isa 55:1 "Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price.

1. Why does it say to buy something when we have no money?
2. What is the meaning of water, wine and milk?
3. Why are people thirsty? Yahuah tells us this in great detail.

Consider the Targum's version:

"he that has no silver, come, hear and learn; come, hear and learn, without price and money, doctrine better than wine and milk."

Isa 55:1 “Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price.

1. Why does it say to buy something when we have no money?

The translators saw fit to interpret this word pointed with the definition to buy and sell H7666. However, the root word H7665 is to break into pieces or divide. You separate in portions as if to sell them but you will not be charged should have been conveyed.

Outline of Biblical Usage [?]

- I. to buy or purchase grain
 - A. (Qal) to buy grain
 - B. (Hiphil) to sell grain

Strong's Definitions [?] (Strong's Definitions Legend)

שָׁבַר shāḇar, shaw-bar'; a primitive root; to burst (literally or figuratively):—break (down, off, in pieces, up), broken (-hearted), bring to the birth, crush, destroy, hurt, quench, ✕ quite, tear, view (by mistake for H7663).

VII. To break or separate into small portions. So in Kal, to retail, to sell or buy by retail.

Let's reword this so we get a more exact meaning of what Yahuah is saying without the contradictory words.

Isa 55:1 “Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, separate into small portions and eat. Come, separate into small portions the wine and milk without silver and without price.

Isa 55:1 “Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price.

In Proverbs 23:23 we have the same kind of misunderstanding by translation but a different word for buy. Looks like the translators wanted books sales in the future, and a good way to bring shame to yourself..

Pro 23:23 Buy the truth and do not sell it – Wisdom and discipline and understanding.

A golden key is inserted into a white puzzle piece. The key is positioned vertically, with its head at the top and its shaft passing through the hole of the puzzle piece. The puzzle piece is surrounded by other white puzzle pieces, some of which are slightly offset, creating a sense of depth and focus on the key and its corresponding hole. The background is a light-colored, textured surface, possibly a wall or a floor.

Isa 55:1 “Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price.

2. What is the meaning of water, wine and milk?

When Yahuah calls the thirsty ones to come to the water, it is like the water a shepherd leads his flock to. But this is no ordinary water. It is the cleansing, transformative, living water. The Torah.

Wine and milk are the qualities of the Covenant of Yahuah.

- Wine, for the antiquity of them, and for their being of a reviving and refreshing nature, brings gladness. The pure warming joy of stress and tension fading away when living within the shalom of Yahuah's Covenant. A property that helps tear down our barriers built by years of abuse in the world. In the Covenant of Yahuah we can relax by still waters while He restores our soul.
- Milk, for its purity and sweetness, and for its cooling and nourishing nature, and because of ease of digestion. Milk can change properties and be made into butter and cheese. But it is a foundational ingredient. Also before moving on to “meatier” matters we need to be able to digest the foundational truth of the milk.

Isa 55:1 “Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price.

3. Why are people thirsty? Yahuah tells us this in great detail.

Jer 2:11 “Has a nation changed its mighty ones, which are not mighty ones? But My people have changed My esteem¹ for that which does not profit. Footnote: ¹Symbolic name for His Ark. Jer 2:12 “Be amazed, O heavens, at this, and be frightened, be utterly dried up,” declares יהוה.

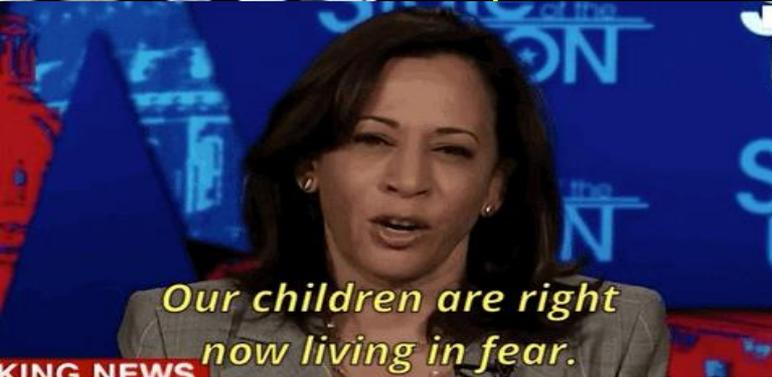

We are quick to assume Yahuah is talking to the Gentiles or the “evil” Jews but He is talking to Covenant Family Members! History repeats itself, so if it has happened before, we need to be on guard for it to happen in our life time because- WE DID THE SAME THING!

“Has a nation changed its mighty ones, which are not mighty ones?”

How have Covenant family members done this today? We have opted to believe those who have a history of deception at our own peril. Who is in charge? Yahuah or fear?

Our children are right now living in fear.

Shame on us!

Shame on us!

The rebuke becomes more and more specific. Great rivers were, in the poetry of the prophets, the natural symbols of the kingdoms through which they flowed. Sihor (= the turbid or muddy river) here, and in Joshua 13:3 it stands for the border stream between Palestine and Egypt), represented Egypt. The “river,” or “flood,” needing no other name as pre-eminent in its greatness, the Euphrates, stood for Assyria. The words point to the tendency to court the alliance now of one, now of the other of the great kingdoms of the world. The policy was no new one. Menahem in Israel, Ahaz in Judah, had courted Assyria; Hezekiah, Babylon; Hoshea had sought help from Egypt. The prophet Hosea had rebuked both policies. Even under Hezekiah there was a party seeking the Egyptian alliance. Under Manasseh and Amon that party was in power, and the very name of the latter probably bears witness to its influence. Josiah kept as far as possible the position of a neutral, but, when forced into action, and probably guided by the counsels of Hilkiah, resisted the advance of Pharaoh-nechoh. On his death the Egyptian party again gained ground under Jehoiakim, while Jeremiah, opposing its strength, urged the wisdom of accepting the guidance of events, and submitting to the Chaldæans (so far continuing the line of action adopted by Hezekiah), and ultimately was accused of deserting his own people and “falling away” to their oppressors

UNITED NATIONS NEW WORLD ORDER

Being aligned with China, tyranny, socialism and political correctness we are being accepting of values that are not condoned by Torah. We have done two evils. Forsaken Yahuah and served another master in fear. We have not done enough of our own homework to discern what is correct, but blindly accept the mandates of truly evil people, expecting a good outcome. A breathlessly stupid thing to do. No wonder Yah told the heavens to be afraid.

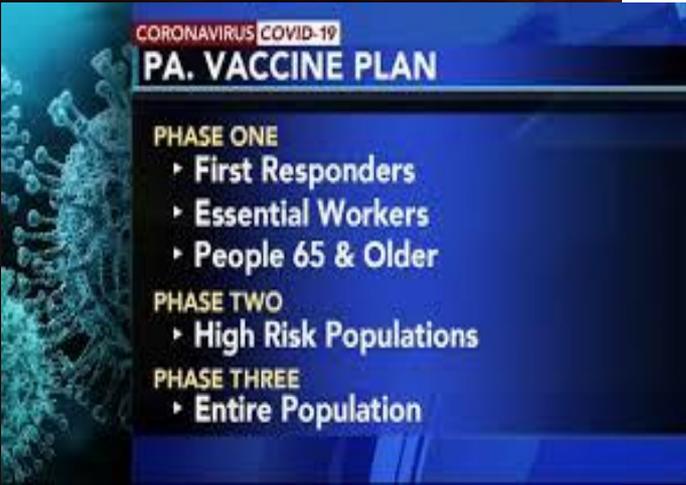

Jer 2:17 “Have you not done this to yourself, by forsaking יהוה your Eternal when He¹⁹ led you in the way? Jer 2:18 “And now why take the way to Mitsrayim, to drink the waters of Shiḥor? Or why take the way to Ashshur, to drink the waters of the River? Jer 2:19 “Your own evil instructs you, and your backslidings reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is evil and bitter that you have forsaken יהוה your Eternal, and that My reverence/fear is not in you,” declares the Master יהוה of hosts.

The words paint with an almost terrible vividness the eager, restless state of the daughter of Zion in its harlot-like lust for the false gods of the heathen. The female camel, in the uncontrollable violence of its brute passion, moving to and fro with panting eagerness—that was now the fit image for her who had once been the betrothed of Yahuah.

Like many other childhood vaccines such as those for measles, smallpox, and polio, the new Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) vaccines currently under development contain additives that were long ago spliced into existence using the remains of tiny babies murdered in the womb.

The most common ingredients were derived from either the lungs of an unborn baby girl who was terminated back in 1962 at just three months gestation or from the lungs of an unborn baby boy who was terminated in 1966 at 14 weeks gestation.

In both cases, these two abortions were elective, meaning the mothers decided to end their pregnancies, and thus the lives of the two human lives that were developing inside their wombs.

Having been preserved for many decades in liquid nitrogen, the fetal cells from these two murder children are used to culture today's vaccines. Since they have not been divided as often as adult cells, these fetal cells work well in producing lots of new vaccines very quickly.

According to the official narrative, today's vaccines do not actually contain any actual aborted human fetal tissue, and no new abortions are performed in order to create new vaccines. The cells that were obtained from the two aforementioned babies who were aborted, however, are, in fact, used to produce ingredients in many of today's vaccines, including those being developed for the Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19).

According to Science magazine, the journal of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, at least five of the upcoming Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) vaccines currently in development do actually contain ingredients derived from the cell lines of two newer aborted babies, one of which was terminated in the 1970s and the other of which was eliminated in 1985.

Liberty Counsel Chairman Mat Staver is sounding the alarm about the horrors they contain.

Of particular concern are continued efforts in states across America to eliminate exemptions to vaccination, which will make it that much more difficult for people who oppose being forcibly injected to sidestep any future mandates.

“Big Pharma reportedly constitutes approximately one-sixth of the U.S. economy,” Staver warns, noting that mandatory vaccinations are a massive cash cow for the pharmaceutical industry.

“Additionally, the pharmaceutical industry spends more money on lobbying at both the state and federal levels than any other sector of the U.S. economy. In 2019, for example, Big Pharma spent a massive $295 million on federal lobbying – more than double the nearest runner-up, electronics manufacturing.”

By using aborted baby fetal tissue, drug companies can produce vaccines even cheaper than normal, allowing them to rake in windfall profits.

“And what better opportunity to make those profits skyrocket than to demand mass vaccination of the entire population ... even though COVID-19 is now known to have just a 0.26 percent death rate, roughly the same as the average annual flu,” he adds.

So let's keep those mainstream media stories mocking suspected child rape in DC flowing. The LAST thing we want in this country is the public taking child sex abuse seriously.

Jer 17:5 Thus said יהוה, “Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart turns away from יהוה.

Jer 17:6 “For he shall be like a shrub in the desert, and not see when good comes, and shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land that is not inhabited.

Jer 17:7 “Blessed is the man who trusts in יהוה, and whose trust is יהוה.

Jer 17:8 “For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, which spreads out its roots by the river, and does not see when heat comes. And his leaf shall be green, and in the year of drought he is not anxious, nor does he cease from yielding fruit.

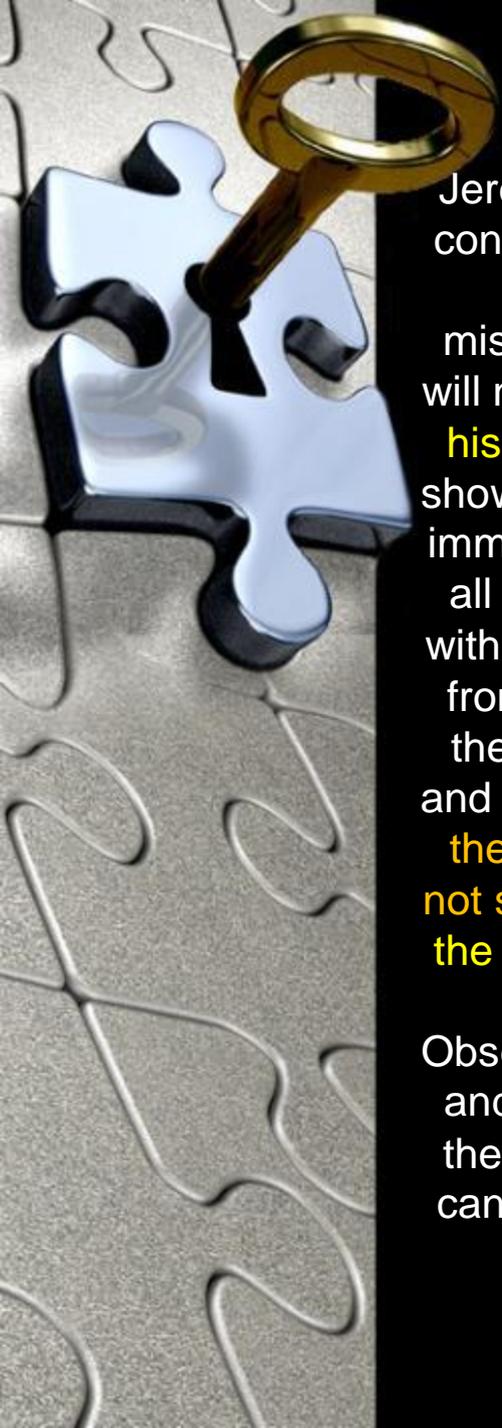

Jer 17:9 “The heart is crooked above all, and desperately sick – who shall know it?

Stress makes you believe that everything has to happen now.

TRUST reassures you that everything will happen in Yah's timing.

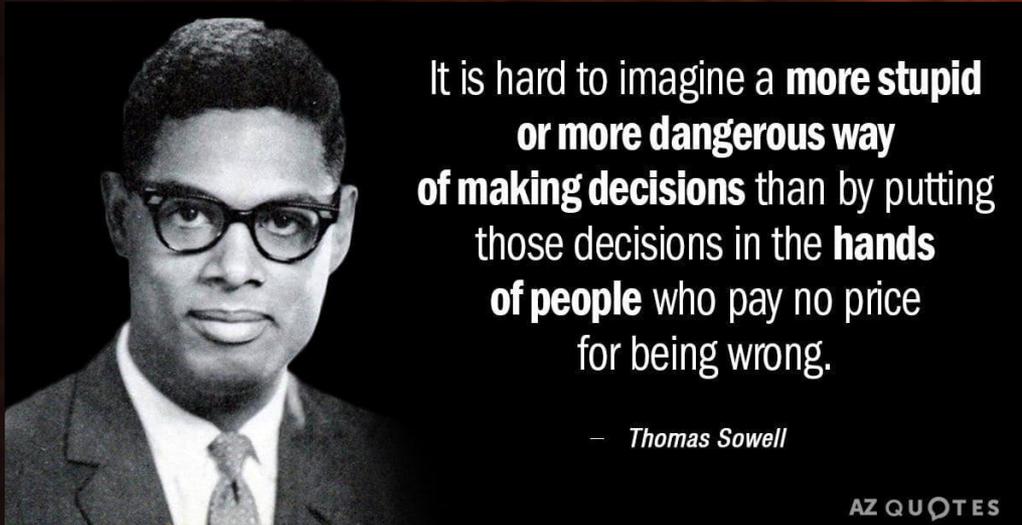

BENSON COMMENTARY

Jeremiah 17:5-6. Cursed be the man that trusts in man — Who places that confidence in the wisdom or power, the kindness or faithfulness of any man or number of men, which ought to be placed in Yahuah only; that is, miserable is the man that does so, for he leans upon a broken reed, which will not only fail him, but will run into his hand and pierce it.. And makes flesh his arm — Trusts for support or aid in a mere mortal man, termed flesh, to show his weakness and frailty, in opposition to the power of the almighty and immortal Yahuah. And whose heart departs from Yahuah — As the hearts of all do who put their trust in man. They may perhaps draw close to Yahuah with their mouths, and honor him with their lips, but really their hearts are far from him. For he shall be like the heath in the desert — Hebrew, כערער like the tamarisk, as some render the word, fragile, says Buxtorf, a small, low, and weak shrub. Sapless and useless; he shall be barren of solid comfort for the present, and destitute of well grounded hopes for the future. And shall not see when good comes — Shall not partake of any good; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness — From where he can derive no profit or consolation; in a salt land, &c. — Barren and unfruitful, Observe well, reader, they that trust in their own righteousness and strength, and think they can be saved without Yahuah and Yahusha, is making flesh their arm, and their souls cannot prosper either in graces or comforts; they can neither produce the fruits of acceptable obedience to Yahuah, nor reap the fruits of saving blessings from Him, but dwell in a dry land.

Jer 17:10 “ו, יהוה, search the heart, I try the kidneys, and give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. 17:11 “As a partridge that broods but does not hatch, so is he who gets riches, but not by right. It leaves him in the midst of his days, and at his end he is a fool.”

17:12 An esteemed throne, exalted from the beginning, is the place of our set-apart place.

17:13 O יהוה, the expectation of Yisra'el, all who forsake You are put to shame. “Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken יהוה, the fountain of living waters.”¹ 17:14 Heal me, O יהוה, so that I am healed. Save me, so that I am saved, for You are my praise. 17:15 See, they say to me, “Where is the word of יהוה? Let it come now!” 17:16 And I have not run away from being a shepherd who follows You, nor have I longed for the desperately sick day. You Yourself have known, that which came out of my lips was before You. 17:17 Do not be a ruin to me, You are my shelter in the day of evil. 17:18 Let these who persecute me be put to shame, but do not let me be put to shame. Let them be broken, but do not let me be broken. Bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction!

A Thought for The Day

TRUST

Yahuah has a reason for allowing things to happen. We may never understand His wisdom but we simply have to trust HIS WILL.

Jer 17:19 Thus יהוה said to me, “Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the sovereigns of Yahudāh come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Yahrushalayim. 17:20 “And you shall say to them, ‘Hear the word of יהוה, you sovereigns of Yahudāh, and all Yahudāh, and all the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim, who enter by these gates. 17:21 ‘Thus said יהוה, “Guard yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Yahrushalayim, 17:22 nor take a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work. And you shall set apart the Sabbath day, as I instructed your fathers. 17:23 “But they did not obey, or incline their ear, and they made their neck stiff not to hear and not to receive instruction.

The Sabbath Day

The Sabbath Day in the NT

There can be no doubt that the Sabbath law was abrogated by reason of the death of Jesus on the cross. The law, including the Sabbath, was abolished (Eph. 2:14,15; Col. 2:14).

To keep the commandments today, means NT commandments only (Jn. 14:15; Heb. 8:8-13).

The one compelling statement made in the NT about the Sabbath is that we are no longer commanded to keep it (Col. 2:16,17).

Shabath Shalom as we enter into His rest.....

So there remains a

Ibrim (Hebrews) 4:9

Jer 17:24 “And it shall be, if you diligently listen to Me,” declares יהוה, “to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, and set apart the Sabbath day, to do no work in it, 17:25 then sovereigns and heads sitting on the throne of Dawid shall enter in through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their heads – the men of Yahudah and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim. And this city shall be inhabited forever. 17:26 “And they shall come from the cities of Yahudah and from the places around Yahrushalayim, and from the land of Binyamin and from the low country, from the mountains and from the South, bringing burnt offerings and slaughtering's, grain offerings and incense, bringing offerings of praise to the House of יהוה. 17:27 “But if you do not obey Me to set apart the Sabbath day, and not to bear a burden when entering the gates of Yahrushalayim on the Sabbath day, then I shall kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall consume the palaces of Yahrushalayim, and not be quenched.” ’ ’”

When we see Yahuah meting out some justice, this will only be a reprieve. Kings and Presidents will not be keeping the Sabbath.

From the first part of this study we find that Yahuah sees a lack of trust in His plan, failing to keep the Sabbath, and going along to avoid persecution are ways we are numbered with the "evil" people who are marked to feel Yahuah's judgement. Again, "evil" is anyone or thing that is against the instructions of Torah. For those of us who are Covenant family members we stand firm and wait on Yahuah. We do not bow to tyranny or submit to Pharmakeia witchcraft. We must be on guard to protect the DNA that Yahuah gave us.

We never show fear. We seek Yah. We rest in Shalom.

Yes devil it's fully loaded and I am not afraid to use it!

By expressing our shame and regret for missing the mark Yahuah has set forth, we can be restored to a place of honor, if we are sincere and have truly understood the errors of our ways. Daud is a prime example of how to repair the tare in our relationship with Yahuah. Find the wisdom of His path and rejoice at getting another chance.

The Pattern Of the Covenant Brings The Promise of Success

- When we get off the path we turn around, ask forgiveness and return to the path, determined to not repeat the error. Teshuva.
- Yahuah will diligently protect and care for us until He calls us home.
